Miss DOROTHY DANFORTH MCCOY, OF CHICAGO, WHO HAS BEEN A POPULAR VISITOR

OUT-OF-TOWN guests continue to usurp attention on their way to and from the Seattle exposition. The annual tennis tournament at Breakers, Wash., is the next interesting event on the tapis. It will be held from August 16 to 24, inclusive. On Monday evening, August 23, an informal reception will be given at the Breakers; Tuesday, a fancy dress ball; Wednesday, amateur theatricals are scheduled; Thursday, an oyster bake; Friday, the tennis ball, and terminating Saturday evening with a banquet.

Major and Mrs. Cabell and their son, Henry Cabell, arrived on Thursday night from St. Paul, and are temporarily domiciled at the Fifth-street residence of the Misses Henrietta and May Failing during their absence abroad. Major and Mrs. Cabell (the latter Miss Millie Failing) have spent much of their time in Portland and at Vancouver Barracks, where Major Cabell was stationed until two years ago. In the interim he has been chief of staff of the Department of the Dakotas, and has lately been assigned to duty as chief of staff of the Department of the Columbia, with headquarters at Vancouver, the transfer to go into effect August 1. The Misses Failing are now motoring through Norway and Sweden.

On Thursday in London was celebrated the wedding of Madams Lillian Nordica and George W. Young, the New York banker. The wedding gown of the famous diva was said to be of exceptional beauty, being made entirely of duchesse lace, and though she is the possessor of remarkable cabochon emeralds and diamonds, her only ornament was a string of pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Young left for Southampton to embark on Mr. Young's yacht for a month's cruise. Upon their return they will reside at the cantatrice's former home, Ardley, on the Hudson, which is in the smart district owned by the Ardley Golf Club. Miss Wynne Coman, Mrs. Edward Cookingham and Miss Lois Steers have visited at Madame Nordica's residence, which is now undergoing improvements that will shortly convert it into a most palatial estate.

Gordon W. Edwards, formerly of Portland, but now of San Francisco, has spent the past month at the Portland Hotel, and also in Seattle, returning home on Thursday. He has recently been selected among the 110 San Francisco bachelors who have been chosen as dragons to escort Miss Virginia Bogus, the Queen of the Portola Festival, which will be one of the most brilliant pageants ever given in San Francisco. The entrance is to be made through the Golden Gate, the queen being attended by a score of prominent girls. The requirement which enables participation as a member of the Dragon escort is that they must be five feet ten inches in height, of the guardsman type. They will be mounted on black horses elaborately caparisoned. Included in the escort will be representatives of the American Navy and Army, as well as the attachments from foreign naval crews that will be in the harbor at the time.

Miss Bertha Stuart, of New York, has arrived to visit her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth. Miss Stewart while in New York has done some capable work in de-book covers and making book plates. Pretty examples of her work were evidenced in her designing of the "Year Book" and "Christ's Legends."

Mrs. E. H. Brooke, formerly of Portland, but lately of Washington, D. C., arrived last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Hunt Lewis. Mrs. Brooke, who is accompanied by her two daughters, Miss Margaretta and Genevieve, will divide the time here and at the beach, for which they left yesterday to stay during August. Coming West, Mrs. Brooke's sister, Mrs. M. T. Barlow, and Mr. Barlow joined them at Omaha and together with Miss Dorothy Jocelyn, daughter of General Jocelyn, they visited Yellowstone Park. Miss Genevieve, the younger daughter, has spent the last two years at school in Washington, while Miss Margaretta graduated in June from Miss Spencer's school in New York, where Miss Louise Burns and Miss Claire Wilcox will probably enter this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Latta have returned from a five months' visit in Europe. Most of their time was spent at the home of Mr. Latta's parents in Scotland, though they made short trips on the Continent and also toured Southern England.

General H. B. Anderson and his two daughters, Miss Meta and Miss Ruth, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauld at their summer home on the Columbia River. The general was stationed in Portland 30 years ago, on General Canby's staff, and was with General Canby when he was killed in the Modoc War. General Anderson is traveling through the West and expresses himself as greatly interested in Portland's growth and building activities.

