Expression in Playing

Expression is the difference between soulful and mechanical music.

The music of the pianist who plays without expression becomes tiresome; likewise the mechanical music of some player-pianos.

The A. B. Chase "Artistano," when played by music roll, is capable of as many shades of expression as it is when played by hand by a trained musician. In both cases it responds perfectly to every touch of the performer.

The question is sometimes asked, "How can I, a music lover, but untaught in music, know how to interpret with the 'Artistano?'"

This is the answer:
Look at a sheet of music. Note the signs denoting the varying shades of expression between fast and slow, loud and soft, short and sustained.

All told, there are not many of them and they may be learned easily.

Each of these signs is clearly explained in a booklet called "Expression and Playing," issued by the makers of that most human of player-pianos, the A. B. Chase

"ARTISTANO"

This booklet also explains how to reproduce these expressions by the use of the pedals and expression levers. It is all so simple that a short acquaintance with the booklet and the "Artistano" enables even the musically uneducated to enter into the inner enjoyments of the world's best music.

See the "Artistano" at first hand and become initiated into pleasures you thought never to experience.

We sell both the "Artistano" and regular A. B. Chase pianos.

Easy terms of ownership may be arranged.

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman with Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Which She Used with Most Remarkable Results.

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy, so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious, and from my own experience I can not too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures I finally found a simple prescription which I used with most remarkable results, and I can unhesitatingly state that it is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it and obtained wonderful effects therefrom. It not only stops the most wonderful thing to the growth of the hair, and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition; it also makes the hair much easier to comb and arrange in any form. I have a friend who used it two months, and during that time it not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all his gray hair to its natural color. You can obtain the ingredients for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows:

Bay rum, 6 ozs.; Menthol crystals, one-half drachm; Lavone de Compose, 2 ozs.; To-Kalon perfume, 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls.

Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp.

Go to your druggist and ask for an eight-ounce bottle containing six ounces of bay rum; also one-half drachm of Menthol crystals, and for a two-ounce bottle of Lavone de Compose. Mix the ingredients yourself in your own home. Add the Menthol crystals to the bay rum and then pour Lavone de Compose, and add the To-Kalon perfume. Let it stand for one-half hour and it is ready for use.
