SUTTON'S DEATH

Mother and Sister Insist He Could Not Have Killed Himself.

SKULL FRACTURED

Family of Dead Lieutenant Will Ask Court to Fix Responsibility. Roelker Can't Be Found and Stories Conflict.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 24.—The result of the week's hearing in the Sutton case has caused the attorneys for Mrs. Sutton to declare that the Criminal Court will be called upon to pass upon the conficting testimony of the young marine officers, if the naval court now sitting re-affirms the werdict of the former hearing, which it seems probable will be the

The Suttons deciare that no white-washing will satisfy them. "What we want to find out," declared Mrs. Parker today, "is who killed Jimmie. I think that sayone who has followed the con-flicting stories told in court will agree that it has been shown that my brother could not have killed himself. Some one size did, if he did not. We demand that this court by the responsibility or desiss did, it he did not. We demand that this court fix the responsibility or de-clars its inability to do so. A mere in-quiry into discipline will not do. This is a more serious matter. A man was killed and the court should make every effort to find out who killed him."

Roelker Can't Be Found.

So far, all the witnesses except Edward Roelker, formerly Lieutenant of the but now missing, and Lieutenant grold H. Utley, on his way here from e to tell his story, have been exam Reciker was dropped from school for drunkenness soon after Sutton met death. It is not likely that he will be found. His It is not likely that he will be found. His testimeny is considered very important, because it was he who is supposed to have been shot by Sutton. Also his story told before the first inquiry board conflicts absolutely with those told by the other officers before and at this hearing. Utley has several things to explain. He is declared by several officers to have been in neveral places at one time. Attorneys would like to know what he says about his action that night.

Say Sutton's Skull Fractured.

In support of the theory of Mrs. Sutton and her daughter that Lieutenant Sutton was stripped and beaten to death, it is claimed today that the report of the physician who performed the gutopsy will show that Sutton's skull was fractured.

Dr. McCormick, who performed this utopay, is to be one of the most important witnesses next week.

Mrs. Sutton Finds Mare's Nest. Mrs. Sutton Fluds Mare's Nest.

Receiving word today that her apartments in Washington had been entered last night and that a trunk had been broken open and a number of valuable gapers stolen, Mrs. Sutton left for Washington this afternoon. Returning here tonight, Mrs. Sutton said that the information upon which she went to Washington was not quite accurate. A trunk in her apartments had been broken open, but this had been done by some one she had sent there to got something from the trunk and who, having lest the key thereto, forced the lock. The broken lock having been noticed by the people in the house, Mrs. Sutton was nettiled of what seemed an attempted robbery. attempted robbery

CADET SUTTON WON'T TELL

Hazing of Oregonian at West Point Remains Mystery.

NEW YORK, July 24.-After examin ing more than 100 West Point cadets under oath, the Board of Army Officers appointed recently to investigate haz-ing conditions at the United States Military Academy, submitted its report to Colonel Hugh Scott, superintendent,

The report was not made public, but in deals largely with the case of Cadet Sutton, of Oregon, brother of the young officer in the United States Marine Corps whose tragic death is now being report declares that hazing is still practiced at West Point, despite full of remarkable adventure and rich drastic action for its eradication. in historic lore, Native of Messina, par-Young Sitton was scriously injured by being roughly handled, but during the endire investigation he would not re-veal the names of those who stracked ington, July 24. Up to the closing hour this afternoon the War Department had not received the report of the recent in-quiry into the hazing of Cadet Sutton at West Point Military Academy.

Belleves Sutton's Bones Broken.

ST. LOUIS. July 21.—Minor Meriwether, Jr., of Shrevsport, La., roommate, class-pasts and friend of James N. Sutton, Suntan-marine officer whose death is being instigated at Annapolis, is in St. Louis, He will not be surprised if another autop-may on the body of Sulton reveals that hones were broken in the fight which terminated in his death. Meriwether said that in Naval Academy fights a man never gives up until be is unconscious, no matter how many bones are broken.

Run Trains on Right-Hand Track

CHICAGO, July 34-"Left-handed" trains will be given up by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southers Railway in a few days. The switches and signals are being rebuilt, and all trains will be run on the right hand track, as they are & Northwestern. The transfer from the left-hand to the right-hand track will be next Sunday or that following.

