

two sons, Ned and Crosby, leave this week for Gearhart Park. Upon their return they will motor to the Seattle fair with Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot. Mrs. Frank Freeman, is to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shevlin while at the beach.

Miss Frances Wilson left yesterday for Gearhart Park to visit with Mrs. David T. Honeyman.

After a serious illness of many weeks' duration Mrs. John Ker (Miss Laura Dunne) is steadily improving.

Mrs. James H. Kerr and children are occupying a cottage at Gearhart Park for the month of August.

Mrs. W. H. Skene, Donald and Gene Skene have returned from Seaside, where they occupied Mrs. Philip Schuyler's cottage for a month. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler, Anna and Katherine Wheeler have since left to occupy the Schuyler beach home.

Mrs. Cloyd Baker entertained informally Friday evening at her Willamette Heights residence for her niece, Miss Dorothy McCoy, of Chicago, and for Miss Hudson, also of the "Windy City."

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Howe and Miss Howe had a week-end party at Carlton at Meadow Lake Club. Guests were Miss Elizabeth Ward, of New York; Berwick Wood, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Hastings of Boston. The party left Portland in a machine. General Anderson and General Gold.

Mrs. Harriet McArthur passed through Portland on Wednesday, en route from Salem to Clatsop Inn, where she will spend ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sinnott and Miss Florence Murphy, Mrs. Sinnott's sister, left Monday for Seattle, where they will visit Miss May Goldsmith for a fortnight.

Mrs. Lester Patee, of Los Angeles, has arrived with Mr. Patee to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth. Mrs. Patee was formerly a Portland Academy girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Team White, after a few days in town, have returned to their beach home at the Breakers.

Mrs. J. N. Teal and Ruth Teal left on Wednesday morning for Oak Bay, where they will remain during the month of August.

Mrs. Samuel Herring and Mrs. Stella Berry are visiting in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth and Katherine Alsworth are at the Hotel Moore.

Mrs. M. Falk, of Oakland, Cal., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rosenfeld.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Slocum and their little son, who left Portland last October, were last heard from in Paris, en route to Vienna from Dublin, where the doctor had just completed courses at Trinity College and the famous Rotunda Hospital. They will remain in Vienna until the latter part of September, and then journey through Italy, to sail from Naples.

Dr. Gustav Bear has left for a week's vacation at the Breakers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bauer are spending a week at the Hotel Moore.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot and Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., leave this week for a brief visit to Gearhart Park.

Miss Geata Ivorra, who has left for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Blaine R. Smith at their Seaside cottage.

Miss Enid Rothchild has returned from a nine weeks' visit in Denver and has joined her parents at the Breakers.

At the Portland Hotel Grill on Saturday Mrs. S. W. Herrman entertained at luncheon for Miss Rose Lechman and Mrs. I. Steffe, of New York. The table was laden with finger plates and sweet peas. Those present were: Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Sigmond Stichel, Mrs. Moses Stichel, Mrs. Cecil H. Bauer, Mrs. Fred Rothchild, Mrs. Ella Sanders, Mrs. J. B. Hirsch, Miss Ella Herrman, Miss Theresa Adler, Mr. Henry Rosenblatt, of San Francisco; Mrs. A. H. Ackerman, of Oakland.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clark chartered an automobile party to Van Anderson's ranch, six miles above Vancouver, where lunch was had on the beach. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Miss Grant, of Sacramento; Miss Schaffer, of Fresno; Miss Hill, of Chicago; Miss Clark, Miss Lulu Hall, Miss Pay Nichols, Van Anderson, George Saylor, Lewis McArthur, Kenneth Beebe, Maurice Dooley and Arthur Menzies.

Mrs. Lischen Miller and her niece, Miss Eva Frazer, of Eugene, returned last week from their nine month trip abroad. Most of their time was passed in Paris, though they visited also Vienna and traveled all through England. They visited Portland friends a few days.

Emil Enna has returned from a trip to Sand Lake. Mr. Enna appeared in recital at Tillamook City.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Frizell, of New York, and their nephew, Aiden Burrell, have gone with the Matamoras on their climb up Mount Baker.

Mrs. Morris Sternfels, of New York, and her daughter, Miss Edna, arrived Monday for a three weeks' stay. They are to be at home Tuesday afternoon at the Nortonia. The Vanderhorst family lived here and have many friends. Madame Bauer entertained them Friday evening, and Tuesday they spent an informal evening with Mrs. Herman Metzger, who is still in mourning for her uncle, S. Lipman, and so entertains very little. Mrs. Sternfels spent a week in Seattle with her son before coming to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Campbell are among the prominent Portlanders in Seattle. Mr. Switzer and Mr. Campbell went by automobile as far as Tacoma.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hahn, who are the proud parents of a girl.

