100 Kitchen Gems Free! An Extraordinary Offer! And an Extraordinary Range

This Great Steel Range is built expressly for us by the "Eclipse" Stove Company, of Mansfield, Ohio, the stove center of the United States. It is built of cold-rolled steel (of the quality locomotives are made of), and has two walls of this planished steel and a middle wall 1/4 inch thick of asbestos. These are hand-riveted together with cone-head rivets making it perfectly air-tight and almost indestructible. The fire-box is LARGE in proportion to the oven, therefore it is a quick baker—in fact, the quickest-baking range built.

SHUBERTS BRING ON WAR AMONG THE THEATERS OF SAN FRANCISCO

Invade Syndicate's Territory, and May Be Sued by Disappointed House—Vaudeville Manager Scours Europe for Drawing Headliners—Quick Lunch and a Press Banquet Planned for Taft—Tiny Heiress Arrives in Spreckels Family.

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—San Francisco theatrical managers, if divided on most subjects, are a unit in agreeing that they can best disagree. For just at present a theatrical war, confined heretofore to desultory skirmishes, is in progress in San Francisco, involving every theater in the city but one. The roar of guns in actual combat was heard last Sunday night when the Messrs. Shubert, sworn enemies of the theatrical syndicate, inaugurated their invasion of the territory heretofore in the trust's exclusive possession, by the presentation of Augustus Thomas' play, "The Witching Hour," at the Valencia Theater. That business opposition from the syndicate will not be the only fight on the hands of the Shuberts is practically certain, for on good authority it is declared that the directors of the American Theater will institute legal proceedings as the result of the removal of the Shubert shows to the Valencia from the American, which had a five-year contract for the handling of them.

Before the manager of the Valencia had agreed to provide a home for the Shubert shows, he had already contracted with William Morris, promoter of independent vaudeville, to establish a chain of houses throughout the West with headquarters in San Francisco. Announcement has been made that William Morris will not open at the Valencia until November 1. It is common gossip, moreover, that the Morris people have delayed their opening because they hope to have a down-town theater with which they will be better able to compete with the Orpheum, and if this deal goes through, it will somewhat relieve the situation for the Shuberts.

Coast, had arranged to play his shows at the Garrick. He has a lease on the Colonial, a down-town house on McAllister, near Market street, but as it will not be ready for several months, it would seem that Cort is the one manager who will be entirely homeless when the war is in full blast, a couple of months from now.

of Oakland creek and into the bay, where he will want to use his eyes. Some of the commentators who know what a rush it is to be served while crossing the bay have remarked humorously that the President will have to bolt his food if he is to eat luncheon and see the bay all on one small trip across from the Oakland side.

take the stump for Heney are District Attorney William H. Langdon, Hiram W. Johnson and Martin H. Sullivan. Heney's majority over Pickett, for the Democratic nomination, has been reduced by the official count to 88. In spite of the fact that Heney has declared he cannot legally accept that party nomination, his friends through the Bulletin, argue that he has misconstrued the law and that he can accept if he so desires.

Spreckels fortune, controlled by four millionaire brothers, is among the largest in the world. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spreckels were married more or less secretly in Philadelphia in May, 1908. Mrs. Spreckels was formerly Miss Alma de Brettville, a noted beauty. She had been a bride almost a month and she and her husband were on their way for a honeymoon tour of Europe before the announcement of the wedding was made to San Francisco society.