Gomez Denies Disruption.

NEW YORK, July 24 -General Carlos Carrie Veles, Cuban Minister to the United States, this afternoon received a cablegram from President Gomes of Cuba notifying him that there was no truth in the rumors of a disruption of the Cuban Cabinet and that he and his brother, Justo Cabinet and that he and his brother, Justo Cabinet and that he and his brother, Justo

SNAPSHOTS OF PROMINENT FIGURES IN SUTTON HEARING

LT. ADAMS IN CENTRE, ATTY, A.A. BERNEY FOR DEFENCE ON RIGHT.

ON TOP- ATTY H.W. VAN DYKE, MRS. SUTTON MRS. PARKER AND ATTY DAVIS BELOW-

Native of Messina Ends Long Life of Adventure, Battle and Privation at Peaceful Home in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 14 .- (Spe cial.)-The death today of Raphael Manco at the age of 74, ended a career ticipant as a mere boy in several battles of the Crimean War, where he witnessed the charge of the Light Brigade, and was at the siege of Sebastapol, confidential secretary and interpreter to "Chinese" General Gordon, and finally OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 24.—Up to the closing hour this afternoon the War Department had not received the report of the recent insulity into the hazing of Cadet Sutton at West Point Military Academy.

Deliver Sutton's Bones Broken.

a Soldier in the American Civil war and nine months a prisoner at Ander-and nine months a prisoner at Ander-and nine months a prisoner at Ander-haps no other man ever survived.

When he was serving Gorden in 1854-1855, that officer was in command of the British Royal Engineers quartered in a part of the great Scutari Hospital, where Florence Nightingale had charge a soldier in the American Civil and ministered personally to many suf-

> Manco took passage for America in 1558, stopping to see his parents, but who both had died and he was long stranded, penniless and starving, at Malta, where his pitiful story so impressed a sea captain that he gave him a free berth. When the Civil War came, he enlisted in the First Con-necticut Volunteer Infantry. He had lived in Los Angeles a quarter of a century and leaves a widow and four grown children.

SEEKS TO ENJOIN STRIKES

Public Defense Association Wants Double-Edged Injunction.

PITTSBURG, July 24.—An attorney for the Public Defense Association has pre-pared a new application for an injunc-tion against the Pressed Steer Car Com-pany and its striking employes. It asks that the workmen be enjoined from in-terfering with the company in the hiring of men to take the place of the strikers and from committing acts of violence. It also seeks to enjoin the company from interfering with the strikers. the Public Defense Association has pre-was teaching a Sunday school class in Paterson, N. J., she had already served a three-year sentence on a conviction of forgery. Mr. Hill testified that from the time he was married until he left his bride he had been worried by someone who had forged his name to many checks. Employing detectives, Mr. Hill said the result was that his wife signed an admission that she was the author of those checks. In the same statement, which was submitted to court, and which was backed by the records of the Bedford Reformatory of this state, it was shown that Mrs. Hill had been married in 1901 to Simeon Harold Baker, and while his wife had been convicted of forgery and sent to prison.

CREATFIGHTERDEAD

On being released, and after Baker had obtained a divorce, she went to live with

MAN HIGHER UP INDICTED

Police Inspector McCann Arrested and Suspended for Grafting.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Police Inspector Edward C. McCann was indicted today charged with malfeasance in office in the legal establishments of the West Side tenderloin." McCann's predicament was foreshadowed yesterday, when an indictment was returned against Detective Sergeant Jero-miah Griffin, alleged to have been the collection agent working out of McGann's Inspector McCann was arrested after the grand jury's action and soon aft gave bonds for $20,000 and was release He went at once to the office of Acti Chief of Police Schuettler and banded his star. Later Schuettler obtained his formal suspension, saying that no police-man under indictment could work on the force until the charges were dismissed.

MONUMENTS ARE UNVEILED Western Federation Has Memorials to Pettibone and Murphy.

DENVER. July 24.—With simple ceremony, the convention of the Western Federation of Miners this afternoon unveiled the memorials erected to George A. Pettibone and J. P. Murphy at Fairmont cemetery. The convention adjourned at noon until Monday. Addresses were delivered by P. H. Hawley, secretary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, and J. M. O'Neill, editor of the Miners' Magazine.

