

Powers' September "Business Building" Sales

We are going to make September a memorable month in the furniture history of this city by value-giving such as has never been attempted in this vicinity before. The bargains will be of so splendid a character that everybody with even a very remote need of furniture will feel impelled to come, and after coming will be very glad that they came. Do not forget that any and all of these "Specials" are at your service at the same price no matter if you say "charge it," and you are the one to make the terms.
