of Chicago, leave this week for the Sea-side Hous-, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Ketten-bach, of Lewiston, Idaho.

John Banks was the host at a launching party on Tuesday night, the Golf Club being the objective point. Mr. Banks' guests were Mrs. Carlion A. Hudson, Sr., of Chicago; Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Bar-hara Croker, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Marguerite Hudson, of Chicago; Irving Webster, George Saylor, Alfred Denny, of Seattle, and Carlton A. Hud-. . .

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knight and daughter, Marcia, who have spent several months in New York City and the East, have returned and are at home at their country home, Knights Station, on the Oregon City carline.

Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed has been a guest for the past two weeks of Mrs. Ar-thur A. Kerr, who is living near But-

Mr. and Mrs. Leon G. Greeneham, of San Francisco, are guests at the Hotel Portland. Mrs. Greenebaum is a handsome and accomplished woman, who has visited here on several occasions. As Miss Dollle Heyneman, of San Francisco, she attended a finishing school in that city at the same time as Mrs. Jack Browne (Miss Fannie Brown) and Mrs. Amo Dosch (Miss Elsie Sperry). Mr. Greenebaum's father is president of the , Paris & Anglo-American Bank of San Francisco.

Miss Estelle Mallory, now of New York, but formerly of Portland, arrived last week for a short visit with Miss Luile Hall, going later to visit with Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren, in Astoria. Miss Mallory, who was a Portland Academy girl, has recently returned with her father from a year in China, to which place they will return to make their home.

Owens, Myron Markee, Chauncay Markee, Lucia Markee, Wesley Royal.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Anne Shannon Monroe entertained in honor of Mrs. Cornelia Jewett, of Chicago, editor of the Union Signal and president of the lillinois Woman's Press Club, of which Miss Monroe is also a member. The their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Dosch, the latter Miss Elsic Sperry, of San Francisco, ar-rived on Thursday evening for a few days' visit on their way to New York, where Mr. Dosch will continue his journalistic career. Mr. and Mrs. Dosch and their little daughter, aged 5 months, will visit in Seattle for several days with Colonel Henry E. Dosch, director of exhibits at the exposition.

Miss Izetia Jewell, who goes hast to become the leading woman with Otis Skinner next scason, has been tendered a number of farewell affairs during the past fortnight. On last Sunday Miss Jewell entertained the Camera Club at Women writers of the city. Miss Izetta Jewell, who goes East to

Benage S. Josselyn gave a luncheon at the Arlington Club on Tuesday in honor of Hon. Ben M. Smith, judge of the Superior Court of Illinois. Josselyn's guests were Judge Charles Wolverton, of the Federal Court, Judge Gatens, of the Circuit Court, Frederick V. Holman and Franklin T. Griffith. Judge Smith's visit here was made on his way to the fair at Seattle in company with his wife and two daughters School, at St. Louis with Miss Mildred

Miss Jean Brownlie leaves September Oaksmere, a finishing school for girls.

Mr. and Mrs. L. May and Miss Carrie May have returned from a trip to the fair at Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lang, of Oregon City, and their two children are guests at the Hotel Moore, Seaside. Miss Carrie Glisan and her brother, Rodney Glisan, were also registered at the same hostelry this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stanley have had as their guest this week at the Breakers Miss Lillian O'Brien, who returned this Summer from a smart finishing school in New York. Robert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien joined them over the . . .

cently granted a petition for a chapter at the University of Oregon, and the state university is to be congratulated in receiving this charter. The memin receiving this charter. The members of the new chapter at Eugene are among some of the best-known young men at the university and many are of prominent families in various parts of the state. Among some of the old mempbers of the Beta Theta Pi who reside in Portland are B. C. Ball, C. E. Greele, W. H. Corbett and Morton Insley.

Miss Ilse Koehler is visiting at Sea-de with Miss Milla Wessinger.

