Harmonizing with the quality, style and value that has marked the success of our various other store sections, our new Fur Department now takes its place as another important addition to our Section of Wearing Apparel for Women. We have spared no efforts in maintaining the standard that in every instance characterizes our merchandise, and the stock of our new fur section is the selection of a practical furrier. None but the very best qualities of furs will be shown here, from the most inexpensive Coney and other furs of this class—the opossum, raccoon, wolf and fox, to the lynx, mink, chinchilla and others that are suitable for neckpieces and muffs.

The sable, squirrel, Russian pony and other furs used for coats will be featured in this our first showing.

Handsome Pony Coats made of light weight selected skins showing the moiré effect with either plain Skinner's satin or fancy brocade linings, 36 in., 42 in. and 50 in. long. Those with semi-fitted backs have collars slashed back or side.

Sable and squirrel Auto Coats with the semi back. Marmot-skin Auto Coats popular priced.

We absolutely guarantee every fur to wear satisfactorily, and will repair free of charge for one year from time of purchase all near seals, electric or French seals.

We cordially invite you to inspect this entirely new stock, knowing it to be worthy of your most careful consideration. First Floor.

New Special Silk Jersey Waists at $5.95. Strictly tailored and with side pleated and air tucked front and plain French back. This will be a very popular garment this season.

Other silk Jersey Waists in both the plain tailored and fancy styles—at $8.50, $9.50 and $12.50.

Fancy Plaid Silk Brocaded Waists, just received, made of heavy imported silk. Unusual values at $9.75.

The "Modart" Corset

Demonstration by Mrs. Redding continued for another week

Mrs. Redding's work has, during the past two weeks, proven a revelation to women who are interested in personal improvement. Through special arrangement Mrs. Redding will remain with us for another week and continue to demonstrate the leading features of the "Modart." We illustrate here the regular "Modart" front-laced model, with new habit back, made adjustable by means of the front lacing. This beautiful corset is made in a variety of waist lengths, full and medium busts, high or low under the arms. The back is perfectly controlled by the front-lacing adjustment.

Plan to attend this week's demonstration. Mrs. Redding will be pleased to give you her personal attention. The New Corset Section, First Floor.

Decorative Wall Papers

Wall decorations are most necessary in obtaining the best results in the completion of the home interior. Without harmonizing wall colors, window hangings and furniture fail to produce the best results.

We show Wall Papers to match and harmonize with the latest hangings and floor coverings—papers that are correct in design and colors that are lasting.

—Austrian and German papers in perfect silk damask designs and colorings.

—Japanese leathers for the library, dining-room, den or vestibule.

—Hand-tooled leathers and leather effects.

—English Eltonbury papers in plain and figured effects—a silk fibre paper that is fast in color.

—Choice floral designs, in all colors, many with cretonne and taffeta to match. Also cut-out borders and panels.

—Landscape friezes, in various widths—designs suitable for the dining-room, den, library or living-room.

—Papers in tapestry designs and various fabric reproductions.

We do first-class wall coloring, enameling and wood finishing. The Decorative Department, sixth floor.

High-Grade Upholstered Pieces

Wealth of Comfort and Style in these. See our Display for the Living Room and Library

The furnishing of the modern living-room and library leans strongly to the more luxuriously upholstered rest-giving pieces known to the furniture trade as "overstuffed." Superior workmanship, distinctiveness of style and no little degree of comfort is readily recognized in our splendid showing of high-grade upholstered furniture. Shown here are the large armchairs and rockers, davenport, reading chairs and fireside chairs—productions of leading makers of such pieces, such as the Century Furniture Company, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Nahon & Ginini, of New York; Mayhew Mfg. Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., and others. Most of these pieces are shown in denim coverings, and our line of upholstery materials affords the opportunity for making correct selection.
