

Powers' Sales of Thanksgiving Needs

Powers' Store News today concerns itself to a great degree with things for the dining-room—things that are needed to make celebration of Thanksgiving a conspicuous success. Portland people have much to be thankful for—a delightful climate, superb scenery, healthful surroundings, continued prosperity—and this store.

Though the latter claim may seem egotistical at first thought, a cursory analysis will show that it's absolutely true. Powers' stands between you and high furniture prices—Powers' maintain a credit system that stands alone in its fairness—Powers' places you in a position to secure a cozily furnished home at a small outlay of ready cash—Powers' allows you to make your own terms as to the final payments—Powers' does not crowd you if through untoward circumstances you can't meet your obligations at the agreed time.

Now don't you think that the Portland public has many reasons for feeling thankful for the existence of "Powers, the store that saves you money?"