E. E. Calvin, general manager of the Southern Pacific, with Mrs. Calvin, passed through Portland last week in their private car and spent a day at the Portland. Mrs. Calvin during her visit here some weeks ago was summoned home by telegraph owing to the illness of Mr. Calvin, who underwent a severe attack of appendicitis. Mr. Calvin has now entirely recuperated. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. B. London are be-ng felicitated upon the arrival of a son on Friday. NANCY LEE on Friday.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. Charles Johnson. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Camp. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson. Those present were discarded, and once more went back to childhood's happy hours. The house and grounds were beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and lanterns. Children's games were played until a late hour, when a most delightful supper was served in the large dining-room. The evening's enjoyment was one long to be remembered, and no pairs were spared to make everyone feel at home. The following persons were present: Mrs. C. S. Moody, Seattle, Wash; Misses M. and F. Devers, Chicago; Miss Sadye Kindred, Miss Edna Kindred, Miss C. Hobekost, Miss Mae Thompsun, Miss Agnes Baker, Miss Kate Knoll, 'Mrs. T. A. Kindred, of Portland; H. E. Deputy, A. Burton, Walla Walla; T. E. Lovejoy, San Francisco; E. O. Hanion, R. Knoll, George Tinker, M. Strahan, A. Owens and Mr. Richmond.

Lieutenant Brown, U. S. N. While at the yard Miss Howe's presence was made the occasion for a round of entertaining. During her visit she also wrote a number of articles on her impressions of the A-Y-P Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Owen have returned to their Irvington home from a several weeks trip in the East.

Dr. George B. Wallace, of New York, is visiting his father, Hugh W. Wallace, and his aister, Mrs. Lewis Russell.

Mrs. Graham Glass and daughter. Miss Ethewynne, have returned from Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver and leave today for a two weeks' visit at Scaside.

Miss Luffe Hall and Miss Jessie Hill, of Chicago, leave this week for the Seasiele House, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hubert. After the season of Mrs. And Mrs. L. M. R. Broyman of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sellers Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sellers Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Royal. Mr. association. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Hughts home of Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Heights home of Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Hughts home of Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Mrs. C. Mrs. Wallam Ketten-weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Ketten-weeks will am Mrs. E. D. Royal. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Hughts home of Mrs. L. M. Hubert. Hughts home of Mrs. L. Mrs. Wallam Ketten-weeks of Mr. and Mrs. William Ketten-weeks will have her and Mrs. E. D. Royal. Mr. Alter Wallam Ketten-weeks will have her and Mrs. E. D. Royal. Mr. Alter Hubert. Hughts home of Mrs. L. Mrs. Wallam Ketten-weeks will have her and Mrs. P. D. Royal. Mr. Alter Wallam Ketten-weeks will have her and Mrs. P. D. Royal. Mr. Alter Wallam Ketten-weeks will have her and state of the assembly this year article part of the chinding Mrs. C. L. Menary hught

Alf Klingenberg, Noted Violinist, Who Formerly Lived Here, Is Portland Visitor.

Oral Gardner, Page Gardner, John Owens, Myron Markee, Chauncey Markee, tically decorated, the parlor, lighted with Lucila Markee, Glen Markee, Wesley rose colored candles, was festooned with Hillinois Woman's Press Club, of which were present, the wedding party repaired Miss Monroe is also a member. The to the dining-room, decorated in tones of Miss Morroe's cory little bungalow in Woodstock was a refreshing mass of woodland greenery. Vocal solos by Miss woodland greenery. Vocal solos by Miss Miriam Goodhue Lynch Miss Collins, of Portland, and Mrs. George A. Libbey, of Tacoma, several violin numbers by Miss Helen Bonham, recently from Indiana. Tacoma, several violin numbers by Miss Helen Bonham, recently from Indianapolis, a clever reading from Eugene Field by Mrs. Clyde B. Aitcheson, led up to Mrs. Clyde B. Aitcheson, led up to

Mrs. Jewett's hour, when, at the urgent request of every one present, she "took the floor" and related incidents of Press

In comparing notes it was found that two Portland writers are honored in the Eastern prints this month: Miss Helen Sayr Grey has an important article in the North American Review on "Domestic Economy in Schools and Colleges" and the Ladies' Home Journal in an article to women on "Indecision."