Lieutenant Robert Sears, son of the late Judge Sears, who was graduated from West Point this June, has been appointed to the Vancouver station. His mother and sister, Miss Elizabeth, have been traveling in the East for several months, and attended commencement at the military academy. Mr. Sears will be a popular addition to the younger officers' set at the post.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Central W. C. T. U. held a social meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Unruh in South Portland, 1001 First street. A large number were present and a delightful afternoon spent. After a social hour there was a short programme. Mrs. Badley spoke of the occasion as being the anniversary of Lady Heron Somerset's birthday. After a short time spent in responses from a number of the ladies present Mrs. Helen Harford spoke of the devoted life of Lady Somerset. Mrs. Hollingsworth, of Colorado Springs, Colo., was introduced, and after paying a tribute to Lady Somerset, by request recited an original poem, "The White Ribbon Special." At the conclusion of the programme light refreshments were served.

George C. Coe entertained a special car of visitors to the coast Monday, August 2, from Idaho and Minnesota. Mr. Coe met them at the train, taking them to breakfast at the Commercial Club, from there on a tour of Portland on one of the special observation cars. With luncheon on Council Crest. The afternoon was spent in an informal reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Coe. Mr. Coe took the party on his launch to the Rock Island Club for dinner, stopping for a time at the Oaks on the way down the river. The party had been spending a few days at the fair in Seattle before coming to Portland.

Mrs. M. C. Wright, of Irvington, entertained informally on Thursday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Scholte, of Salt Lake City. Music and progressive parlors made up a pleasant afternoon, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Wright was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Wright. Those present were: Mrs. C. H. Miller, Murray, Parker, Dill, Smiley, Kurtz, Bushnell, Jones, Martin, Barber, Wright, Probstel, Ogden, Hawley, Scobie and Misses Lenora and Helen Bonham, of Columbus, Ind., and Marie and Irene Scobie, of Salt Lake.

PORTLAND GIRL TO PLAY LEADING FEMALE ROLE IN "THE SNAW MAN."

Miss Mignon Ozer.

Miss Mignon Ozer, a former Portland girl, who has been visiting her family and friends in this city during the summer, recently left to return to New York. Miss Ozer has been on the stage since she left Portland several years ago, and passing through San Francisco on her way to New York, was engaged by Mr. Davis, of the Alcazar Theater, San Francisco, for a two weeks' special engagement, to play the leading female role in "The Snaaw Man." It is Miss Ozer's first appearance on the Pacific Coast, though she is a Western girl. She has done stock work in the Eastern cities and was in the original production of "Society and the Bulldog" (presented at the Bungalow last winter) at Daly's Theater in New York.

The New York Society of Oregon, in place of the regular monthly meeting, held a special affair at the launch Rose City from Merrill's boathouse, foot of Morrison street, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The launch will go up the Willamette past the Oaks, Rock Island Club, to near Oswego, where a landing will be made and light refreshments served. The launch will return to the boathouse in plenty of time to catch the cars home. All New Yorkers, either visitors or residents of the city or state, are cordially invited to go.

Mrs. Joseph Downs, of Hillsboro, entertained about 40 ladies of the Missionary Circle of the Congregational Church at her home on Main street Wednesday. Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Dr. Farnsworth, Mrs. J. Imbrie arranged a programme of music and readings. The parlors were beautifully decorated with white and pink sweet peas, nasturtiums harmonizing beautifully with the color effects of the dining-room. Mrs. Frank Imbrie, of Tacoma, and Mrs. J. C. Hare, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Downs.

Miss Theresa Boltano entertained about 40 of her friends with a dancing party at her home, 422 East Forty-fourth street, last Sunday in honor of her birthday. Supper was served, after which dancing was resumed. Louis Emerson and Miss T. Boltano sang several selections, with piano accompaniment.

Mr. and Mrs. Lador Gumbert gave a reception at their residence, 663 Kearney street, last Sunday, in honor of the engagement of their elder daughter, Miss Josephine Gumbert, to A. Friedman. The marriage has been arranged to take place in October.

Miss Myrtle Andrea, of St. Louis, and her sister, Miss L. Andrea, were guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lehmann. Their visit West includes a tour of Mexico, Pacific Coast cities and Alaska.

WEDDINGS.

Conn-Loomis.

The marriage of Ed Bert Conn to Miss Minnie M. Loomis took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. P. P. Benson, 685 East Main street, on Wednesday, at noon. Rev. J. F. Ghormley, pastor of the Christian Church, officiated. The home of the bride has hitherto been at Chehalis, Wash. The dress of the bride was of white organdie, trimmed with fine lace, and the white carnations which she wore in her dark hair made her look even more attractive than usual. The rooms in which the ceremony and the repast which followed were held, were decorated with roses, sweet peas and nasturtiums by the hostess, Mrs. Benson. Mr. Conn is the owner of a ranch near Airle, Or., to which he took his bride.

