A surprise reception was given last Friday evening at the Turn Hall gymnasium, in honor of the return of Professor H. Genserowski from a trip abroad, as well as from the recent Turnfest at Cincinnati, of which he and Professor Krohn, of Multnomah Club, were elected judges. The hearty welcome accorded this successful instructor by his pupils and active classes, evinced his popularity as a teacher. Whist, 500 and dancing, followed later by dainty refreshments helped to pass a very enjoyable evening. While absent, Professor Genserowski spent much of his time studying new methods of physical culture training, which, with his untiring efforts, will make this season even more successful than those of the past.

A wedding anniversary surprise party was given by H. S. Smith for Mrs. Smith at their residence, 1275 Broadway, last Thursday evening. On Mrs. Smith's return at 7 P. M. from spending the day with a friend, she found the house full of friends and a wedding dinner tastefully arranged. Mrs. Smith was the recipient of several handsome gifts, one of which, from Mr. Smith, comprised a beautiful pair of pure white soutane diamond earrings. The invited guests were: Rev. Henry Marcotte and Mrs. Marcotte, Rev. H. S. Black and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. S. Mulder, of Central Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pallett, Mr. and Mrs. R. E.