Mrs. Cornelia T. Jewett, managing editor of the Union Signal, the W. C. T. U. National organ, and Mrs. J. M. Kemp, superintendent of the circulation department, were given a reception by the city union Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ada W. Unruh. After a social hour, in which many were introduced to the visiting editors. Mrs. Jewett gave an interesting talk, relating her experiences at Seattle, and incidents of her trip to Alaska with a company of editors, of the interest shown in the W. C. T. U. work, of the loyalty of the women to the paper, which is a connecting link binding the organization together. Mrs. Kemp explained the affection that exists between the editors of the paper and its readers all over the country. She expressed the hope that Oregon will be "all white" in 1919, as a result of the campaign. After words of greeting by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, State President, and concluding remarks by Mrs. Unruh, light refreshments were served. teresting talk, relating her experience refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Dielschneider cele brated their wooden wedding last Tues day evening. Progressive whist was the won the gentleman's first prize and Mrs H. H. Menges the ladies' first The Beta Theta Pi fraternity has re- Piano solos were played by Miss Lottie Armstrong, Amelia Jones and Berniec Calway. Refreshments were served a a late hour. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Menges, Mr. and Mrs. O. Jones, Miss Amelia Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dielschneider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bollam and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will-iam Dielschneider, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calway, Miss Berniece Calway, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dielschneider, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Armstrong, Miss Lottle Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Dielschneider.

> Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, grand guardian Women of Woodcraft, and Miss Bertha Simner, general organizer, entertained the organization staff of the order with the organization staff of the order with a dinner last Tuesday evening. After dinner Mrs. Van Orsdail was presented with a set of resolutions setting forth the high esteem in which she is held by the staff for the many favors shown them during the past year. Afterward all attended the theater. Those present were: Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdail, Miss Bertha Sumner, Dr. Minnie C. Love, Mrs. Hollywood, Miss Jennie Green, Miss Holdredge, Mrs. J. Leach, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Sawyer Mrs. McCauley and Mrs. Mills.

On Monday evening last the Billiken Club gave a very enjoyable surprise party to Mrs. H. L. Camp, at her home on East Salmon street, the occasion being her birthday. Five hundred was played One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the children's party given by Miss Kate Knell on August 19 at the Knell cottage in honor of Mrs. C. S. Moody, of Seatile. The grown people donned ch'idren's clothes, which have long been discarded, and once more went back to childhood's happy hours. The house and grounds were beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and lanterns.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hayes, of Hillsboro, was the scene of a happy gathering Saturday, August 14, in honor of Samuel Markee, who on that day was 91 years old. "Grandpa" Markee, as he is better known, is hale and hearty for his years, and always looks members met at the beautiful Willamette Heights home of Mrs. L. M. Hubert. After a delightful luncheon hour the cusiness of the Association was trans-cted and then all departed for beautiful Macleay Park and enjoyed the after-noon in the most natural, restful park

. . . S. J. Mickley, 255 Fifth street, last week entertained H. E. Weich, of Adrian, Mich., with whom he enlisted in Company I. 18th Michigan Infantry, in 18th, the two serving together to the close of the war. After a separation of 4 years, Mr. Weich carried the banner for the Michigan delegation in the narrade at Michigan delegation in the parade at Salt Lake City. He will return home by way of Seattle, WEDDINGS.

Yager-Stanton.

