

SOCIETY HAS GAY WEEK AT HORSE SHOW

SNAPSHOTS OF SOME SATURDAY MATINEE VISITORS—Continued From Page Three.

Refreshments and games closed a delightful evening.

On Tuesday night, Miss Mabel Bishop entertained at dinner Miss Helen Carroll, of this city, and Mrs. Murray Williams, late of San Francisco. Later in the evening a number of friends were present, and a very enjoyable time was spent, progressive whist being the feature of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Biglow, Mrs. Margaret Cox, Misses Blanche Reed, Helen Carroll, Florence Grossmeyer, Louise Lott, Mabel Bishop, Messrs. S. T. Reed, Fred Bishop, S. Murray Williams, Sidney Mosher, Karl Wilson and H. C. Giddings. Last Wednesday the Young Women's Society of St. Mary's Parish, Albina, held a reception for all the young women of the parish in the parlors of the Catholic Young Men's Club house. The evening was most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Schoep were tendered a complete surprise on the evening of October 4 by a few of their friends at the home of their daughter, Mrs. T. E. Tucker, 314 East Twentieth street. The occasion was the 29th anniversary of their wedding. The evening was spent in music and playing five hundred. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lampert won the family prize, a landscape etching in weathered oak frame. Refreshments were served to 14. Dining-room and table decorations were in maiden hair form and sweet brier. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Schoep, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lampert, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walker, Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Zadow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Tucker and little Roma Tucker.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, the members decided to continue the usual series of five at homes for the coming season, consisting of dancing, cards, billiards, refreshments, etc. Dr. C. C. Newcastle has been elected for a third term as chairman of the social committee, which committee has decided to have the first at home on Friday evening, October 23. By securing Dr. Newcastle as chairman in connection with his able and enthusiastic committee, it is practically assured that the coming season's parties will be even more elaborate and successful than those of the past. An A. & A. B. R. at home is considered among its members as their most enjoyable social event.

The first meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. A. A. Ball, 1514 Hawthorne avenue. There was a very interesting program. The members of the calendar committee briefly outlined the year's work. This is the club's sixth year for the study of English literature, bringing them now to the Victorian poets. At the close of the business meeting a very pleasant social hour was spent. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Hayes and Mrs. Harry Vorse, served refreshments. The next meeting of the club will be at the residence of Mrs. William F. Ames, 833 Hawthorne avenue, October 12, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Gill entertained at their home, 505 Mechanic street, Tuesday evening with a dinner party in compliment to Mrs. H. H. Bailey in celebration of her 89th birthday. The house was decorated in blue and white. Hydrangeas and vines were used as a centerpiece on the table. Covers were laid for 14. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bailey, Mrs. Harry Bailey, of Hood River; Mrs. J. H. Gill, of Hood River; Mrs. V. G. James, Miss Lee, of California; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lohman, Mrs. L. E. Renner, Mrs. G. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Gill.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club held its first meeting last Tuesday. Following is the membership: Mrs. R. W. Schmeer, Miss Bertie Baer, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss Henrietta Rothchild, Miss Ruby Archambault, Miss Ellen Driver, Miss H. C. Fixot, Miss Clea Nickerson, Miss Rosalind Kingsley, Mrs. W. G. Marshall, Miss Agnes McLaughlin, Miss Christina Denholm, Miss D. J. Collingham, Miss Ella Roy, Miss Estelle Stout, Miss Verne Ross, Miss Maureen Campbell, Miss Mabel Selover, Mrs. Rose Courten Reed, director.

Mrs. Florence Clark and Mrs. A. M. Lee entertained the Daughters of the Confederacy in the home of the former, 9 Ninth street North, Thursday afternoon. Members from other clubs were present, and every one enjoyed a delightful afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Duff read a very interesting paper on "The Life of Judge John H. Reagan" and a very instructive paper on "Georgia" was read by Mrs. Lee. The time and place for the next meeting will be announced later.

Rev. J. E. Snyder, pastor of Piedmont Presbyterian Church, will deliver a series of lectures during this month, as follows: This evening, "The Young Man and the Times"; October 17, "The Young Man and His Friends"; October 24, "The Young Man and His Future"; October 31, "The Young Man and His Soul." The services will open at 7:30 o'clock, with a 30-minute song service, led by Mrs. Ray Dedman, the new leader of the choir.

