Russian Finance Minister and Prince Ito to Confer on Deal-If Syndicate Buys, Manchuria May Be Buffer State.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.-Russian and foreign diplomatic circles ascribe great importance to the meeting at Harbin on October 25 of M. Kokovsoff, the Russian Minister of Finance, and Prince Ito, president of the Privy Council of Japan, although the exact motives impelling Japan are not known. The Subjects to be discussed were not becaused in the Japanese overtures. The subjects to be discussed were not suggested in the Japanese overtures, and M. Kokovsoff, in accepting the invitation to meet Prince Ito, barred political questions. He said that he was pompetent to discuss only financial and technical subjects, these covering the status of the Manchurian railroads, which have proved such a financial involve.

The Japanese proposal to purchase the por-tion of the railroads remaining in Rus-sia's hands might be entertained by Russia, owing to internal complications, but, although it is understood Japan is ready to make offers, the Russian gov-ernment is disposed to look with favor on a proposition for sale of the Man-churian lines either to China, financed by an international syndicate, or to such a syndicate direct.

syndicate direct.

It is authoritatively stated that overtures for the purchase of the lines were made during the Summer by a group of financiers with which E. H. Harriman was connected, but these have lapsed since Mr. Harriman's death.

The railroads which may be sold include both the main line and the southern branch from Harbin to Port Arthur. The Russian title runs for about 28 years, after which it passes to China. Only China's lack of finances preyented only China's lack of finances prevented earlier negotiations for the transfer of the title before its date of expiration, both Russia and China having agreed to

Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of which Mrs. Ladd was a lifelong member, last night paid the following tribute to the deceased:

"Any word that I might say concerning the Christian life and character of the late Mrs. W. S. Ladd would fall short of the mark. The beautiful simplicity of her faith, coupled with the gracious unostentation of her works will ever be an inspiration to those who knew her. Intense loyalty to the church and in particular its great mischurch and in particular its great mis-sionary concerns, characterized her life. Though well past the allotted age, life. Though well past the allotted age, she was unusually keen and forceful in the grasp of affairs. We are all inexpressibly shocked by the tidings of her death, yet we feel that it is only the glorious sunset of a wonderful day. Her labors surely follow with her."
