

Another Chance for a Most Half Price Piano Buying. Particularly Interesting to those who came too late last week.

We are taking orders now. Will deliver just as soon as first shipment arrives, probably Wednesday. Read this telegram from our Vice-President who has been East during the past two weeks:

New York, August 2, 1909
Eilers Piano House, Portland, Or.
Have selected and commenced shipment via duluth northern pacific and north bank one hundred thirty-seven additional pianos from Chicago and forty-nine from here, the biggest and best deal we've ever made.

We found two well-known piano manufacturers with a large stock of finished pianos. They were terribly anxious to realize. We secured these latest high-grade pianos at a most extraordinary reduction. We pass this advantage along to wide-awake midsummer buyers.

Shoplifter Must Leave City.

Owing to extenuating circumstances and her excellent connections, Mrs. Anna Butler, 25 years of age, was allowed a suspended sentence of 90 days by Judge Bennett in Municipal Court yesterday. Through the influence of a local clergyman, who made known the young woman's plight to the court, she was accorded the sentence with instructions to leave the city at once. Mrs. Butler was detected in the act of stealing half a dozen pieces of women's wearing apparel from a downtown store Friday evening. She was placed under arrest and arraigned in court on the specific charge of shoplifting. She pleaded guilty to the charge. It is avowed the woman was recently married, but owing to domestic dissensions separated from her husband.

Old Citizen Passes Away.

The death of T. R. Manning this last week closes the career of an old and respected citizen. Mr. Manning came to Oregon in 1855 from Perry County, Missouri, and settled at St. Louis, Or., otherwise known as French Prairie. Not being contented with farming life, he came to Portland in 1875 and engaged in the grocery business for a number of years, and later he engaged in the street grading and contracting business until a few years ago, when he retired. At his death Mr. Manning lacked a few months of being 84 years old. He is survived by his widow and one son, H. C. Manning, of 187 North Sixteenth street, this city.