Magazine. The executive session this morning considered the strikes and lockouts within the jurisdiction of the Federation affecting about 3000 men. It was decided to order a strike assessment if later this was deemed necessary.

MOORE REACHES AGE LIMIT Promotions to Follow Retirement of

LIGHTNING BOLTS CANNONADE HOUSE

Four Strike Dwelling in Utah, Killing Woman, Knocking Down Four Others.

HOUSE SHEETED IN FLAME

Bolts in Succession Prostrate One After Another as They Come to Rescue of First-Child Is First Struck Down.

AMERICAN FORKS, Utah, July 24 .our bolts of lightning atruck the residence of John H. Singleton last night, killing his wife, rendering himself and 4-year-old son unconscious and knocking down his brother and a neighbor who came to their assistance.

While Singleton and J. E. Farrell, his neighbor, are still unconscious, their re-Singleton's son was sitting on the front singleton's son was sitting on the trost porch when the first holf struck the house. Singleton rushed out, finding him lying on the porch unconscious. He carried the boy into the house and placed him in a tub of water to resucitate him. House Enveloped in Flame.

While he was bathing the boy, the sec-ond bolt struck the house and Singleton was hurled across the room. The boy received a second shock and was again

When the second bolt struck, the house was enveloped in flame. Mrs. Singleton rushed into the kitchen, where she found her husband lying unconscious, on the floor and her son in the tub. She rushed to the front door to call for help, but when she reached the door, the third bolt struck her, killing her instantly.

Fourth Bolt Hurls Men Flat.

Singleton recovered sufficiently stagger into the front room. He saw his wife lying on the floor and ran out onto the street to call for help. He met his brother, Dell, and Farrell at the front gate. Everything was in darkness and Dell Singleton carried a lantern. Before they reached the front porch, the fourth bolt struck the house. Dell Singleton was ahead and he was hurled several feet. Farrell, who was close behind him, was knocked unconscious to the sidewalk. stagger into the front room. He saw his

DEATHS NOW TOTAL

ISOLATED DISTRICTS SWELL FA-TALITIES ON GULF.

Whole Family Swept Away by Tidal Wave-Man Escapes by Climbing Tree.

NEW ORLEANS, July 24.—With def-inite reports today of 13 deaths not heretofore recorded in the burricane which swept portions of Texas and Louisiana last Wednesday, the death list tonight totals 41, with six persons previously reported missing still unacpreviously reported missing still unac-counted for.

Angleton, Tex., this afternoon reports il dead instead of one, bringing the total death list of the West Indian hurricane up to 38. Many are still missing.

The report of the drowning at their home on Christmas Bay, 15 miles from Angelton, of Maurice P. Woulfe, his wife and six children, together with a negre servant, was confirmed this af-

On being released, and after Baker had obtained a divorce, she went to live with her sister in Paterson, assuming her maiden name, and in the Sunday school there she met Mr. Hill. Hill testined that he had believed she was single and knew nothing of her former trouble.

wife and six children, together with a negre servant, was confirmed this afternoon by H. B. Roberts, a farmer.

The six Woulfe children ranged in age from 6 months to 10 years. Roberts was at Woulfe's home when the hurricane struck them. Woulfe assembled his family in the yard, away erts was at Woulfe's home when the hurricane struck them. Woulfe assembled his family in the yard, away from all buildings, and the two men held a large quilt over them to protect them from the rain. What appeared to be a tidal wave then swept inland, drowning all except Roberts.

Roberts said he was washed against tree and lodged there until the wat-Roberts also reports that Columbus

Maddox, son of a prominent planter, has been missing since the hurricane. Captain J. W. Glasscock čied at An-gelton as a result of shock and ex-

LIFE SAVED BY CORK LEGS

Legless Man Loses and Recovers Them and They Float Him.

