FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

PORTLAND HEIGHTS.

Beautiful bungalow sites permissible to builders of artistic homes. $1500 will buy a lovely location, with an outlook over the entire city, rivers and mountains; with fine car service, and in walking distance; why should you consider a home site far away? Ask any resident on the Heights where to build a home, and the answer will invariably be "No place like the Heights" or "The only place is on the Heights." You don't have to live there to test the enlivening influence of the ozone; go up any time and take a whiff with your nostrils wide open, or perchance when the fog hangs over the city and river take a ride up and meet the sun and blue sky above the clouds. You hadn't thought of such delights had you before, that you miss it if you are not there, and the residents of "The Heights" continually enjoy.

Now take warning, for these berggled prices won't last after all are taken, for instead of hundreds they'll be thousands.

JESSE HOBSON, 508 Corbett Bldg.

IF YOU OWN A LOT WILL BUILD on it a home; you pay us at any time in your own way; we prefer the interest on the investment, not the principal.

Plans, specifications and photographs free in our office of modern arteraft homes and bungalows built by us 6 years in Portland; not equalled by others in architectural style, modern conveniences, workmanship and cost. Call on Contracting Architect, 317 Lumber Exchange, 2d and Stark.

BEAUTIFUL 40-ACRE FRUIT TRACT.

Nine miles from Portland; fine macadamized road all the way; 2 miles from carline; water front on Tualatin River; good 7-room house, large barn, chicken houses, workhouse for tree grafting; all cleared and nearly all in fruit trees, mostly peaches. This place has not had a failure in peaches for 10 years; some apples, pears, cherries and all kinds of small fruits; water piped to the house from fine spring; price, $225 per acre; terms. This is the best peach orchard and one of the finest homes in the state.

DESIRABLE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

ACTUAL PRODUCING 40-ACRE PEACH ORCHARD.

BEST IN OREGON. SEE IT AND BE CONVINCED.

Nine miles of Portland and two miles of Riverside, town on Oregon Electric Railway. Latter place is easily reached by good road or rowboat or launch on the placid waters of the river that borders one side of the orchard land for a half mile; two hours' drive over smooth rock road reaches the center of the city; place is on the southwesterly slope of a high hill near its base; the slope of a high hill near its base; the greater portion being river bottom land of sandy black loam soil; the buildings are all that are desired to meet all necessities, comfort and enjoyment; besides a comfortable seven-room house, barn, chicken-houses, there are woodsheds, workshops, etc.; but the especial value is in the orchard, consisting of 1200 peach trees, more than half of which are in prime productive condition, and the others are three years old, soon will produce twice per acre each year the price now asked; the older trees already will turn out the year 25 per cent returns on the price at which the whole can now be bought. As an investment the location of the property insures a safe and sure-ly profitable advance on the present price even if there no orchard on the ground. The owner has made a competence and desires to retire and is determined to sell.

For further particulars call on me at 503 Corbett building.