Rev. Father McDevitt officiated at a pretty home wedding in the marriage of Miss Laulie Stanton and Jacob Clarence Yager at the home of the bride's sister, Yager at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. W. Hays, 179 Green avenue, on Wednesday evening. August 184. The bride, in a white lingerie dress and white hat with plumes, and carrying an arm bouquet of bride roses, was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Stanton, and her brother-in-law, R. W. Hayes, and her cousins, Miss Grace and Daniel O'Neill Miss Stanton, as bridesmaid, was attilred in a delicate blue silk mult and carried white sweet peas. Miss O'Neill, as maid of honor, wore white and carried pink sweet peas. The Hayes home was artis-Pink sweet peas, roses and car nations were used in profusion to further the color scheme, while rose-colored shades softened the glow of the electric lights. After the ceremony, at which only the immediate family and relatives to the dining-room, decorated in tones of Oregon Woman's Press Club was invited to meet Miss Jewett
Miss Monroe's cory little bungalow in Woodstock was a refreshing mass of Victoria, Banff Springs and other points ber 15 Mr. and Mrs. Yager will make their home at The Dalles, Or.

Murray-Dunckley.

On Wednesday morning at 8:40 o'clock the wedding of Miss Helena M. Dunck-ley, of Centralia, Wash., to Robert H. Murray, of this city, was celebrated at the Calvary Presbyterian parsonage, Rev. Walker officiating. The bride is a headgroup and accomplished girl and a the North American Review on "Domestic handsome and accomplished girl and a great favorite in Centralia. She is a neice of W. H. Dunckley, of Portland, cashier the Ladiea Home Journal in an article to women on "Indecision."

Mer Cornella T. Levett managing of News-Examiner.

News-Examiner. "Bob" Murray, as he is familiarly called, has an interesting career. At the age of 16 he showed his daring disposition by leaving home for Alaska, where he, unassisted, made his way to decidedly lucrative positions. At the age of 17 he was shanghaled, and during his long voyage of 158 days to Ireland he was

AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS 287 Morrison St.

FOREIGN BOOKS

We carry German Text-Books, German Fiction and Novels, German Magazines; also French Text-Books and Novels, and Spanish Text-Books and Novels

All kinds of books for foreigners to learn English.

The A. W. Schmale Co. 229-231 First Street

Millinery & Ladies' Furnishings Pictorial Review for September.

Agents for Henderson's Corsets.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

LAST WEEK OF SUMMER PRICES ON FINE FURS

NEW ARRIVALS IN WOMEN'S

FALL

APPAREL

Agents for Fay Hosiery for Children

FINAL PRICE CUTS, A QUICK, DECISIVE SELLING

Choice Bits for Buyers. Everything Summery Reduced

This is a rare saving time; all our Summer goods-bright, fresh, new and stylish-are marked at sacrifice prices. Profits don't figure now. Clearance-complete and absolute-that is the all-important question these days. Fall goods are ordered; they are coming in by every express; they must have room for display. It is their time now-all Summer goods must make way for them. This is "hurry-out time" for the Summer goods-stock-clearing time-room-making time-time to make way for the Fall goods.

AND LOW PRICES? PRICES AT COST AND BELOW, IS THE MIGHTY POWER WHICH WILL HURRY, REDUCE AND MAKE WAY.

To speed the selling, prices are beyond precedent. If you want to obtain wearable things, you will need for the next month or so-or anticipate some of your next season's wants, now during the golden present, you can do so at a saving of from one-fourth to three-fourths.

Great 6-Day Final Windup Sale. BEGINS MONDAY AT 8 A. M.

given up by his family for lost. Since Eugene H. Dowling and Miss Collsta M. Hotel Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Roper home in Portland. Murray were married by Rev. J. J. left on the morning train for Seattle, home in Portland.

Staub. The church had been decorated and they will be at home in East Ely.

Sammons-Irving.

Jay R. Sammons and Jennie Louise Laurie" and "Because," Jay R. Sammons and Jennie Louise Latter and Louise latter and latt at noon Sunday, August 15, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sammons, of Cedar Mill. Or., Rev. Spiess, of Beaverton, officiating. The Spiess, of Beaverton, officiating. The home was decorated with potted ferns and pink and white carnations. Immediately after the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Sammons left for Portland, where they will reside at 407 Marguerite avenue. Only the immediate relatives were present. Culverwell-Kingery.

Dowling-Murray.

