

being located at the Washington State University, University of California and Stanford University.

The University of Oregon chapter has a charter membership of 23, but the young women members are not at all superstitious and purpose making their chapter a decided credit to the organization of which it forms a part.

A list of the charter members follows: Misses Lela Doddard, Winifred Hadley, Jessal Chase, Alene Robinson, Kate Fullerton, Susan Hastings, Mrs. MacKenzie, Winifred Cokerline, Laura Adele Goff, Hazel McNair, Hazel Brown, Frances Nelson, Cecile Wilcox, Mary DeBar, Eva Allen, Lucia Campbell, Cecile Elber, Merle McKelvy, Jane Knox, Fielda McClaine, Alene Thompson, Mildred Bagley and Ione Lambert.

The installation Miss Macfarland was assisted by the following prominent college women: Mrs. Anna Steele, of Washington University; Mrs. E. M. Crooks, of Worcester University; Mrs. Anna Cross and Miss Cross, of Kansas State University, and Miss Marjorie Holcomb, of Stanford University. Other prominent members of the fraternity from out of the city were: Misses Helen Higbee, Dorothy Dean, Claire Dean, Roy Luce, Vera Jones and Robin McKinley, representing the University of Washington; Misses Dorothy Moore, Frances Gill, Bernice Bronson and Maude Cleveland, of the University of California.

The banquet, which followed the installation ceremonies, in the grillroom was an enjoyable affair. Miss Macfarland presided as toastmaster and responses were made by the following: Misses Frances Gill, Frances Oberbauer, Lela Goddard, Frances Nelson, Mary DeBar, Anna Cross, Marjorie Holcomb and Mrs. H. M. Crooks.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Wise have returned from their wedding trip to Banff Springs.

Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., entertained informally Tuesday afternoon for Miss Sophie Casey, of Washington, D. C., the daughter of Admiral Casey, who is visiting her cousin, Mrs. L. H. Tarpley.

Miss Florence Kohn and Miss Florence Wolfe are the guests of Miss Miriam Jacobs at Seaside.

Among the physicians and their wives going over to Seattle for the fair and the Oregon, Washington and Idaho Medical Conference were Dr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Mackey, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Pierce and Dr. and Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie.

At the Golf Club Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maclean entertained Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. David Loring, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Parker and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Daly (Miss Margaret Wilby) have returned from a seven weeks' wedding trip, during which time they visited in Honolulu. They are now domiciled at Alameda Court.

The appearance of Mary Adele Case in a recital tomorrow evening at the Bungalow is attracting much attention. The former Portland and Oregon City girl was flatteringly received at her recent recital in Paris, and is to leave this Fall to tour with the famous violinist, Knudsen.

Major Charles O. Oregon City, has taken a box, as have Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lang. Among those who will occupy boxes are Mrs. Preston Smith, Mr. C. D. Walter, J. Smith, Judge Sweeney and Mrs. D. P. Thompson.

Ross Dahl Miller, Harold Milligan and Ross Parge, Portland musicians who have been studying in New York, returned last week to spend the Summer.

Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, daughter of Senator and Mrs. George Chamberlain, returned last week from college at Roanoke, Va. Prior to coming West she visited with her sister, Mrs. Rowan Galther, at Natchez, Miss., and with her father, Senator Chamberlain, in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Los Angeles, arrived on Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brian.

Alfred Hoyt, of New York, a young brother of Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, arrived last week from the East, bringing with him Mr. Samuel Kunhart, of New York. Mr. Hoyt and Mr. Kunhart have left for a visit at Mr. Harry Corbett's ranch in Eastern Oregon.

Miss Delta Watson, with some New York friends, is on a camping trip in the Sierra Mountains.

At the residence of Mrs. Preston Smith, Eleventh and Market streets, on Sunday afternoon the local daughters of the Confederacy will hold memorial services for the late Mrs. Margaret M. Peterson (Davis Hayes, Rev. Father Birch, chaplain of the order, presiding. A special programme will also be given.

The publicity committee of the Woman's Club gave a luncheon at the Portland Hotel in compliment to Mrs. Shiek, of Wyoming, the corresponding secretary of the general Federation of Women's Clubs. Among those present were the president, Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. E. M. Blumauer, Mrs. Julia Marquam, Mrs. A. King Wilson, Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell, Mrs. George Pettinger, Dr. E. R. Ruyon, Mrs. L. R. Scott, Mrs. W. H. Fear, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. H. A. Moore and Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ker are receiving congratulations galore over the birth of a daughter, who has been called Laura Dunne Ker. Mrs. Ker was the popular Miss Laura Dunne, a daughter of Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne.

