

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

CONTINUED FROM PAGE THREE.

Last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Ernest A. Sommer in her home on the river at Oregon City. The house was decorated in patriotic colors, intermingled with Oregon grape and cut flowers. During the afternoon Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brooks sang Bartlett's "Douglas, Tender and True." Tea was served in the dining-room.

A very successful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blaesing last Saturday night. They have lately moved into their new home in Rose City Park and their neighbors to the number of 50 guests then a house warming, starting bonfires on the street and spreading a bountiful supper inside. The evening was passed in dancing and singing.

On Wednesday evening, November 3, Clan Macleay, No. 122, Order of Scottish Clans, will give a Halloween concert in the W. O. W. Hall, Tenth and Taylor streets. The leading local talent is being drawn upon for the entertainment and an enjoyable evening is promised. The concert will be followed by a dance.

A chorus of 35 girls' voices have been formed at the Washington High School, with Evelyn Spencer, president; Irene Wentz, vice-president; Florence Lewis, secretary; Vera Clawson, treasurer; Mrs. Rose Courten, Reed, director. This club is under the management of Miss Hannah Schlotth.

Mrs. S. G. Allen entertained the daughters of the Clatsop Club at a beautiful home at 184 East Thirtieth street on Thursday afternoon. Instead of a programme the women made arrangements to give a ball in November. The date of the next meeting will be announced later.

The Rose City Park Birthday Club entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. D. L. Russell. The ladies each made a doll and dressed it during the afternoon. These are to be sent to the Baby Home.

The East and West Side Kaffeeklatch Card Club held its first party of the season on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gustav Henne. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. Marsch and Mrs. F. Jennings.

WEDDINGS.

Tremaine-Chandler.

The wedding of Miss Helen Sutton Chandler and Harry Guy Tremaine was solemnized on Thursday morning at St. Stephen's Pro-cathedral at 11 o'clock. Rev. H. M. Rader officiated, the service, which was attended by only the immediate relatives and friends. Plans had been made originally for an elaborate wedding and reception later, but because of an urgent business trip that Mr. Tremaine had to make for several months an earlier date was chosen.

The bride, who is a decided blond, was most attractive in a wedding gown of the new pattern with high collar, and carrying Golden Gate roses. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chandler, of San Francisco, but formerly of Marshfield, Or., and is a sister of Irving, William and B. R. Chandler, all young college men at the U. of O. Mrs. Tremaine's grandparents were conspicuously identified with the wedding party, both Oregon and California, William Irving (now deceased) being one of the founders of Portland for whom Irving street was named. The late R. D. Chandler, also grandfather, was a well known man of San Francisco. The bride was a former student at St. Helen's Hall, and very popular with the younger set. She has frequently visited here as the guest of Miss Helen Doble.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chandler, who came up for the wedding, have been entertained during their stay by Mrs. S. Doble, on Irving street. Mr. Tremaine is a young business man of Bellingham, Wash., where they will reside. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Tremaine left for an extended visit in the East. En route they will meet Miss Doble in Denver, where she is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hilliard.

Watson-Hector.

The Dalles.—A beautiful and impressive ceremony took place at 1 P. M. Sunday, October 17, at St. Peter's Catholic Church, when Miss Elizabeth Louise Hector, a native daughter of this city, and Elmer Robert Watson, of Goldendale, Wash., were united in marriage. Rev. Father Alphons Brongest officiating.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. C. Hector, to the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Aaron Traube. She made a charming picture in a gown of white messaline in train, cut on princess lines, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Her full-length veil was held in place by a diamond sunburst, a gift of the groom. Her only attendant was Miss Emma Maguire, of Portland, who was attired in Alice-blue messaline and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Daniel Hector, a brother of the bride, was best man. During the ceremony Miss Mary Graham sang the Ave Maria with pleasing effect.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, 1005 Bluff street, which was largely attended. The decorations were pleasing and artistic, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out all through. Many beautiful and costly gifts were received.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Anna Watson and Mrs. James Richardson, mother and sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hector, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cahill, all of Goldendale; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tobin and daughter, Mrs. Sabina, of North Yakima, and Mrs. Felix Maguire and daughter, Miss Emma, of Portland.

Rawlinson-Jones.

Surrounded by immediate relatives and friends, Miss Laura May Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jones, was united in marriage to J. W. E. Rawlinson, at the home of the bride's parents, 22 Clackamas street, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Dawson, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The parlors were tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and autumn leaves. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Willard R. Jones, the bridal party entered. The bride was attired in white organdy and a full-length veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Mrs. C. B. Johnson, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore apricot voile over silk and carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums. E. W. Jones, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride is a graduate of the musical department of the Annie Wright Seminary, of Tacoma, and the groom is a successful young business man and a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rawlinson, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rawlinson have gone to San Francisco for a fortnight's stay.