A double wedding of exceptional atractiveness occurred Wednesday evening. August 18, at the Sunnyside Congregational Church, when John A. Culver-well and Miss Nettle L. Kingery and under the direction of Miss Minnie Spald-ing and Carl Robinson sang "Annie Laurie" and "Because." The bridal pipe organ by Miss Olivine Fles. Kingery was accompanied by her father, D. H. Kingery, Miss Murray by her brother, Alpha R. Murray. A large number of friends witnessed the impressive service and were at the close ten dered a reception in the parlors of the church.

Roper-Fulmer.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday morning August 19 in the First Presbyterian Church, Twelfth and Alder streets, when Miss Myrtle May Fulmer and Frank Roper were married. Rev. Thomas Holmes Walker officiating. The bride wore her traveling gown of blue and a picture hat covered with plumes. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast followed at the wind the covered day, August 17. After a short wedding clating. Everton-Harvey.

At the White Temple reception room, on Thursday evening, August 19, Dr. J. Whiteomb Brougher, at the Say by Dr. J. Whiteomb Thursday morning August 19 in the left on the morning train for Seattle, home in Portland, and they will be at home in East Ely.

Nevada, September 1. Schulen Mrs. Roper, who has been the guest of her sister, a iss Rebecca Fulmer, for several months, is a charming girl and made many warm friends while in the city who regret to see her leave.

Professor Waldemar Land, the violinist, nd Miss Myrtle Bell Cody were married at 511 Yambill street Sunday, August 15. by Dr. J. Whitcomp Brougher. F. W. Prasp acted as best man and Miss Emma Prasp acted as best man and Miss Emma at the reception room of the White Tem-Stiles as bridesmaid. Refreshments were at the reception room of the White Tem-ple, Monday evening, August 16, Dr. J. Whiteomb Brougher, the pastor, offifessor Lind's orchestra.

Lind-Cody.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, August 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Schulenberg, of Grays Crossing, when Miss Fay Logan was married to W. I. Schulenberg, Rev. Mr. Moore officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Schulenberg will reside at Montavilia.

Stevens-Cosgrove.

E. L. Stevens, of Tull & Glbbs, was united in marriage to Miss Rae Cosgrove

Wilkins W. Wiswell, local manager of the Underwood Typewriter Company, on Thursday evening, August 19, Dr. J. was married to Miss Winnifred K. Hus-Whitcomb Brougher married A. E. Ever-is our showing of MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FALL WEARING APPAREL AND DRESS ACCESSORIES. Every conceivable style recommended by authoritative designers is represented here in all the new materials, colors and patterns. In this gigantic display you'll find a MODEL to suit your FIGURE, a COLOR to suit your FANCY and a PRICE to suit your PURSE.

If seeking the newest you'll find it at the Style Store.

Ladies' Fall Suits

Strictly tailored suits, coats with the elongated waist and tight-fitting effect, in various lengths taffeta, serge, satin or peau de cygne lined; skirts, plain gored, pleated or long yoke effect. Made of serge, broadcloth, prunella, soleile, in black, blue, raisin, maroon, mulberry and a series of gray; perfect models for little women, misses and juniors. Range in prices from $50.00 down to $18.00.

The balance of our linen, foulard and satin dresses, lace coats and wash suits at 1/2 price. This item should not be overlooked. Think it over.

Artistic Millinery

All types in the new Moyenage, Louis XIV and Napoleon shapes, masterpieces of clever designing, charmingly trimmed with ostrich and feather novelties in Bengaline, peau de eygne and moire, mod-

Men's Fall Suits and Overcoats

of sterling character are now exhibited at our store in extensive varieties. Every conceivable style, material and color is here. These garments are full of snap and ginger and so vastly different from the average kind that they lend to their wearers an individuality of refinement. They range in price from $45.00 down to $20.00. Designed and tailored by

Charge Accounts Solicited If you prefer, you can arrange to pay for your purchases in weekly or monthly payments to suit your convenience.

The Store Where Your Credit Is Good.

EASTERN OUTFITTING

Washington at Tenth Street.