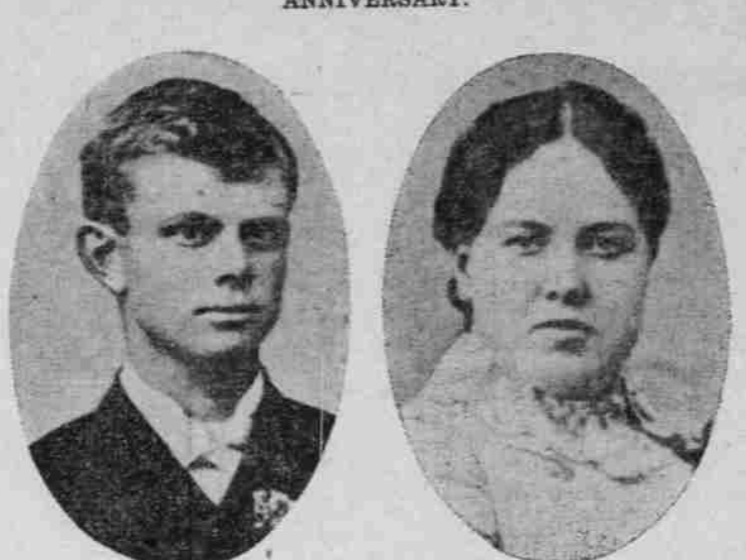

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Bleg, of Carson Heights, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 18. A family dinner, at which 26 members of the family were present, was served under a large awning on the lawn. Those present were: Mrs. A. Lamer, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Bleg, Mr. and Mrs. George Urban, Mr. and Mrs. George Lamer, Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Ufer, Mrs. Bert Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ellwell, Misses Ewing and G. Ewing, Hedwig Bleg, Bernice Urban, Mable and Ruth Lamer, Gertrude Ellwell, Agnes Phillips and Messrs. Fred and Charles Urban. Louis Urban, Clarence Smith, Melvin and Kenneth Ufer. Many handsome pieces of silver were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bleg.

On Tuesday evening, July 20, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Bleg were most agreeably surprised by a number of their friends from Alto Park. Cards and refreshments made the evening enjoyable. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Bleg and family, there were present: Mrs. H. J. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stone and family, Mrs. M. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ewing and Mrs. F. M. McCreesh, Misses Ewing, Georgia Ewing, and Louise Sims, Messrs. Henry Stephenson, Fred Ewing, J. Letz, Paul Walter and Albin Dickinson and Arthur Sims.

Mrs. Alex Donaldson entertained last Thursday afternoon at her home, 304 Dekum avenue, in honor of Miss Nellie Conner, of Oakland, Cal. The rooms were very prettily decorated with flowers and music was rendered by Mrs. Claire Dougherty and Miss Winifred Henderson, and there were

SON AND DAUGHTER OF OREGON PIONEERS WHO HAVE JUST CELEBRATED THEIR SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

MR. AND MRS. F. A. YOUNG, FROM PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN AT TIME OF THEIR WEDDING.

MR. AND MRS. F. A. YOUNG, FROM RECENT PHOTOGRAPH.

The silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Young was celebrated recently. Mr. Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Young, Oregon pioneers, who celebrated their golden wedding on June 12, an account of which appeared in The Oregonian of July 4.

Mr. Young, who was born in Salem, Or., has been engaged for a number of years in sheep farming at Burnt Ranch, Wheeler County, Eastern Oregon. He also holds valuable property interests in this city. Mrs. Young, a native daughter of Portland, whose maiden name was Eliza Bills, is the youngest daughter of the late Cincinnati Bills and his wife, Mrs. Ann Bills, both well-known pioneers of this state. The couple were married in this city at the home of the bride's mother, 101 Fifteenth street, North, on June 24, 1884, just 25 years and 12 days after the marriage of the bridegroom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Young have four children—three sons, Maynard, Byron and George, and one daughter, Miss Edna. The two oldest boys have been attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis.

readings by little Miss Jeanie Pinley. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. Bradshaw, Mrs. S. Scott, Mrs. Joseph Kelley and Mrs. Cornwell. Those present were: Miss Nellie V. Conner, Miss C. Bugavik, Miss W. Henderson, Mrs. Mabel Jones, Mrs. George Gamble, Mrs. A. Bradshaw, Mrs. David Henderson, Mrs. George Cornwell, Mrs. Jack, Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mrs. Joseph Kelley, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. V. Finch, Mrs. Frank Plympton, Mrs. Vernard, Mrs. E. Connell, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Caulfield, Mrs. S. F. Scott, Mrs. Epety, Mrs. Claire Dougherty, Mrs. J. Dougherty, Mrs. Charles Mack, Mrs. A. M. Spurrler, Mrs. H. Auld, Mrs. Guy Phillips, Mrs. N. Reed, Mrs. C. Sunderland, Mrs. Bunsen, Mrs. Shoalwater, Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. McGinnis.

