We are determined that the volume of business the next week shall equal that of any previous week of this wonderful sale. Considering that the selling capacity of our organization has been taxed to its very limit every day during the past two weeks, this is setting a high mark; but we are positive that the great reductions that have been made upon the balance of the goods will surely bring about the desired result. You will never have an opportunity to buy high-grade desirable merchandise to greater advantage than is offered here tomorrow and during this sale.

The trim throughout every department in our store, as well as in our show windows, will present a wonderful panorama of bargains tomorrow and every day this week. As fast as reduced lots are sold, new ones will be brought forth marked at prices that will sell them at sight.