Johnson-Crook.

A prominent wedding of the week was that of Miss Corinne Crook and Harold Johnson, which occurred on Monday evening at the White Temple. Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, J. M. Crook, was beautifully gowned in white directoire, hand-embroidered and trimmed with braided net which had formed a part of her mother's wedding gown. Sprays of orange blossoms held in place a tulle veil, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Hazel Crook, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Helen Worrell, of Medford, was bridesmaid, both these attendants wearing pink silk chiffon frocks and carrying pink carnations. Bert Beckwith acted as best man, and Harper Jamison, E. Milton Runyan, Elmer E. Young, Harry Swart, Roy Johnson, Bert Johnson and Harry Gamble were ushers. The pulpit of the church was decorated with autumn leaves and palms lighted with white tapers. Mrs. Katherine Johnson played the organ for the ceremony, and Miss Lina Linehan sang "Because." A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the groom's father, at 322 Clackamas street. Here the hall and reception-room were attractively decorated with Oregon grape, autumn leaves and pink roses. The dining-room was done exclusively in pink. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crook received with the bridal party, while Miss Angela McQuinn and Miss Louise Killingsworth served punch. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have gone to San Francisco and Los Angeles, and will be at home in Portland in about a month.

PORTLAND GIRL RECENTLY MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA.

MRS. ARTHUR WAYLAND WRIGHT, FORMERLY MISS ALADDIN BUXEY.

Burghardt-Draper.

The marriage of William H. Burghardt, Jr., to Miss Martha Frances Draper was solemnized last Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother at Oregon City. Rev. A. Hillebrand, of St. John's Catholic Church, officiating. The Draper home was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and trailing grapes, and beautiful candelabra gave a soft light to the rooms. Before the ceremony Miss Louise Huntley played the wedding march, and Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brooks sang Grieg's "Ich Liebe Dich." Miss Lulu Draper rendered "McLennan's" wedding march as the bride entered the parlors on the arm of her brother, Harry E. Draper, and was preceded by her bridesmaids—Miss Laura Pope, crowned in yellow messaline and carrying violets, and Miss Clara Barclay Pratt, who wore white lace over yellow silk and carried white roses. Miss Draper wore an empire gown of white messaline, trimmed with gold thread and lace. Her tulle veil was caught up with a pearl brooch, the gift of the groom, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The ceremony was witnessed only by the family and immediate friends of the bride and groom. Punch and ices were served in the dining-room, and Mr. and Mrs. Burghardt left Wednesday evening for Southern Oregon, where they will spend their honeymoon, and then return to Salem, where Mr. Burghardt is in business. The bride is an accomplished musician, and has many friends in Portland and Oregon City.

Dingle-Sylvester.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Etta Sylvester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Sylvester, who was married on Thursday evening, October 14, to George R. Dingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Dingle. Dr. D. S. Rader read the service. The bride was crowned with cream silk messaline, and carried a shower bouquet of roses, caught with white tulle. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Sylvester, who wore a pastel shade of blue messaline, and carried white chrysanthemums. The groom's attendant was V. G. Letch. The parlors were beautifully decorated with greens, palms and cut flowers. The bridal party standing under a canopy of white asters and ivy. Miss Florence Jones and S. Sylvester rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Dingle are at home at 914½ East Morrison street.

Froom-Lawson.

A pretty wedding occurred Thursday evening, October 21, at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawson, East Seventy-ninth and East Flanders streets, when Ambrose C. Froom and Miss Mildred E. Lawson were united in marriage by Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church. The combined celebration of the first occupation of the handsome new residence, together with the wedding, afforded an exceedingly happy event for friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Froom left Friday for South America.

Burgoyne-Houston.

Miss Beas Louise Houston and Oscar Burgoyne were married at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Hillsboro, Rev. Dr. Welch, of the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church, conducting the service. The bride was attended by Miss Josie Stapleton, of Portland, while Asher Houston was best man. The bride wore her traveling gown.

SILVER WEDDING OF COUPLE CELEBRATED AT TUALATIN

DR. AND MRS. AUGUST C. SCHROEDER.

The silver wedding of Dr. and Mrs. August C. Schroeder was celebrated among a number of their most intimate friends last Sunday at the Schroeder home at Tualatin, Or. Both Dr. Schroeder and Mrs. Schroeder were born in Germany. They came to America when young and were married in Chicago, Ill., in 1884. A few years later the couple moved to Portland. The doctor is a graduate of the Willamette University medical department, class of 1897. Present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Rabenick, Mr. and Mrs. Dahm, Mr. and Mrs. Senn, Misses Agnes and Katie Senn, Carl Senn, Mr. and Mrs. Meybrunn, Carl Muller, of Portland; L. Sagert and family and Mrs. Potts, of Tualatin.

