LAND WANTED FOR PARK-I. S. Daue, A. L. Keenan, A. L. Barbur and W. T. Fleakes, representing the Brooklyn Re-A. L. Keenan, A. L. Barbur and W. T. Fleakes, representing the Brooklyn Re-publican and Improvement Club, called on Mayor Simon Friday and laid before him a request that the main portion of the 35, acres, belonging to the city, on Powell and Milwaukis streets, be made a park. At present a large frame build-ing stands in the middle of the tract and the runainder of the ground is used for storing water pipes. The committee, asked that the ground be cleared and then filed up to the street level. A city barn will be built adjoining the engine-house facing Powell street, but there will was suggested that the vacant ground at the Water Board at its next meeting. It was suggested that the vacant ground at the South Mount Tabor reservoir might be used for storing pipe in place of the tract at Powell and Milwaukie streets. BURGLARY IS ATTEMPTED.-A burglar

BURGLARY IS ATTEMPTED -A burglar ntered the home of R. G. Brown, at 611 East Couch street, yesterday morning at 2 c'clock, but was folled in his attempt to rob the house, and narrowly escaped being captured by Mr. Brown. The bur-giar entered through the pantry window, which had been left unfastened. He then which had been left unfinitened. He then removed his shoes and after opening the front door so he could escape easily, he went up stairs into the bedroom where Mr. and Mrs. Brown were sleeping. Mrs. Brown was swakened and saw the visitor standing in the room. Mr. Brown sprang after the fellow, but was too slow. Plung-ing down the stairway, the burglar ran through the door and disappeared just as Mr. Brown reached the door with a gun.

Mr. Brown reached the door with a gun. The burglar left a fairly good pair of shoes. Nothing was missing from the house. SANTFARIUM PATIENT ESCAPES. - Tom Martin, an Irishman, & years old, an inmate of the Crystal Springs Sanitarium, oscaped from that institution yesterday and appealed to the pollee for protec-tion. He said he was being abused and persecuted by his guards and that treat-ments of electricity given him were ad-ministered so strong that he suffered greatly and could get no abatement of the abuse. Captain of Pollee Balley ques-tioned the man and found he was ap-parently suffering from delusions and