GALVESTON, Tex., July 24.—William Davies, of Groverton, Tex., a legless man, 29 years of age, had the most thrilling experience of the storm victims so far recorded. He was a guest at Tarpon fishing pier, located on the north jetty, six miles from Galveston, in the Guif and with others was thrown into the sea when the big building was demolished by the hurricane. Before the building collapsed, Davies had discarded his two cork less. Catching some of the debris, he legs. Catching some of the debris, he was carried about 15 miles seaward on the storm-tide. Washed time and again from the raft, when it finally broke up, he was set adrift in the Gulf. Searching about for debris to cling to, he saw his cork legs floating with the current, and, seized them. With these as supports un-der his arms, he swam back into the bay and was carried by the tides into Galveston upper bay, 30 miles from where the pier collapsed. Later he was picked up by a boat. He was in the water 30 hours, 12 of which he was battling with the storm waves.

CATS FOR CONGRESSMEN

Anonymous Gifts for Members Who Propose Buying Them.

WASHINGTON, July 24.-A long and plaintive cry, like that of a cat in dis-tress, came from somewhere in the vicin-ity of the desk of Reprosentative Tow-ney, chairman of the House committee on appropriations. "Meow!"

United States, this afternoon received a cablegram from President Gomes of Cuba notifying him that there was no fruth in the rumors of a disruption of the Cuban Carlos Velez, who is Cuban Secretary of State, would be retained at their present their prese

During the alteration of our store we will continue to sell fine hand-tailored clothes at 1/3 to 1/2 off the regular price

SEE OUR REGULAR $20 VALUES NOW ON SALE AT

BROKEN LINES OF UNDERWEAR, FURNISHING GOODS AND HATS ONE-HALF PRICE

Salem Woolen Mills Clothing Co.

Grant Phegley, Manager

Seventh and Stark Streets

ney was stroking the kitten in walked Representative Mann of Illinois and a Representative from Michigan. "What's that—a kitten?" they asked in

"Why, someone sent me one too," said

Willy, someone sent me one too, and Mr. Mann.

"And me, too," added Mr. Smith.

The kittens had been sent anonymously and had been left with the messengers at the offices of the Congressmen, who were at a loss to understand why they had been remembered in that fashion. had been remembered in that fashio until Mr. Mann recalled that they had engaged in a debate in the House a few days ago concerning the use of cats in keeping rats out of the Treasury build-ing. The three members named praised the good old-fashioned Maltese mousers, and said they ought to be kept in the

SEEKING STOLEN JEWELS

London Police Believe Frenchman's $500,000 in New York.

NEW YORK, July 24 .- A belief that the $500,000 worth of diamonds, pearls and other precious stones recently stolen from a Frenchman in London have been shipped to this country, is causing the police of the larger cities a good deal of trouble, according to the New York police. A description of the stolen jewels has been received from Scotland Yards, with a request that a thorough search be made for them. Since the theft, detectives have been watching the pawnshops, but no gems answering the description have been

A Parisian doctor entered a cafe the jewels in a small sutchel. They harbor police, on comprised 1529 pearls of various shapes, American woman pa colors and weights; three large dia-monds, 22 sapphires, seven large star-shaped rubics, and 16 rare cats-eyes. The valles also contained $400 in French and $200 in English money. While he was in the cafe someone stole the valles. the valise.

MORE NOTARIES NAMED

Provision Made for Taking Care of Land Rush at Spokane.

SPOKANE, July 24.-Eight additional notaries were appointed in Spokane today to take applications for land registra-tion. Four notaries, authorized by Superintendent Witten to administer eaths to homeseckers in the Spokane County Indan Reservation, who have conducted their business in Spokane saloons, were requested to seek other quarters this morning by Special Agent Elston.

Several runners who escaped the spe-cial agent yesterday were warned this morning not to solicit business on the public highways and to discontinue the ractice of distributing advertising cards, The estimated number of registrations at Spokane today are 4000; at Coeur d'Alene, 5000; at Missoula, 2500; at Kal-

Empress Sails From Hongkong.

New Resident-General Outlines Vigorous Policy.

YANGTSE VALLEY FLOODED

Steamer Empress of China Brings News of Disastrous High Water. Japan Incensed at Freedom of . Rich From Military Service.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 24-The Empress of China today brought the following mail news from the Orient.

