

DANES ALONE TO BE COOK'S JUDGES

Will Not Allow Geographic Society to Take Part in Examination.

LET OTHERS COME LATER

After Decision on Records Has Been Reached, Others May See and Judge, but No Help Is Needed Now.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 6.—The constatory of the University of Copenhagen declines to accept the proposal of the National Geographic Society that a committee representing the American body be present when the North Pole records of Dr. Cook are first examined.

ALL GEOGRAPHERS ASKED

Did Not Expect to See Records Till Danes Examined Them.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Henry Gannett, vice-president of the National Geographic Society, and a member of the committee which upheld Peary's claim, declined today to discuss the Danish University's refusal to receive a committee from the society at the formal examination of Dr. Cook's records.

Several hours after the receipt of its cablegram from the University of Copenhagen, the society issued the following: "The cablegram from the National Geographic Society to the University of Copenhagen has been misunderstood. The society did not desire to participate with the university authorities or sit in judgment with them on Dr. Cook's claim nor did the society desire to anticipate the university by seeing the papers first. The society has been informed by Dr. Cook that only copies of the record would be sent to it."

Reticent on Danes' Refusal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Henry Gannett, vice-president of the National Geographic Society, and a member of the committee which upheld Peary's claim, declined today to discuss the Danish University's refusal to receive a committee from the society at the formal examination of Dr. Cook's records.

MEDIUM COMES TO GRIEF

German Police Put Stop to Woman's Preying on Superstitious Rich.

THEY GOT OUT.

Last Sunday, you know, it rained, but in the afternoon a large crowd took advantage of the lull and went to Alameda Park, going to Twenty-second and Thompson streets on Broadway cars, where free autos met them. You had best do the same Sunday, November 7. You won't be sorry if you go. Free auto service from 1:30 P. M. to 5 P. M. at points mentioned. Everyone talking about Alameda Park and those who have seen the tract cannot say enough good about it.

reer of the medium, Frau Abend, who has been for years imposing on many affectionate souls in the very highest circles of the capital. The "Good Frau Abend," as her admirers called her, held seances at her humble apartments in a poor part of the city, but she had also a lucrative salon practice in the fashionable west end. One present describes a sitting in the house of an officer of high rank, the possessor of the Iron Cross, and the husband of an exceptionally clever wife, where the spirits of dead relatives were summoned, and, having reported themselves by the customary series of knocks, appeared nebulously behind a gauze screen.

JOHNSON KNOCKED OUT

CONTRACTOR STOPS CHAMPION WITH UPPER CUT.

Burly Native of Green Isle Sends Black Bully to Dreamland in Saloon Brawl.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Everybody takes a running jump on Jack Johnson except in the prize ring. Constables, policemen and trainers take a crack at the colored champion, the latest being a burly Irish contractor of this city, named Tom Carney, who sent Lyle Artia to dreamland with one punch and made his getaway, traveling on four cylinders, when he learned the identity of his victim.