Mrs. R. P. Graham entertained the Portia Club last Tuesday afternoon at her home in Irvington. The rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and roses. After cards, in which Mrs. George W. Stapleton and Mrs. Clyde B. Atchison were winners, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Atchison, 657 Wasco street, Tuesday, October 19, at 2 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the Pastors' Aid Society of St. James' English Lutheran Church was held on Thursday afternoon at the beautiful new home of Mrs. George Brachy, in Roseway. Mrs. J. C. Brachy assisted. The home was beautifully decorated, and the attendance was perhaps the largest of the season, numbering 50 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Ballou, 609 Irving street, entertained with "500" Wednesday evening for Miss Sada Cass, of Lyons, Neb., who is visiting in the city. Those present were Messrs. Hickox, Bliss, Messrs. Bergen, Oviatt, Smith, Cass, Messrs. Hickox, Bliss, Bergen, Clifford Moore, Harry Moore, Tichnor, Smith.

Last Wednesday evening a delightful surprise party was given for Miss Ione Epperly at her home, in honor of her 18th birthday. About 20 guests were present and Miss Epperly was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Games and music were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. John R. Dodson, who has been in Circle, Alaska, the past year, arrived in Portland Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of 495 Holaday avenue.

WEDDINGS.

Wright-Hall.

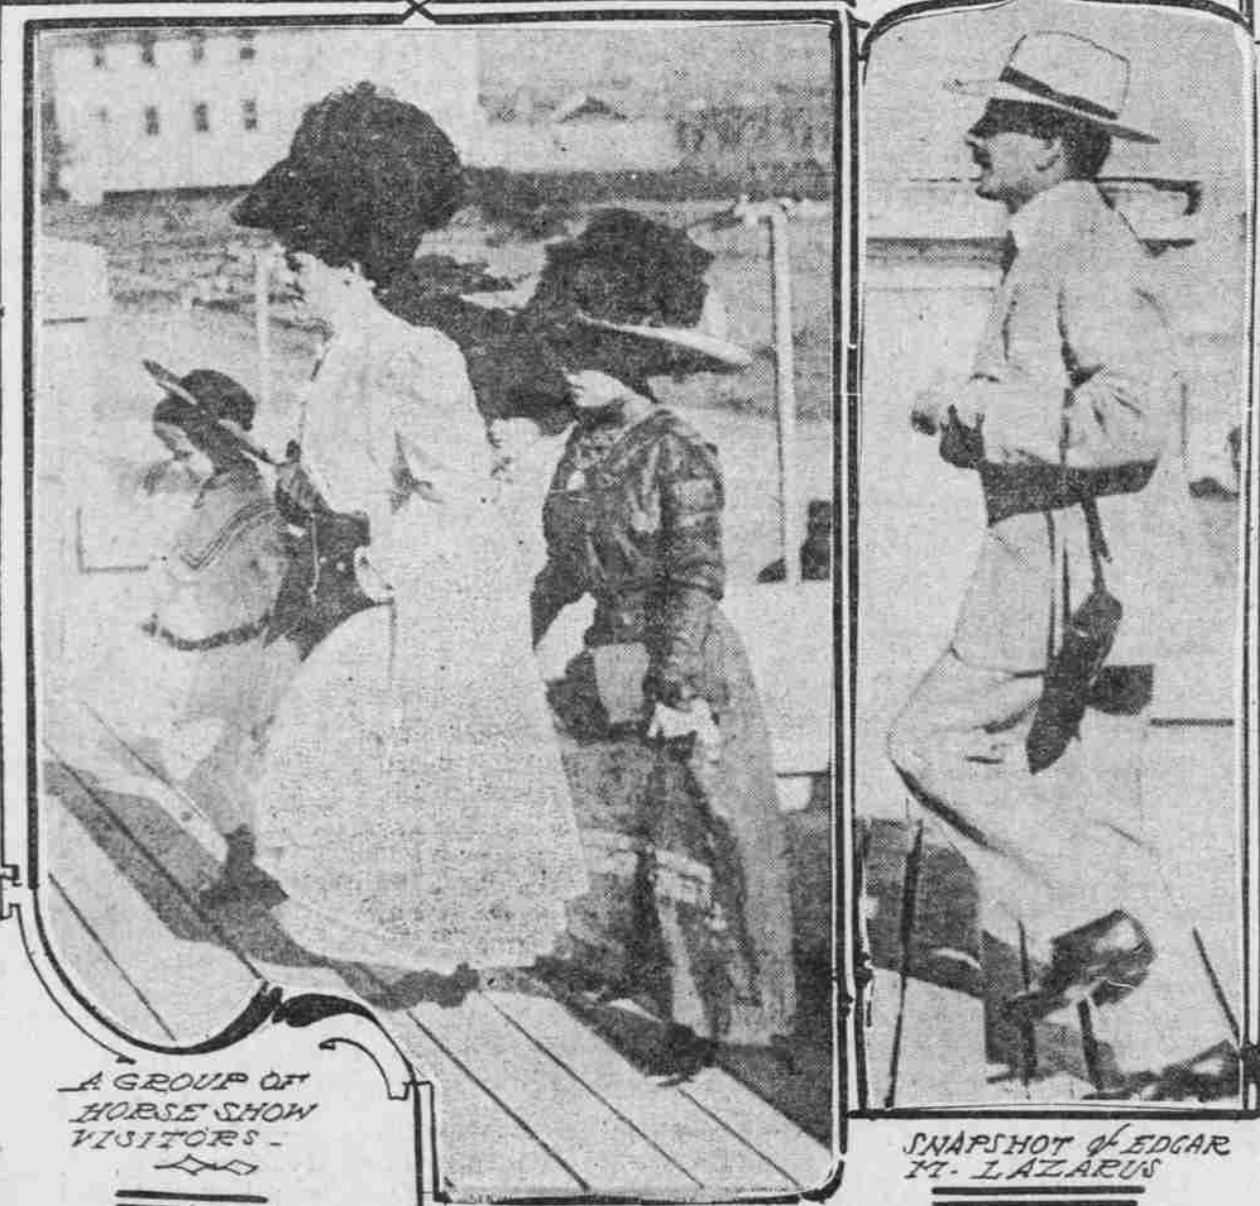

Miss Lisen Hall was united in marriage to Elmer M. Wright on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hall, at Lents. Rev. Mr. Powell, of the Episcopal Church, officiating. Only relatives were present.

ON THE WAY TO THE HORSE SHOW

PART OF THE MATINEE AUDIENCE

A GROUP OF HORSE SHOW VISITORS

SNAPSHOT OF EDGAR ST. LAZARUS

number about 20. The house was tastefully decorated, Oregon grapes and other fallings being used to give the room a white and green effects. The marriage ceremony was preceded by vocal solos, "Oh Promise Me" and "You Are Like Unto a Lovely Flower," sung by a quartet of the bride, Miss Eloise Hall, accompanied by Mrs. M. M. Hall, the bride's aunt, who also played