Viscount Sone, the new Rsident-General in Corea, is adopting a vigorous policy. He has put forward a Corean railroad project involving an expendirailroad project involving an expendi-ture of $25,690,000. He is having 20 shal-low-draught gunbeats built for the pur-pose of forcing the fighting against the Corean insurgents, and states when the rebels are suppressed these vessels will be used as tenders to Japanese fishing vessels in Corean waters. Search was made on the steamer China,

American woman passenger, whose name is not given in the Japanese newspapers, had taken a necklace ordered from England for the Queen of Siam at a cost of $20,00, which had disappeared while en route to the Siamese court. A strict search on board the liner was without result.

Arrivals by the Empress from Shanghal report serious floods occasioned great less in the Yangtse Valley just before they sailed. Many villages were washed away and many lives lost. People were taking refuge on higher levels and famine was expected to follow the floods.

An agitation is in progress in Japan in consequence of the alleged favoritism shown the rich in giving relief from military service. The conscription service in Japan recently is said to have been seriously affected by the number relieved from service.

Particulars regarding the present Japanese army, published by the Hochi Shimbun, show its strength on a war footing as 1,214,000, exclusive of a force of Arrivals by the Empress from Shanghal ing as 1,214,000, exclusive of a force of 10,000 serving in Formosa. Yearly 655,000 men are available for conscription, of whom about 40 per cent are taken.

ALL LEGS ARE ARTIFICIAL

So Judge Sends Case for Trial by Wooden-Legged Judge.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—When the suit of Mrs. Bessie Camp against Dixon & Bull for the return of $100 HONGKONG, July 24.—Sailed: Empaid for an artificial limb was called press of India, for Vancouver. paid for an artificial limb was called yesterday in the court of Justice of

WELCOME TO VISITORS

A cordial invitation is extended to the thousands of visitors within our midst to witness the beauty and refinement of our stock. It stands without a peer anywhere within the United States and testifies to the highest merits of workmanship of the gold and silversmith. Prices reasonable, quality considered.

283-285 Washington St., Bet. 4th and 5th

Manufacturing Jewelers - Opticians - Diamond Importers

Peace J. G. Quinn, his honor gasped for breath on learning that the plaintiff, defendant and both of their attorneys were wearing wooden legs. Judge Quinn was about to decide the case in favor of the plaintiff on the showing of Attorney Lester Perry, who placed his own artificial extremity in evidence when Judge Gibson, representing the defondants, arose and placed his cork leg in rebuttal. The judge was beginning to show signs of cellapse, and when Buil exhibited his wooden leg to show that the artificial limbs made by his firm were sound, Quinn threw up his hands and declared the case postponed until he could transfer it to his colleague, Justice R. B. Tapp, who has an artificial limb. Peace J. G. Quinn, his honor gasped

Chicago Girls on Walking Tour.

HODGENSVILLE, Ky., July 24 .- Five HODGENSVILLE, Ry, July 24.—Five girls arrived here yesterday after a five-weeks journey on foot from Chicago. These girls were tanned and travel-stained. They said they were on their usual Summer Jaunt, and their objective points were Lincoln's birthplace and Mammoth Cave. With the exception of a few instances when they considered it a novelty to take a lift from a farmer on the highroad and be ferrled across streams, they had made the trip on foot.

Will Use the Weber THE PIANO OF THE OPERA

Miss Case, to appear in concert at the Bungalow Monday, July 28, like Ger-aldine Farrar, Gadski, Calve, Caruso, the DeReszkes and other sovereigns of the vocal world, insists upon the Weber (Sold only by Ellers Piano House.)

OREGON CITY, Or., July 17th, 1909.

Mrs. Edna B. Jones, Fortland, Or.

Dear Mrs. Jones — Worlt you please arrange for a Weber Grand Plano for my concert Monday night, July 28th? I have become so attached to this splendid make of plano that I would not care to have a substitute.

There, is a tone quality, a purity, power and sweetness in the Weber that is not found in any other make and it is, after all, the only plano adapted for accompanying the voice.

Trusting that you may not fall in this important matter, I beg to remain

Devotedly yours.

Devotedly yours, (Signed) MARY ADELE CASE.

384 Yambill St., 185 West Park, Phones-Main 5174, A 3544.