We have just received from London a stock of "BURBERRY" and "AQUASCUTUM" Raincoats for men and women. These coats are thoroughly proofed, porous, all wool, practical and becoming, and ALWAYS IN STYLE. They combine ease and comfort with grace and utility. Made in various weights, exclusive designs and colorings, and especially adapted to this climate. Undoubtedly the most useful coats on the market today. May be worn on all occasions.

K. S. Ervin & Co., Limited.

Sole Agents for Oregon and Idaho.

Premises—Corner Third and Alder Sts.

The floral decorations of the Houston home were a tasteful arrangement of roses and ferns. The wedding was almost entirely a family affair, besides the immediate members of the family those present including Miss Stapleton and Miss Mabel Becker, of Portland, and Mrs. Philip Matthews, of Roseburg. Following the marriage, the christening of John Asher Houston, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Asher Houston, took place, Mrs. Louise Riggs, the great grandmother, standing sponsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgoyne will reside in Forest Grove.

Hicks-McConnell.

Wednesday evening, October 20, Miss Ethel McConnell and Claude E. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hicks, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McConnell, 504 East Twenty-ninth street. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational Church. Miss Bernice Sears, of McMinnville, was maid of honor and Mack Snell, an uncle of the groom, was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary McConnell and Miss Lucile Hicks, sisters of the bride and groom. Little Dorothy Kirkpatrick Farmer acted as flower girl. Miss Dorothy Fraser played a violin solo and Miss Clementine Campbell sang two songs. Miss Dorothy Fraser and Miss Mary McConnell rendered a violin duet, accompanied on the piano by Miss Genevieve Fraser. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will be at home after November 1 at 507 Tacoma avenue.

Held-Cochran.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spady, 638 Brooklyn street, Wednesday evening at 8:30, Mr. A. G. Hall and Margaret E. Cochran were united in marriage. Rev. E. E. Culver officiating. The wedding was a quiet one and came as a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Held's friends and acquaintances, for while there had been some rumors, all seemed to think that the time was not yet.

After the ceremony the wedding party sat down to a bountifully-laden table arranged by Mrs. Spady.

Mr. Held is a member of the firm of Held & Knappbaum.

The bride's parents reside at Amity, Or., but she has been making her home with her sister in this city.

Hall-Daniels.

The wedding of Miss Marguerite Daniels to Harold Morris Hall took place the evening of October 21 at 8:30 o'clock, at Vancouver, Wash. Rev. Otis E. Gray, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, officiating. The bride is a daughter of the late W. Byron Daniels, who for many years was a leading attorney of the Clark County bar. The bridegroom was formerly a resident of Vancouver, and is now in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company as a supervising engineer, being a graduate of Berkeley, Cal. He was graduated from the Vancouver High School, and also from Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside in Corte Madera, Cal.

Smith-Meyer.

Rev. H. S. Black, of the Second Baptist Church, officiated at the wedding of Ray F. Smith and Ada Meyer Thursday night at the home of the bride's mother, 503 Hawthorne avenue. Mr. Smith is in the Southern Pacific Railroad office at Brooklyn. A number of relatives and friends were present at the ceremony and spent the evening in a delightful way. The bride's brother, Oscar Meyer, and Miss Jose Hubbard, attended the couple.

Miles-Distin.

At the residence of the bride's father, V. E. Campbell, 772 Thurman street, occurred the wedding of Miss V. E. Miles and Walter J. Distin on October 22. Rev. Charles T. McPherson, pastor of the Epworth Methodist Church, officiated. Only immediate relatives and friends witnessed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Miles will be at home after October 27 at 772 Thurman street.

Miles-Campbell.

A very pretty home wedding took place at noon Friday at the residence of V. E. Campbell, 772 Thurman street, when V. E. Miles and Walter J. Distin were married. Rev. Charles T. McPherson, officiating.

Nonken-Murphy.

J. D. Nonken and Mrs. Ada R. Murphy were united in marriage on Monday night at the lodge rooms, Williams avenue and Russell street. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, of Centenary Church.

Bennett-McLean.

The marriage ceremony of Alonzo Bennett and Josephine Emma McLean was performed by Dr. Clarence True Wilson at the Centenary parsonage, 644 East Ankeny street, on Wednesday, October 20.

Howard-Angell.

Scott Howard, of Junction City, and Miss Ethel Angell, of Portland, were married in the reception room of the White Temple, Saturday noon, October 16, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Marshall-Anderson.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson united in matrimony Dr. J. R. Marshall, of Hillsboro, and Miss Ella Anderson, of this city, on Wednesday, October 20, at the Centenary parsonage, 644 East Ankeny street.

