

MRS. JOHN K. KOLLOCK, A PROMINENT MATRON, TAKEN AT THE AGE OF FOUR YEARS.

MRS. JAMES CANBY, WIFE OF MAJOR CANBY, TAKEN AT THE AGE OF FOUR.

NOT in many months has an engagement of more interest been announced than that of Miss Margaret Walter and Mr. Joseph Man-ton Bradley, of Providence, R. I., which was told yesterday morning to both friends and relatives. Miss Walter is one of the most prominent girls in society. She is a handsome demi-blonde, and has a charming manner. The news came as a delightful surprise, and was the occasion for sending quantities of flowers. Mr. Bradley, who arrived from the East a few years ago, has been very prominently identified among the popular bachelors. Miss Walter is a member of an old pioneer family, being a granddaughter of the late William Sherlock. She is a sister of Mrs. Benjamin Holman and William Walter, and a niece of the Misses Charlotte and Anne Sherlock. Mrs. Oscar Huber, Mrs. D. Mesick and Mrs. Otto Breyman. Mr. Bradley's mother and two sisters, the Misses Alice and Margaret, visited in Portland last summer, and were the motive for a round of dinner, teas and luncheons.

The assemblies are among the very smart events on the tapis. Contrary to former years, there will be but two dances, which, however, will be elaborate affairs, the first to be given December 10 at the Portland Hotel, and the final one at the Masonic Temple. The committee on arrangements this year includes Raymond Wilcox, Kurt Koehler and Kenneth Beebe.

On Wednesday evening, at Marlark Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gauld will be hosts at the first large private dancing party of the winter season, and at that time Miss Isabelle Gauld will make her debut. Miss Gauld has been a favorite among the younger set. Only last year she returned from Smith College, where she was one of the most popular graduates.

Miss Margaret Montgomery left on Thursday for an indefinite visit in New York with her sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Frisell, also with friends who are coming over from Europe for a month's visit in Gotham.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus A. Fleischner's residence has been ablaze with beautiful flowers ever since their return from Europe, and on Wednesday the announcement of Miss Fleischner's engagement to Mr. Henry Metzger occasioned the sending of an augmented profusion of blossoms. The engagement came as a pleasant surprise, as both Miss Fleischner and Mr. Metzger are very popular. Miss Fleischner is the possessor of a charming soprano voice, and Mr. Metzger is also musical and a clever amateur actor. He is the only child of Herman Metzger. On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner will be at home in honor of their daughter, and will be assisted in receiving by Miss Florence Jacobs, Miss Miriam Jacobs, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Florence Kohn and Mrs. Joseph E. Wise (Helen Rosenfeld).

On Wednesday, Miss Ella Hirsch and Miss Mae Hirsch will entertain for Mrs. and Miss Fleischner with bridge. Mrs. W. D. Washburn, of Minneapolis, who will be remembered as Miss Florence Sawyer, will arrive to visit Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Jones, January 1.

Mrs. Frank Warren, Sr., was the hostess at a luncheon of 12 covers, Wednesday, November 3, to which were asked Mrs. Donald Mackay, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Henry Mason, Miss Ruth Hawkins, Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. J. H. Page, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Anna B. Thompson and Mrs. William Honeyman.

The French Fete, to be given at the Baker Theatre in future performances, December 3-4, is attracting much interest, the entertainment to be the hand-maiden of "Sweet Charity" with the Portland Fruit and Flower Mission as its sponsors. The programme of the Fete abounds in the charm and brilliant coloring, with picture after picture unfolding in the gay folk dances and quaint festival songs of old-time France. It falls naturally into three parts, the peasant pastimes contrasting with the dignified pleasures of the court, and both of these forming a setting for the central feature, the "Tableaux Vivants," which are to include the masterpieces of French portraiture. This feature of the Fete was launched on Monday afternoon last, at a "portrait tea," with the portrait committees, Miss Alice Sansbury, Mrs. Augusta Marshall and Miss Gladys Weidner as hostesses at the home of Miss Weidner, 616 Lovelock street. Miss Harriet W. Bogardus, director of the Fete, gave an introduction to the portraits to be posed in a short sketch of the social life of France, in its fascinating period of salon supremacy.

"The charm of manner, the esprit, the beauty of form and feature of the salon leaders of the eighteenth century are just as possible now as then," said Miss Bogardus, "and it is through the social evolution begun in the French salon that women of today hold their superior social position."

The interest of the afternoon centered in the collection of miniatures, colored from the originals, with which Miss Bogardus illustrated her talk. The reproduction of these portraits in the Fete will be made as faithful as possible, each artist to be shown in his most representative pictures, with those who are to be chosen selected for resemblance to, or suggestions of, the portraits themselves.

For the matinee one of the attractions will be a French doll dance participated in by tiny tots about the age of three. Mrs. William H. Fiechler and Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver will preside over the flower and "The Sign of the Lemon" booth, and will be assisted by prominent young girls. The following matrons will lend their active influence and support as patronesses: Mrs. William S. Hildre, Mrs. Whitney L. Boise, Mrs. Walter E. Burrell, Mrs. D. W. Burke, Mrs. Walter Cook, Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. Robert H. Ellis, Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mrs. Signmund Frank, Mrs. J. G. Gauld, Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. James P. O'Brien, Mrs. A. B. Rookney, Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. W. E. Thomas, Mrs. Gus Simon, Mrs. John Shepherd, Mrs. Charles P. Swigert, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Sally Lewis, Miss Etta Morris, Mrs. Gordon Venable, Mrs. Otis Wright, Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood.