Gjedsted-Brooke.

The wedding of Miss Eva F. S. Brooke, of London, Ontario, to C. E. Gjedsted, of Sydney, N. S. W., was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brooke, 425 Ross street, on Wednesday, August 4, the service being read by Rev. E. H. Roper. Only intimate friends of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gjedsted left at night for Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and will be at home to friends on and after August 21 at 436 Ross street.

Birrell-Sanderson.

The Edinburgh Weekly Scotsman of July 24 publishes an account of the marriage of J. Hamilton Birrell, M. A., to Miss Ella Sanderson, which was held at the North British Railway Hotel, Edinburgh, on Thursday, July 22. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Birrell, of Portland, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Crooker-Anslow.

On Tuesday, August 3, at 1267 East Yamhill street, Walter G. Crooker and Lorina Anslow were united in wedlock. Rev. J. Bowersox officiating. The occasion was attended by a number of immediate relatives and friends. They formerly were of Washington, but have chosen Portland as the place of their residence.

Little-Barton.

Herbert W. Little, advertising manager of Olds, Wortman & King, and Miss Glen Barton, daughter of Judge and Mrs. George D. Barton, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Woodstock. After returning from a trip they will reside at 1403 East Grant street.

Millington-Benson.

George E. Millington and Miss Georgia E. Benson were on July 29, at the home of the bride in Sellwood, united in wedlock. Rev. J. Bowersox performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends. A mandolin orchestra discoursed music.

Firebaugh-Lane.

Lee David Firebaugh and Miss Elizabeth L. Lane, both of Portland, were married Wednesday evening, August 4, at the home of the bride's mother, 228 East Fifty-second street, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Wellquist-Watt.

J. A. Wellquist and Miss Viola V. Watt, both of Portland, were married at the reception-room of the White Temple Friday morning, August 6, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Urquhart-Henderson.

J. M. Urquhart, of The Dalles, Or., and Mrs. Maggie I. Henderson, of Portland, were married by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher at the White Temple Saturday afternoon, July 31.

Kreps-Farblague.

Albert M. Kreps and Miss Florence M. Farblague, both of Portland, were married at the reception-room of the White Temple August 3 by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Gardner-Hall.

George F. Gardner and Miss Eva Hall, both of Portland, were married Wednesday evening, August 4, at 60 Belmont street, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

McDonough-Noble.

Louis C. McDonough, of Seattle, and Miss Leola Noble, of Portland, were married Wednesday noon at the Oregon Hotel by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Noek-Jones.

Geoffrey P. Noek and Miss Eva Jones, both of Portland, were married Thursday afternoon, August 5, at the White Temple by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Russel-Parks.

Carl Edward Russell and Miss Bertha L. Parks, both of Portland, were married at 21 Eleventh street August 3 by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Starr-Cloe.

J. Lee Starr and Miss Goldie E. Cloe, both of Portland, were married by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher August 4 at 22 Eleventh street.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Miss M. F. Voiers head trimmer for Mrs. Marie U. Zeltfuchs, has gone East to attend the Fall millinery openings and to make selections of Fall and Winter hats.

Let's go swimming in Ringier's plunge pool for ladies and gentlemen, daily 11:10 P. M. 58 1/2 E. Morrison.

B. O. Spitzner will resume violin teaching September 1. The Philharmonic rehearsal commences in October.

The Waldorf Dancing Club shirt waist parties, Christensen's Hall every Wednesday evening.

Parsons' Orchestra, Ellers Piano House.

COMING EVENTS.

Grand circle officers, delegates and visiting members of the Women of Woodcraft will be guests of Mount Hood Circle.

Agency for Pictorial Review Patterns

Hamburger's
Second St., Bet. Alder and Morrison.

New Fall Millinery Now on Display.

Radical Reductions on All Remaining Summer Millinery

Broken Lines in

Shirtwaists
At Greatly Reduced Prices.

Shirtwaists in white or colored materials, tailored, fancy or Dutch effect.

Regular prices to $1.25, special, 75c

Regular prices to $1.65, special, 97c

Regular prices to $2.00, sp'l. $1.19

FLOWERS AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS

287 Morrison St.

WEDDING
AND CALLING CARDS

RUSHTON'S

Buchanan Bldg., Wash. St., Bet. 4th & 5th

R. F. PRESCOTT & CO.

ENGRAVING.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS, CALLING CARDS, ETC.

271 1-2 Morrison Street

Portland Oregon

Agents for Henderson's Corsets

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

Agents for Fay Hosiery for Children

REMEMBER
SILVERFIELD'S
FURS.
MERIT MADE THEM FAMOUS.