the wedding march. Miss Georgia Hall, sister of the bride, dressed in white, carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride, dressed in white, carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride, dressed in white, carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride, dressed in white, carried a bouquet of white roses.

On Wednesday evening, September 22, at St. Paul German Lutheran Church, East Eighth and Falling streets, was solemnized the wedding of Miss Freda Ost, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ost, to Mr. Herman Jacobs.

The wedding march was played by Miss Orel Rose. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Elsie Barach, of Spokane, and Miss Marguerite Tannier. The groom was attended by Mr. William Ost, brother of the bride, and Mr. Fred Oblander. The ceremony was read by Rev. Mr. Herger, pastor of the church. The bride wore a white satin gown made on directoire lines. She wore a long white veil, with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were in white, and carried pink sweet peas. After the ceremony the wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, 1023 Mallory avenue. About 150 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsmeyer will be at home to their friends at 1023 Mallory avenue after October 1. No cards.

Manney-Harper.

On Wednesday night at 8 o'clock a beautiful wedding occurred at Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, when Walter F. Manney, of Seattle and Miss Lillie A. J. Harper, of Portland, were united in marriage by Dr. Clarence True Wilson.

The church was well filled with guests and the chancel was beautifully decorated in evergreen. Mr. and Mrs. Manney will spend two weeks on their honeymoon and then move to Seattle. The wedding party consisted of the following: L. Rosister, best man; Miss N. Wester, maid of honor, Miss Hazel Rosister, Miss Marie Draper, bridesmaids; Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Sarah Stone, Miss Crissy McPherson, Miss Pearl Hershey, Miss Rosa Griffith, Miss Marjorie Draper, Miss Spooner sang "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Hubert Banks played the wedding march. Master Romano Brand acted as ring bearer and Al Rosister gave the bride away.