Jacobs Bond, of New York, a son of Carrie Jacobs Bond, the composer, spent several days of last week at the Portland on his way to San Francisco. Carrie Jacobs Bond, who is the author of "Just a Wearyin' for You," "I Love You Truly" and other appealing ballads, is to appear here in February in a recital of her own compositions.

Sigfried Unander left last week for a brief visit in Seattle, leaving in Fred Greenwood's yacht. Mr. Greenwood left yesterday for Seattle, where some of his San Francisco friends will join him on a cruise to Alaska, which will be made in his yacht.

An impromptu launching party was planned on Wednesday evening by Kurt Koehler and Chester G. Murphy, who took the guests to the Rock Island

Coman, with Miss Martha Coman, of New York, returned last week from Washington, where they have been rusticated for some weeks at a famous ranch near Spokane. Miss Martha Coman is well-known in journalistic fields, being on the staff of the New York Herald.

A recent house party at Tokeland, Wash., given by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Holbrook, included Miss Lise Koehler, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Maida Hart, Miss Beaky Biddle, Miss Milla Wessinger, Miss Leslie Weidner, Philip Hart, Henry Wessinger, Harold Bates, Maxwell Snow and Hamilton Corbett.

Miss Louise Messick is visiting in Port Stevens, the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. E. E. Farnsworth.

Mrs. C. H. Prescott, Mrs. E. C. Mears, Antoinette and Georgiana Mears leave today to spend the month of August at Shasta Springs, Cal.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot entertained informally on Saturday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. W. M. Wallace, who returned to her home in Monmouth, Ill., on Sunday, after a year or more in Portland. Those asked were: Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. King, of Toledo, O.; Mrs. William Dunkley, Mrs. Ois Wight, Mrs. Edmund Wight, Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Miss Ella Stephens.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison have moved into the new rectory, which adjoins Trinity Church, and which is built on the Elizabethan lines. Mrs. Morrison, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Alexander and Robert Morrison returned early last week from a month's sojourn at Oak Hill ranch.

At the Mary Case concert on Monday evening, Miss Genevieve Thompson entertained with a large party for Miss Mary Withington, of Greenwich, Conn., at which the guests were Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Miss Louise Carey, Harry Montgomery, Harold Sawyer, Earl Labbe and Captain William H. Jordan, Jr.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, with Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, left on Monday for Mrs. W. S. Ladd's North Beach residence, at which there is a small house party, comprised of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Alta Smith, Miss Mary Brownlie and Hamilton Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd came up on Thursday from the beach, returning yesterday. On Friday they were among the guests at a small dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock, which included Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dolph, Miss Dorothy Morrison, William Moore, Carl Wernicke and Fred Greenwood, of San Francisco.

Mrs. J. N. Teal and Miss Ruth Teal, who are at the beach, will return shortly, leaving then for Victoria, B. C., where they will spend the month of August at the Oak Bay Hotel.

Ernest Bros, former managing editor of The Oregonian, now manager in chief of the Indianapolis Star, with Mrs. Bros, is spending some weeks at North Beach. Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers left last week to be their guest. Mrs. Fletcher Linn will also join them on Tuesday for a week's stay.

After a fortnight in Yellowstone Park, Harold Vincent Milligan, a former Portlander, has arrived from New York to spend the Summer. Mr. Milligan is a well-known organist, who for the past year has been the choir director and organist of the Rutgers Presbyterian Church, on Seventh-third and Broadway, New York. Mr. Milligan has recently been admitted to the American Guild of Organists, having the honor to receive the highest average of any candidate taking the examination. He has also just completed the post-graduate course of the Gull-mant Organ School, and has been appointed as secretary of the Treble Club, of New York.

Upon the completion of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Holbrook's house party at Tokeland, Wash., Miss Leslie Smith left for Gearhart Park, where she visited for several days with Miss Mary Livingstone, the latter having recently returned from Miss McClintock's school in Boston.

Among a few of the Portlanders at Gearhart Park are Mr. and Mrs. David Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. James Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lombard, Miss Alice Strong, Miss Henrietta Failing, Mrs. Greole, of Orange, N. J.; Misses Freda and Eliza Greole, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns and Misses Kathleen and Virginia Burns.
