

Second Week of Powers' Great Sample Sale Begins Tomorrow

The first week of our great Sample Sale was an extremely busy one—at times it seemed as though almost half of the town felt in need of furniture. In order to open the second week of the sale with an unimpaired variety and undiminished number of special values, we bought a large number of floor samples of one of the largest wholesale furniture dealers in the city. All of these newcomers are marked at extremely attractive low prices. The one feature—outside of the very low prices—that stamps this sale as most unusual is that you can buy on time at exactly same price as though you paid cash—in fact we'd rather "charge it" than take cash.