Friedman-Gumbert.

A very pretty and quiet house wedding was solemnized last Sunday at 3 o'clock, when Miss Josephine Gumbert and Abe Friedman were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, which was artistically decorated. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Abrahamson, who officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents 27 years ago. Owing to the serious illness of the groom's mother, the wedding was a family affair. Miss Hilda

Becoming Utility Coats

The kind that are essential in this changeable climate for calling, shopping, traveling and general wear.

They are in the semi-fitting, Moynen-age models. Some have the long lapel effects, with the three buttons; others the shield front, or single-breasted style. Many have the new inverted plaits at the side and back, and large fancy patch-pockets.

They are of broadcloth, worsted, chevots, wide-wale serges and a variety of new mannish mixtures.

Colors—Greys, greens, Catawbas, tans, browns, navys, blacks, etc.

Prices $18, $20, $25, $30 Up to $55.

Also an excellent line of new double textured military capes in brown, gray, navy and black.

The Bartholomew Company

"The House of Tone"

400 Washington St., Corner Tenth

Cleaver & Havelick

Special Showing of

Tailor-Made Suits, $48.50

For women and misses, of English Worsteds, Broadcloths and Novelty Fabrics, all Silk Serge linings; cut, style, fabric and fit right. No better can be made. These suits, confined to us, not found else—$48.50 where in this city. Special.

Every piece of goods in our store new and up to the minute.

We feel sure we can please you in coats, suits, dresses, skirts, waists and automobile apparel. Call and get acquainted.

Cleaver & Havelick

CREATORS OF FOREMOST FASHIONS

409 Washington Street, Between Tenth and Eleventh

The Golden Eagle Soars Above Them All With Bigger, Better Bargains

Portland's Great Bargain Store

For the Great Working People

THIRD AND YAMHILL STREETS

$3 Untrimmed Shapes

The Kind Others Offer as Bargains at $1.39 and $1.49 Each. Monday for 98c

A great Millinery capture more than worth your attention!!! Over one hundred dozen silk and satin Untrimmed Shapes—every one the latest Fall model—in all colors and shades. Every desirable shape is represented in the lot, neat street shapes and ready-to-wear ones that others have sold as high as $3 and $4. These are the very shapes that are advertised and displayed in windows by our competitors as big bargains at $1.39 and $1.49. A sensational Monday bargain without peer or precedent; on sale Monday at this irresistibly low price, only... 98c

See Large Window Display of These Fine Shapes

Gumbert, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and the wedding march was rendered by Miss Ruby Silverfield. After a brief visit in Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Friedman will be at home to their friends at the Norton Hotel.

Armstrong-Knuth.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, on East Ninth street, was very attractively decorated Wednesday night, September 29, for the wedding of their daughter, Nellie Ione Armstrong, to Mr. Ernest D. Knuth, of Pacific County, Washington. The bride, in a beautiful gown of white satin, walked with her father, attended by her sister, Miss Edna Armstrong, while the best man was Mr. Leland Armstrong. The service was performed by Rev. James D. Corby, pastor of the First Universalist Church.

Labowitch-Brownlee.

A pretty wedding took place Sunday, October 3, at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. S. L. Cohen, of 291 Seventh street, when Miss Frances Brownlee, formerly of San Francisco, was united in marriage to Louis Labowitch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert H. Abrahamson, and many members of the congregation were present.

(Continued on Page 5.)

FLOWERS

AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS

287 Morrison St.

FREE

Mary T. Goldman's Gray Hair Restorer

restores original color in mild, beautiful manner. It is a new discovery, entirely different from any other hair restorer. It is sold in small bottles for 50c. Do not be deceived by cheap imitations. It is the only hair restorer that is pure and clear as water. Don't experiment—use what thousands of others have found safe and satisfactory. Sample and comb absolutely free. Write to mention original color of your hair. MARY T. GOLDMAN, 285 Madison St., St. Paul, Minn. Full size bottles 50c. For sale by Skidmore Drug Co., Woodward, Clarke & Co.

R. F. PRESCOTT & CO. ENGRAVING.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS, CALLING CARDS, ETC.

271 1-2 Morrison Street

Portland Oregon