DETROIT, Aug. 7.—The New York Athletic Club this afternoon won the senior eight championship of the American Association of Amateur Oarsmen, the final event of the 7th annual regatta, in the fast time of 8:56.

James Cosgrove, of Toronto, in the final of the senior association single sculls, finished first by two lengths, but was disqualified for fouling William Merhoff, of the Nashua Boat Club, New York, who was given first place.

The senior eight championship, which was conceded by veteran oarsmen to be one of the hardest-fought races in the history of the association, was won by New York.

The senior four-oared shells event was won by the Ottawa Rowing Club's four, who led practically all the way.

John O'Neill, of Halifax, N. S., in the champion senior single sculls, beat Orlando Miller and Fred Shephard, of New York.

Champion O'Neill was defeated by Fred Fusedel, of the Harlem Rowing Club, New York, in the quarter-mile dash for senior singles. In the senior quadruple shell race the Nassau Boat Club, of New York, won. Summary:

TWO AUTO RECORDS SMASHED

Fifty and Mile Marks on Circular Track Are Lowered.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 7.—F. R. Lortmer, driving a 40-horsepower Chalmers-Detroit racer, in the Canadian championship at 100 miles over the Fort Erie racetrack, plunged through the fence in the sixth mile this afternoon and was seriously injured. He was found unconscious, pinned beneath the wreck of his machine, and revived later.

The event was won by Chevrolet, the French driver, who covered the 100 miles in 1:44:21.4. He shattered a world's record for 80 miles over a circular track, held by him, covering the first 50 miles in 41 minutes and 19 seconds. The previous record was 41 minutes 21 seconds.

Another feature today was the three-mile race between Barney Oldfield and Walter Christie. Oldfield, in a Benz, won the race. Time, 1:34.

Christie, in an exhibition mile, lowered the track record, covering the distance in 54 seconds flat.

Louis Chevrolet won the ten-mile open event. Time, 11:34.

TRICKERY IN PRIMARY

WISCONSIN POLITICAL SITUATION BADLY TANGLED.

La Follette Claims Credit for Taft's Victory Over Aldrich and Downs Opposite.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—Milwaukee's home-coming has come and gone. Notwithstanding that it was made the occasion for many political conferences, the fact remains that the situation is not any more clarified than it was weeks ago.

Those who expected to see in the primary election law an end to political wire-pulling must be sorely disappointed, for at no caucus or convention have the wires been so adroitly manipulated as they are now being under the Wisconsin law.

The chief disturbing block just now seems to be G. V. Davidson. Since the investigation into the election of Senator Stephenson, with whom the governor had made a truce of alliance, it has been evident that he could not become a candidate for the United States Senate, an ambition which he has nursed for some years.

Then again, Senator LaFollette, against whom he is to be pitted by the reactionaries, is today stronger than ever in this state on account of the victory of President Taft over Aldrich, as a big portion, if not the major part of the credit, the junior Senator arrogates to himself.

HOTEL CLERK CONFESSES

Man Who Posed as Lieutenant King Tells His Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Arrested here Thursday under the name of "Major Anderson, U. S. A.," and later declared by Secret Service Agent Harry Moffatt to be Lieutenant Harry King, a man wearing a United States Army officer's uniform and having many papers in his possession purporting to show that he was Lieutenant King, confessed in jail last night that he was Thomas E. Heaney, formerly a hotel clerk in Brookfield, Mass. Heaney declared that for five years he had been posing as Lieutenant King, son of General Horatio King, and that he had been received in many cities without question under that name. He took great pains to carry out the imposture.

His card case was engraved "Lieutenant Harry King, son of General Horatio King." He had numerous letters from Army officers and even from the department at Washington addressed to King, and because of acquaintance with the real King, was able to pass as the latter among Army men who knew the Lieutenant by sight.

Heaney was arrested on telegraphic advice from Los Angeles, stating that a man of his description was wanted there for forgery. Lieutenant Harry King is in the Philippines.

what will doubtless be one of the chief features of the session.

That this decision will not be reached without friction and probably serious clashes is admitted. An endorsement of Hooker's proposal, in whole or in part, would practically amount to an endorsement of the Roosevelt policies of reclamation and conservation.

That the discussion will include conservation as well as reclamation is made clear in Hooker's resolutions. More than this, prominent officials, including Governor Pinchot, chief forester; James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture; P. H. Newell, director of the United States Reclamation Service, and Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior, will be on the ground.

Clash of Leaders Expected.

This, viewed in the light of recent events at Washington, with Ballinger accused of attempting to block the Roosevelt policies of conservation and reclamation, throwing open and then withdrawing lands, under pressure from Taft, and signing as the cause of friction in the cabinet over the questions that are bound to be sprung in the irrigation congress, points with practical certainty to occasional periods of high temperature before such an endorsement as that mentioned is made or refused.

BALLINGER TO SEE MONTANA

Secretary of Interior Will Inspect Government Projects.

SEATTLE, Aug. 7.—Secretary of the Interior Ballinger announced today that he will meet the Senate committee on irrigation, of which Senator Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, is chairman, at Glendive, Mont., on August 12, and will accompany the committee on an official visit to contemplated reclamation work in that state.

The party will go first to the Lower Yellowstone, after which an inspection will be made of the Huntley project and of the Shoshone, Lower Milk River, the Flathead country and the Yakima district. It is expected that this trip will include all the large irrigation work now under consideration by the Government in Montana.

May Be Five Tariff Experts.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—It was announced at the Treasury Department today that the board of tariff experts to be appointed by the President might consist of five instead of three. It was pointed out that the number was discretionary with President Taft. No selections have yet been made.

Laurelhurst

The Addition With Character

LAURELHURST is to be made the Most Beautiful Addition in Portland.

There are many beautiful locations in Portland, but heretofore they have been more or less restricted in area, because the land has been platted in small tracts.

In its development, the owners of LAURELHURST have planned a residence district of the highest class, on such a broad and generous scale that it will be a credit to Portland, and would be a credit to any great city in the world.

LAURELHURST is a tract of land one mile long and three quarters of a mile wide which is being laid out and improved under a general scheme for artistic development that will give a wide scope to the best talents of architects and landscape artists.

Go and see LAURELHURST for yourself today; see how the streets are laid out to preserve the natural beauties of the tract; see what magnificent views the residents will have; see the rich soil that will make this addition a rose garden in the heart of the "Rose City."

Homes in this beautiful park are greatly to be desired.

All of the streets in this addition are to be paved and all other public improvements will be made under the ten-year payment plan as soon as the work can be done.

The prices of lots in LAURELHURST, at this time, will be no higher than the prices of other property in the vicinity which lacks these advantages, but we expect to advance the prices very materially within a few months.

At the present time, the prices of lots 50x100 feet in size, will range from $600 to $1800 each, the higher prices being for a few of the very choicest view lots.

We have just completed a handsome office adjoining the old Ladd "Hazel Fern Farm" house in the center of the tract, and are now ready to receive visitors and show them the addition.

Our representatives will be at the office on the ground today to show the property. Come and see us.

The best way to go is to take the Montavilla carline at Third and Morrison streets, which will take you to our office at 38th street, in 15 minutes.