The spacious shaded lawn surrounding the Oregon state building on the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition

PORTLAND GIRL TO STUDY VIOLIN IN GERMANY.

Miss Lenore Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Gregory, left on Thursday for Germany, where she will continue her musical studies under the instruction of the Royal High School at Berlin. Miss Gregory, who is a talented violinist, appeared last June in a recital at the Hallie. She expects to be in Germany for two or three years with her mother and her sister, Miss Edith.

is in much demand amongst the official family of the directorate, as well as parties of Oregonians, who have receptions and fetes two or three times every week. In connection with Salem day exercises and the old-fashioned reunion which followed the gathering of Capital City people, under a gaily striped awning, in an appropriate setting of Oregon, Mrs. M. Alce Wehrung, Mrs. M. G. Gatch, Miss Margaret Gray and Miss Janet Gray served the famous Lam-bert cherries, tastily arranged in paper napkin baskets. Loganberry punch and fancy biscuits also were served by the Salem hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert assisted in the general arrangements. President Wehrung introduced President Chiberg of the Exposition. The Salem Women's Club members acted as hostesses for the occasion.

Mrs. Perry G. Baker, a pioneer mother of 184, and the first bride of Multnomah County, celebrated her 74th birthday on Saturday, July 17. Those assisting were Mrs. Baker's granddaughters, Mrs. E. M. Cousin, Mrs. Kitty Barry Fisher and her great-granddaughter, Miss Harriet Cousin. An elaborate dinner was served to the following guests, among whom were friends of 50 years ago: Dr. C. E. Cline, Mrs. C. E. Cline, Mrs. Davidson,

AN APOLOGY We wish to apologize for the unattractive appearance of our windows during this sale, which are nevertheless brilliant with unusual bargains. Our establishment has always had the name for presenting the most artistic window displays in Portland. After the alterations of our front, which will be completed about August 15, we promise the usual artistic displays.

Don't forget the Silverfield furs during this sale. We are making an unusual price reduction on our high-grade furs. All furs purchased during the sale will be stored free of charge until wanted. Don't forget to store your furs with us over the Summer months. DO IT NOW

Our Great Alteration Sale Now at Its Height

Contractors are working, busily engaged tearing down old fixtures, changing the departments from one floor to another, and we must hurry the remaining merchandise out of the house in order to make further room. Prices cut in every department, regardless of cost. Our display windows are being torn up, consequently we are unable to display the many specials advantageously, so we ask your personal inspection of bargains.

Stirring Offers in Women's Gowns for Week Commencing Monday

Great Sale of Tailored Suits $9.85 Values to $75.00 Ladies' Tailored Suits left from our past season's selling, comprising all styles and materials, such as Broadcloth, Serges, Mannish Mixtures and Velvets, actual values $45, and a few $50 and up to $75, all at the ridiculously low price of $9.85

Closing Out of Summer Waists at Very Low Prices Don't forget to share in these waist bargains: Closing out Ladies' Shirt-waists, values to $10, at $2.19 Closing out Ladies' Shirt-waists, values to $3.50, at $1.39 Closing out Ladies' Shirt-waists, values to $2.50 at 69c Closing out Ladies' Shirt-waists, values to $1.75, at 49c

Closing Out All Summer Parasols At Less Than Cost Purchase a Parasol at this great sale. Look at the savings in our large assortment of handsome parasols in pongee, silk, linen and fancy borders, in all colors for ladies and children at these great reductions: Parasols, regular $5 values, for $2.98 Parasols, regular $3 values, for $1.59 Parasols, regular $1.75 values, for 63c

Great specials on our main floor too numerous to mention here. Call and judge for yourself

SILVERFIELD'S SCIENTIFIC STORAGE FOR FURS

We have the best storage plant for the storage of fine furs in the West. Before going away for the Summer, store your furs with us. Don't forget to have your furs remodeled into the latest styles for the coming season. All furs repaired and remodeled now stored free of charge until wanted. DO IT NOW.

and Eddie Kettleberg was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Luther will be at home to their friends July 28, at Springfield, Or.