Silverfield's
Cor. Fourth and Morrison Sts.

WRITE FOR OUR NEW
FUR STYLE BOOK
FOR 1910.
MAILED FREE.

Great Expansion and Alteration Sale NEARING ITS CLOSE

Apartments getting into shape, and soon we will have one of the best equipped and most beautiful establishments on the Coast, devoted exclusively to women's and children's wearing apparel and furnishings, as well as our beautiful fur department and factory, which has been enlarged in order to take care of our constantly increasing business. The new Fall goods are arriving daily, and still we find on hand a number of odds and ends from each department that must be closed out regardless of cost, as we positively will not carry anything over.

Commencing Monday, August 9

The specials offered for this coming week will be of the greatest importance. At no previous occasion has prices been cut so low, in fact, everything offered is now but a fraction of its full value.

Lot 1—Specials in our suit department. Unusual values in Linerie Dresses, elegantly trimmed in lace; also Linen Tailored Suits, values up to $10, at $4.89.

Lot 2—Lingerie Dresses in dimities, lawns, ginghams, mulls, etc., in white and colors, values up to $8, $2.89.

Lot 3—Fine lines of Linerie Waists, values up to $5, at special low price of, each, $1.69.

Soiled Muslin Underwear

During the alterations of our store, this underwear was soiled. Same must be sold within the next week at prices that will astonish you.

Lot 1—Fine line of Ladies' Gowns, Chemises, Drawers, Corset Covers, Skirts.

Lot 2—Also a fine line of Children's Underwear, which we intend to close out. It will pay the economical buyer to look over this assortment.

We are closing out our line of Hand Bags, and Suitcases at less than manufacturer's cost. These goods are all new and up-to-date. Come here before you go elsewhere.

No. 13, of that order, at an entertainment and reception to be given Tuesday night in Multnomah Camp Hall, 112 East Sixth street. Members of Multnomah Camp, No. 7, Woodmen of the World, have also been invited. At the conclusion of the programme of musical and literary numbers there will be dancing.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Miss Pearl M. Kinney is visiting at the Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Webber have gone to Seaside.

Mr. Louis Rosenblatt is having an outing at Gearhart.

Miss Eva Butler, of Gresham, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. A. H. Lee is spending two weeks with friends at Seaside.

Miss Hulda Schneider is visiting at the Hansen cottage at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Nannie Marx have moved to the Kearney apartments.

J. H. Turley has opened his cottage near Grimes Grove, Seaside.

Mrs. F. A. Jackson has left for Seattle for a week's visit to the fair.

H. E. Edwards arrived at North Beach Tuesday to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gray, of Berkeley, Cal., are guests at the Nortonia.

The Rev. D. Klehl, from Minnesota, is at present supplying the pulpit of the Piedmont Presbyterian Church, in the vacation absence of the regular pastor.

(Continued on Page 8)

WEDDING
AND CALLING CARDS
MONOGRAM STATIONERY
W.G. SMITH & CO.
Third Floor Washington Bldg.
Fourth and Washington.
Leedsdale Co.
504, 505, 506, 507 Marquam Bldg.

OUR PHENOMENAL SUCCESS

during our first six months has been due only to—

Original Design—
Superior Workmanship—
Keeping Our Promises—
May we be of service to you?

J. C. ENGLISH COMPANY

Tiffany's Agent
128 PARK STREET

IF SEEKING THE NEWEST, YOU'LL FIND IT AT THE STYLE STORE

ADVANCE FALL SHOWING OF SMART WEARING APPAREL AND DRESS ACCESSORIES

Discriminate dressers will appreciate and enjoy the beautiful collection of new Fall creations we now display in our garment sections and will share our enthusiasm over the beauty of style, the harmony of color and the skill of designing these garments demonstrate. Every garment carries with it an air of attractiveness, good taste and refinement. Yet, the prices are moderate.

New Fall Suits

for little women and stout figures, strictly tailored, long tight or semi-fitting coats, skirts in the new pleated effect or gored in chevrons, serges, prunellas, broadcloth, shades maroon, blue, raisin, plum, gray and black, range in prices from $60 down to $25

52-inch Coat, close and semi-fitting in broadcloth and covert, satin or taffeta lined, plain or strap seams, prices are.....$37.50 and $24.00

New Tailored Waists

in black moire, taffeta, bengaline, aeolian and peau de cygne, scalloped fastening, loop and jet buttons, price.....$8.00

CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

If you prefer, you can arrange to pay for your Fall outfit in weekly or monthly payments to suit your own convenience. No charges for this accommodation.

EASTERN OUTFITTING COMPANY

The Store Where Your Credit Is Good.

Washington at Tenth Streets.