Mrs. A. G. Barker will leave this week for Madison, Wis., having been prevailed upon to act as chaperone for 18 prominent girls at the Delta Gamma Sorority of the University of Wisconsin. On Saturday evening Mrs. C. S. Jackson entertained for Mrs. Barker with bridge. Present were Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. J. G. Gauld, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, Miss Carrie Gilman, Mrs. W. E. Farnish, formerly of Pendleton, and her guest, Mrs. A. J. Borie, of Pendleton. Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Roger P. Sinnott, Miss Lucy Smith, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. P. G. Haley, Mrs. R. J. Patterson and Mrs. W. Wynn Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Morey, the latter Miss Josephine Yates, of Spokane, who is a bride of less than a month, have arrived and are with Mr. Morey's mother, Mrs. P. F. Morey, at Glenmore near Oswego. As Miss Yates, Mrs. Morey has visited a number of times in Portland and has been the recipient of many social courtesies while a guest of Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day.

Mrs. Solomon Hirsch with her youngest daughter, Miss Clementine, left Thursday morning for a trip east. They will go first to Chicago, next to Boston, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and then New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Rupert J. Chipman have been the recipients of many congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, who is now nearly a month old. The small girl has been called Nan Katherine, after her grandmother, Mrs. Philip Wasserman. This is the second child of Dr. and Mrs. Chipman, the eldest, Philip Chipman, being one of the handsomest children in Portland. He has a splendid physique, auburn hair, expressive brown eyes and brilliant coloring.

Dr. Lawrence Selling, now taking a post graduate course at Johns Hopkins, has as the result of his splendid attainments been awarded a Rockefeller scholarship and fellowship. Dr. Selling is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Selling, and a graduate of the Portland Academy.

Miss Lisa Wood has returned from a two weeks' visit in Hood River with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hurlbert (Miss Leslie Knapp).

Cards are out for a large tea to be given November 18 by Mrs. Frank Kerr at her residence in Irvington.

Mrs. Edward Coothingham, who has been visiting in Seattle, was the honor guest on Wednesday at a large tea given by Mrs. Arthur G. Dunne, of that city, who was formerly Miss Charlotte Williams, of Portland, and prior to that time of The Dalles.

Mr. Walter McBrien, formerly of New York and Vancouver, B. C., has been the guest recently of his playmate, John K. Kollock. Mr. McBrien is planning to reside in Portland.

Alvord, Mrs. Edward Grelle and Miss Isabelle Gauld.

One of the most interesting events of the coming social season is the Charity Ball, to be given by the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Monday evening, November 22, at Christensen Hall. The committee who have it in charge are making every effort to make it a success, as it is their first annual ball. Cards will be played by those not caring to dance. A partial list of the patronesses are Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Frederick Eggert, Mrs. E. E. Lytle, Mrs. James A. Ellis, Mrs. J. B. Yeon, Mrs. Benjamin L. Cohen, Mrs. C. R. Davis, Mrs. Max G. Cohen, Mrs. D. C. Burns, Mrs. A. C. Panton, Mrs. H. A. Heppner and Mrs. G. M. Gilnes.

John Baker, of Tacoma, and his attractive daughter, Miss Bernice, who was a conspicuous equestrienne at our recent Horse Show, are now in New York, where they are being entertained extensively.

Mrs. P. W. Bingham has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lee Todd Bingham, to Tonney Davis Williams, of Tucson, Ariz. Miss Bingham is a well-known Portland girl, a scholar and a talented artist. She is the daughter of the late Hugh Todd Bingham and the granddaughter of the late pioneer, Lee Knott. The announcement will come as a surprise to her friends who have been anxiously anticipating her early return home. Mr. Williams is connected with the banking interest of Tucson. He is from San Jose, Cal., a Stanford man and has been for some time, before coming to Arizona, associated with his father, C. W. Williams, in the publication of the San Jose Evening News. The wedding will take place in early Spring at Tucson, where Miss Bingham and her mother have been sojourners for several months.

Mrs. H. M. Williamson entertained a party of 25 matrons at her home, on East Twenty-sixth street, last Monday afternoon, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Jane Wellington Ely, whose 60th birthday it was. Mrs. Williamson was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. E. Williamson.

Mrs. Roger P. Sinnott, who has been giving a series of bridge parties, again entertained yesterday with several tables.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Wynn Watts arrived in the city yesterday, where they will visit with Mrs. Watts' mother, Mrs. Philo Holbrook, for a fortnight. This is the first time Mrs. Watts has been home since her marriage last Spring in New Orleans. She was Miss Helen Holbrook, and it will be remembered she was visiting in Frontiers, Mexico, last Winter when she became engaged to Dr. Watts. Dr. Watts was then in Government service and was unable to get a furlough with time enough for them to be married in Portland, so it was arranged at the home of his people in New Orleans. Mr. Watts is American Vice-Consul at Frontiers.

Cards were received this week announcing the marriage in Seattle of a former Portlander, Mrs. Marian Coburn, to Charles Benson Worsnop. After a wedding trip East Mr. and Worsnop will reside in Vancouver, B. C., after January 1.

In the dining-room presided Mrs. J. Wiley, and Mrs. McDonnell poured tea. Mrs. E. Dunbar and Mrs. J. Costello poured coffee. At the candy booth were Mesdames J.