Stevens-Anderson.

On September 17, at Cordova, Alaska, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Whit-

FURS! FURS! FURS!

At Introductory Prices

Owing to a fortunate purchase by Fraley's buyer (who was formerly buyer for one of the largest fur concerns on the Coast) they were enabled to add an elegant line of fur muffs, scarfs, neckpieces, turbans, etc., to their usual trade.

Much time and energy in New York was devoted to the careful selection of these furs direct from the manufacturers, most of them being chosen as skins and made to order, thereby securing the best possible results at lowest prices.

"Goods guaranteed as represented." This is the Fraley policy, and it applies especially to these furs. Every one guaranteed to be exactly as represented.

NOTE THESE PRICES—

Regular.	Special.	Regular.	Special.
$ 1.50 Small Coney Scarf.....	1.15	$15.00 Im. Lynx Set (pillow muff and scarf).....	$11.90
2.50 Larger Coney Scarf.....	1.95	10.00 Im. Lynx Stole, with head and tails.....	7.90
3.00 Larger Coney Tie.....	2.35	20.00 Im. Lynx Set (rug muff and stole with tails).....	15.85
3.50 3-skin Coney Boa.....	2.75	11.00 Caracul Set (muff and tie).....	8.75
5.00 Russian Stole.....	3.95	20.00 Persian Paw Set (tie and muff).....	15.85
6.50 Russian Stole with heads.....	5.15	15.00 Real Jap Mink Scarf.....	11.90
6.75 Muskrat Scarf.....	5.30	20.00 Real Jap Mink Tie.....	15.85
7.00 Marmot, with heads.....	5.45	27.50 Real Jap Mink Stole (with tails and paws).....	21.00
7.50 Muskrat Scarf, with tails.....	5.90	30.00 Fox Stole.....	22.40
10.00 Marmot Stole, with heads.....	7.90	50.00 Jap Mink Set.....	33.00
12.00 Opussum Stole, with heads and tail, black or brown.....	9.50	80.00 Extra Fancy Jap Mink Set.....	49.00
15.00 Marmot Stole, fancy, with heads and tails.....	11.90	60.00 Real Lynx Sets.....	39.50
10.00 Opussum Pillow Muff.....	7.90
12.00 Opussum Rug Muff, black or brown.....	9.50

FUR TURBANS

Specially Priced From $1.15 up to $7.90

Fraley Brothers

Portland Headquarters for Hats of Distinction

212-14 Third St., Corner Salmon

Practical Suits Exquisitely Tailored

This illustration is an exact reproduction of one of our handsome man-tailored models.

We have an unusually complete range of these suits in all Fall and Winter styles and colors, in sizes ranging from the very small to the extra large. The materials, styles and workmanship of these suits leave nothing to be desired.

They are of homespun, wide-wale serges, mannish mixtures, chevots and broadcloth.

Prices, $22.50, $25, $30, $45 and Up

The Bartholomew Company

"The House of Tone"

400 Washington Street, Corner Tenth

Mr. Allen S. Young united in marriage with Miss Irene E. Anderson. Mr. Stevens was formerly a resident of Seattle. Mrs. Stevens was formerly a Portland girl, having been the sister of Mrs. B. Anderson, of Beaverton, and a sister of Miss Beatrice Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left on the outgoing boat for Valdez, Alaska, where they will reside.

Adams-Everett.

Ralph W. Adams and Miss E. Gertrude Everett, both of Portland, were married at 1800 East Morrison street, Saturday afternoon, October 16, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Houck, of 392 East Sixth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Effie Blanche, to Simeon S. Williamson. The wedding is to be solemnized on the evening of October 27, at the residence of the bride's parents.

COMING EVENTS.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club has reorganized for the year and will have its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, the director, on November 2. The chief work of the club

Portland. San Francisco. Seattle

Lennon's
FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS

Specialists in
GLOVES—UMBRELLAS
HOSIERY
for MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Only the Best Merchandise to be had here. Lennon's entire chain of stores is back of every article sold by Lennon's.

A Special Sale
MONDAY
"Onyx" and Lennon's "Laurel" Brand of Women's Black Lisle and Cotton Hose.

50c Values 35c Pair—3 Pair $1.00

Lennon's
FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS

On September 17, at Cordova, Alaska, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Whit-

Special High-Class Tailored Suits

Values to $40, Monday at $24.80

All recent arrivals in high-class suits, broadcloths, worsteds, serges, homespun and diagonals, long coat models, Skinner satin and silk serge lined; every new color represented; all sizes.

Values to $40.00, special Monday and all week as long as they last at $24.80

Swan & Winkler Co.

415 Washington Street, Corner Eleventh