

MRS. RICHARD NIXON
WHO LEAVES THIS WEEK FOR A TOUR OF THE WORLD

THE most noiseless quiet of the quietest month in the year now prevails, and society is dallying at the beaches and summer homes in the mountains and by our restful rivers.

The weeks preceding had led one to believe there was to be no summer lull, but last week settled the matter for good and all. Aside from a few casual dinners and luncheons, there was positively no interest in local affairs. This condition seems likely to prevail for a month, and then we may look for renewed activity.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Walker have disposed of their Irvington bungalow and will leave August 14 for Europe, going on the Canadian Pacific and visiting in Chicago before sailing from New York. On September 1 Dr. Walker will take a post graduate course while abroad in X-ray research work, and Mrs. Walker, who is a talented pianist, will continue her musical studies and go in for composition work.

Mrs. Hannah Sternfeld, of New York, who for many years resided in Portland, returned last week with her daughter, Miss Edna Sternfeld, for a three week visit here. They are for the time being at the Hotel Nortonia. Miss Sternfeld is showing her art studies made in New York and is attracting favorable comment. Some of her canvases were shown this year at the National Academy, where they were given honorable mention.

In compliment to Miss Marguerite Hudson, of Chicago, John Leland Smith gave a luncheon party Monday evening, the Golf Club being the objective point. Mrs. Carlton A. Hudson, Sr., acted as chaperone and the guests were Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Estelle Flower, of New York City; Miss Louise Carey, Miss Barbara Croker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Corbett, Kurt Koehler, Sturgis Bodine, Miss Dorothy McCoy, Chicago; Graham Griswold, Robert Noble, George Saylor and Carlton A. Saylor, Jr. Miss Hudson with her mother and brother are temporarily domiciled at Alexandra Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cook have returned from a trip to the A. Y. P. position and to Alaska, going north on the same steamer with Carl Spohn. Since their return home, Mr. and Mrs. Cook have again left for a tour of Yellowstone Park.

Raymond Frank, a former resident of Portland, is spending a few days here on a visit from Cuba where he is engaged in business. Mr. Frank is a nephew of T. B. Wilcox and Frank Knapp.

Mrs. Donald Mackay was a luncheon hostess on Thursday, entertaining for Mrs. Franklin Ball, of Plainfield, N. J. Accepting Mrs. Mackay's hospitality were: Mrs. J. W. Whalley, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Mrs. T. C. Shevlin, Mrs. Bert Ball, Mrs. J. P. Dickson and Mrs. W. H. Skene.

Henry F. Conner has returned from a four month visit in California, and is again living at the University Club.

Mrs. Harvey W. Scott, Miss Judith Scott and their two guests, Miss Helen Bundy and Miss Myrtle Eshel, both of Binghamton, N. Y., have returned from a trip to Alaska. The two New York girls, who have been the guests of the Scotts for some weeks, attended school with Miss Judith in Washington, D. C., at the Washington Seminary.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day were chaperones for a jolly steamboat trip which consumed nine days. The trip was made up the Columbia to the mouth of the Snake, and from there to Lewiston, Idaho, from which place, one of the guests, Miss Josephine Yates, returned to her Spokane home. The party included three girls of Evanston, Ill., Miss Ruth Saunders, Miss Grace Wright and Miss Louise von Behren; Clyde Rogers, of Seattle; Miss Yates and Dorsey Smith. The three Illinois girls who are making a tour of the United States returned to spend some days with Judge and Mrs. O'Day but are now at Seaside.

Mrs. Henry Hewitt, Miss Polly Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, and their three sons have returned from a week's visit at Seaside with Mrs. George H. Flinders, and the Misses Flinders. Mrs. Warren was also a guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, Don and Ford Tarpley are spending a week in Seaside.

Miss Amy Sellar, of San Francisco, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frederick Sellar, recently completed some capable musical compositions for Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer. Miss Sellar is a brilliant pianist, and has entertained on a number of occasions in her San Francisco home and abroad for Gabriellotti and Harold Bauer.

