WOODMERE GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF SEATTLE MAN.

MR. AND MRS. NEWMAN J. FARNSWORTH

In the presence of a few relatives Miss Helen M. Cornell and Newman J. Farnsworth were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cornell, in Woodmere, Wednesday evening, October 20, Rev. E. M. Sharp, pastor of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, officiating. The parlor was tastefully decorated in chrysanthemums, roses and cut flowers. The bride was robed in white, trimmed with elaborate bands of handsome daisies and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. J. F. Valentine, a sister of the bride, played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth took the mid-night train for Seattle, where the groom is connected with the depot office of the Northern Pacific Express Company. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth will be at home to their friends after November 1.

Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. George O. Matheson, East Thirty-eighth and East Harrison streets, the occasion being the birthday of her daughter, Miss Mabel West, Oregon grape, Autumn leaves and flowers were used with charming effect in the house and table decorations.