Blanchard-Street.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated Saturday evening, July 23, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nina Street was united in marriage to Lowell E. Blanchard, of Oregon City. Rev. Nelson Allen officiating. The bride was daintily attired in a white princess gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and Bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Alia Best Street, who was gowned in blue French voile. Eldon Blanchard, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The parlor was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, marguerites and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard will make their home in Oregon City.

Thompson-Faulkner.

A quiet wedding took place Sunday, July 18, at 2 P. M., when Andrew W. Thompson and Eunice I. Faulkner were united in marriage. The ceremony occurred at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. E. M. Patterson, of the Kern Park Christian Church, who performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson expect to make their home in Portland.

McCorkie-Stockton.

The wedding of Miss Maud Stockton and Dr. M. G. McCorkie, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stockton Wednesday evening, was conducted by the immediate relatives. The bride was handsomely gowned in ivory tulle, with trimmings of duchess lace and wore orange blossoms in her hair.

Ingram-Law.

Charles Ingram, of Oswego, and Miss Jean Stratton Law, of Portland, were married Wednesday evening, July 21, in the reception-room of the White Temple by Rev. F. E. Dark.

Hansen-Lowry.

Fred Hansen and Mrs. Hilda Lowry, both of Portland, were married Tuesday afternoon, July 20, in the reception-room of the White Temple, by Rev. F. E. Dark.

Hilop-Ward.

John T. Hilop and Miss Ida E. Ward, were married July 17 at the home of the bride's parents at 515 Clay street. Rev. Dr. C. E. Cline officiating.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Nathan M. Simon is spending his vacation in Seattle. Mrs. Byron E. Miller, is visiting in Seattle for a couple of weeks. Miss Selma Meyer is visiting Miss Flora Rosenblatt at Gearhart Park. Mrs. H. Pontretract Hodges and chiltheir house guest is Miss Berdie St. Martin.

Mr. Nathan Simon is spending his vacation in Seattle and British Columbia.

Mrs. M. A. Hurley went to Seattle Monday and is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Prosch.

Mrs. Charlotte M. Cartwright is spending the Summer at her cottage at Gearhart.

Miss Vida Reed and her brother, Gerald Reed, were visitors to the Seattle Fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Mackenzie are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son.

The family of T. A. Lincoln have opened the Dalgligh cottage at Seaside for the season.

Mrs. C. Fredsen, together with the two youngest children, who have been visiting in California and Southern Oregon

(Continued on Page 2.)

FLOWERS

AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS 287 Morrison St.

R. F. PRESCOTT & CO. ENGRAVING.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS, CALLING CARDS, ETC. 271 1-2 Morrison Street Portland Oregon

WEDDING AND CALLING CARDS RUSHTON'S Buchanan Bldg., Wash. St., Bet. 4th & 5th

Leesdale Co. 504, 505, 506, 507 Marquam Bldg.

If Seeking the Newest You'll Find it At the Style Store.

SWEETEST GRAPES HANG HIGHEST

The most expensive garments cost the lowest. The truth of this axiom is always proven at the STYLE STORE, where quality reigns, where the best and costliest merchandise is shown, and its patrons enjoy the greatest DRESS ECONOMY, plus the satisfaction of always being dressed neatly, correctly and attractively. The advance Fall creations are arriving daily and invite your inspection. It is worth your while to see what we offer in Summer Wearing Requisites.

High-Grade Suits Reduced

One and Two-Piece Suits made of imported serges in white and light stripes; plain tailored and novelty effects; coats with jet and metallic buttons; trimmed skirts of new cut; regularly sold at from $25 to $52; now go at from $15 to $38.

Khaki Suits $3.75

Norfolk or close-fitting jacket, with or without pockets; skirts full-gored, buttoned in front or fastened on sides; all sizes; specially priced $3.75. See Window 12.

One-Piece Wash Dresses made of motor cloth; yoke of alternate rows of Irish lace; entire dress finished in couplings of same tone; in white, blue, tan, green and lavender; appealing values, $5.50.

Pattern Hats

Exceptional values at the special price of only $4.75. See Window 5.

New Fall Suits

In the famous MOYEN AGE type; ranging in prices from $70 down to $25. Extra large and odd sizes for large women our specialty.

Boys' Tub Suits

Our entire line of Boys' Wash Suits; ages from 2 1/2 to 9 years; divided into three lots and marked down from $4.50, $2.50 and $1.50, to $1.95, $1.35 and 65c.

CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED If you prefer, you can arrange to pay in weekly or monthly payments

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.

WASHINGTON AT TENTH STREET. "THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD."

The A. W. Schmale Co. 229-231 First Street