McCredie's braves made it four straight from Oakland yesterday by again shutting Billy Reidy's team out by 4 to 0. Jesse Garrett was an unsolvable riddle to the visitors, and Young Dancke, one of the Commuters' recent recruits, was hit hard and received poor support in the first finning, when all the runs scored were tallied.

(67 78 84 90 113 114 541)

Cooney walked as first man up and stole second. Olson poped cut trying to sacrifice. Graney singled to left and Ote Johnson came near tearing Terry McKune's hands off with a terrific mash, on which Cooney scored. Mc-Credie walked and Johnson scored on l'ish . : hit to left. SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 2.—(Special.) Spokane, by defeating Portland today, won its 100th game. Brown's team now holds the record for the largest number of games ever won by a Spokane team.

Holm was invincible, and Portland was shut out. Armbruster, the stocky Colt catcher, was the only man to connect safely, landing two good, clean alts. The White Sox recruit was never better, everything breaking right for him. Portland had many opportunities, but Vic always had enough to pull him out with a whole skin. Not a Port-lander got past second base. Hagen, the little southpaw, got his second hard drubbing of the week. Weed's batting was a feature, a double, a single, a triple and a base on balls in his four trips to the plate. His two long hits were terrific drives, although an experienced left fielder might have got the first mighty swat, which hung in the air long enough for a faster man than Fournier to get back. Two nifty "squeeze" plays were pulled off by Spokane. James brought Altman home in the fifth and Ostdick scored home in the fifth and Ostdiek scored Burnett in the eighth, with a nicely placed bunt, working by signal.

The Portland team took a streak of wild throwing in the seventh, and had not Holm been caught asleep off second, the tribe might have scored many pages arms. Adams Armbruster and runs. Adams, Armbruster and all contributed wild heaves. more runs.
