BY W. J. PETRAIN.

Curtis Coleman, the University of Oregon ball tosser, who has blossomed out as a professional with the Tacoma Club, booted Billy Staton's bouncer in the fifth inning of yesterday's game, which won the "Count" bases to score from third base with the run that gave the home team the decision by a 5-to-4 score.

Both teams called upon relief twirlers. Tom Seaton, who started for Portland, was hit hard early in the game, and when he showed signs of being wobbly, in the ninth, Casey canned him and introduced Irving Gough to the mound.

Hard hitting, including doubles by Kippert and Hopkins, kept the Tacoma brace of runs in the second, and another was added in the fourth, when Dashwood doubled and scored on Coleman's infield tap.

Portland tied the score up in the seventh and took the lead in the eighth. Passes to Adams and Bassey and singles by Casey and Gough, which resulted in three in the seventh. Seaton's hit, followed by a single by Adams and an error by Broadbent, who allowed Stevens' arrow to get to the plate, made him responsible for the fourth run scored in the eighth.

Seaton weakened in the ninth, when Hopkins and Dashwood, who had a lame Coleman was hit by a pitched ball, which filled the bases, and Casey derrickered Seaton in favor of Gough. Gough fanned Stevens, but Hurley singled to center and Dashwood scored. This tied up proceedings and the game went into extra innings.

Newlin, who went on the mound in the ninth, got away all right until he had hit when Casey walked and Bassey doubled to the right garden wall. Mullin forced Casey between third and home, but Bassey negotiated third base with the manager was being put out. Then came Coleman's boot of Staton's grounder and the game was over.

Two games will be played this afternoon, the first commencing at 3 o'clock and the second game following immediately after. The official score of yesterday's game is as follows:

WHEN Bill Hurley made that hit in the ninth, some thought Casey had made a mistake in changing pitchers, but his judgment was the game just the same.

The high wind made the work of the outfielders difficult, for it carried the ball in the most deceptive manner. Irving Gough, who made some nice catches despite the handicap.

Johnny Hopkins, the little wrong-sider, looks just as natural as ever when on the mound. He is also just as wild as ever he was, and it was not for that defect he would be unbeatable.

SETTING A FEW THINGS TO RIGHTS

SOME PLAIN TALK UPON THE PIANO TRADE SITUATION OF INTEREST TO ALL.

PERIODICALLY THESE JEALOUS OUTBREAKS ASSUME ASPECTS MORE THAN USUALLY VIOLENT.

THE REPUTATION OF THE PIANO TRADE IS TOO DEAR TO US TO PERMIT SUCH GROSS OFFENSE TO GO UNNOTICED.

IF ELLERS PIANO HOUSE WERE SELLING ITS INSTRUMENTS AT THE TREMENDOUSLY HIGH PRICES OTHERS ARE ASKING.

Periodically these jealous outbreaks assume aspects more than usually violent, and during the past few days we are sorry to note that envious and green-eyed competitors have permitted themselves to burst into print employing invective and billingsgate beneath the dignity of even the most coarse and vulgar.

THE REPUTATION OF THE PIANO TRADE IS TOO DEAR TO US TO PERMIT SUCH GROSS OFFENSE TO GO UNNOTICED.

And again, when a dealer in desperate disappointment goes so far as to say "that Portland contains more cheap thump-box pianos than any city of twice its size in the world," it is certainly a sad reflection upon the class of goods he himself is compelled to endeavor to foist off upon an unsuspecting public, for it has been the marvel of the trade for many years, and until recently conceded that Eilers Piano House sells and has been selling a larger percentage of costliest and highest-grade pianos than any similar institution in the United States.

IT CAN BE PROVEN BY ACTUAL FIGURES THAT IF ALL THE DEALERS IN THE UNITED STATES SOLD SO HIGH A PERCENTAGE OF CHICKERING AND WEBERS AND KIMBALLS AND HAZLETTONS AND DECKERS AND OTHER HIGHER-GRADE PIANOS.

It will be seen, therefore, that attempted abuse of Eilers Piano House, printed or verbal, by disgruntled competitors, is readily summed up as a most aggravated case of sour grapes, and nothing can show more emphatically the truly desperate attempts resorted to by our would-be competitors in their endeavors to secure an ever so small portion of the trade that has been and is being so generously bestowed upon Eilers Piano House.

THERE WILL BE MORE THAN 20 CARLOADS OF PIANOS SOLD BY EILERS PIANO HOUSE DURING THE MONTH OF AUGUST.

Please bear this in mind, no big concern in this day and age can afford to do a mean or little thing. 'Twould be commercial suicide. Eilers Piano House is an Oregon concern, the only home piano house there is. We have been identified with the growth and development of Oregon for many years. We are not nomads. Our homes are here. We intend that our homes always shall be here. We can't afford to stand for anything but the square deal. Eilers Piano House.