An informal luncheon party given on Sunday by Leland Smith and John Banks included Miss Barbara Croker, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Marguerite Hudson, of Chicago, Miss Louise Carey, Sturgis Bodine, Robert Noble, Mrs. Carlton A. Hudson, Sr., and Carlton A. Hudson, Jr.

Two Stanford men, Roger Hayne, of Alameda, Cal., a nephew of Donald Bowles, with Carl Shattuck, also of Alameda, have been the guests of Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day.

Miss Louise Howland, who, with her mother, recently returned from a tour of the world, will leave shortly for her San Francisco home, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles M. Gunn, on Twenty-fourth street.

An informal tea was given on Thursday of last week at the Golf Club for Mrs. G. G. Henry, of Kansas City, Mo., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Jacobs, at her Kings Heights residence. Mrs. Jacobs' brother, G. G. Henry, Jr., of Texas, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Adams, of Kansas City, are also visiting here en route to California.

Miss Minnie Couch, Miss Evelyn and Carolyn Wilson and Miss Anita Burns, who together the past year have occupied a pension in Paris, have enjoyed a number of interesting trips lately through both Italy and France. Miss Carolyn Wilson and Miss Evelyn Wilson are now touring Holland, while Miss Caroline Wilson and Miss Burns, with their singing teacher, are in Poreville, in the southern part of France. The four are planning to sail for America the middle of October, coming over with Miss Henrietta Failing and Miss Mae Failing.

An engagement which comes as a pleasant surprise is that of Miss Josephine Yates, of Spokane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Yates, and Fred P. Morey, which was announced last week at an affair given in Miss Yates' honor in her home city. During the Christmas holidays Miss Yates arrived to be the guest of Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day and later of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton, only returning to Spokane a fortnight ago. Mr. Morey is a member of an old Portland family. His father, the late P. F. Morey, acted as President of the General Electric Company for many years and was the organizer of that corporation.

His mother, Mrs. P. F. Morey, now lives with her two daughters, the Misses Helen and Shirley Eastman, at the pretty Morey farm near Oswego, which has been the scene of many house parties. Two of his sisters, who were favorites here, are living in New York—Mrs. J. Percival Allen (Maud Morey), and Mrs. Axel Exstrom, of Albany, N. Y. (Florence Morey.) Miss Yates made many friends during her visit in Portland and is decidedly popular in Spokane society. The wedding is set for November.

Miss Alta Rush, on Monday, returned from a most interesting tour of the world, which consumed 15 months. Miss Rush made the trip with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush, who returned some months ago, and also with her aunt, Miss Brady. In the interim Miss Brady and Miss Rush have been visiting in San Francisco and San Jose. Miss Brady will leave this week again for Europe.

Major and Mrs. W. A. Bethel (Miss Beale Strong) and their three children leave on Wednesday for West Point, where Major Bethel has received the appointment of Judge Advocate.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster were dinner hosts Monday evening, entertaining at their attractive country place, near the Golf Club, for Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Frisell, of New York. Additionally there were present Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. Fander, of Scotland; Walter F. Burrell, Miss Katherine MacMaster, Roderick Macleay, W. D. Wheelwright and Dr. H. C. Jeffers.

For three consecutive Tuesdays a round robin tournament has been held at the Irvington Tennis Courts. Upon the termination of 63 games the highest score fell to Mrs. Andre Foulhoux, the second to Miss Nan Robertson and the third to Miss Lily Fox, the final games lasting the entire day.

Preceding the morning's play a luncheon was served at the Irvington Club and included the following players: Mrs. H. E. Judge, Miss Myrtle Schaffer, Miss Margaret Catlin, Mrs. Walter A. Goss, Miss Campbell, Miss Mabel Goss, Miss Stella Fording, Miss Hubb, Miss Ethel Wentworth and Miss Leslie Leadbetter.
