CRIMSON'S RUSHES BETTER

Winner Not Spectacular, Loser Resorts to Few Open Plays—Corbett Falls for Safety—40-000 Witness Game.

EASTERN FOOTBALL SCORES. At Cambridge—Yale 8, Harvard 0. At Syracuse, N. Y.—University of Illinois 17, Syracuse University 8.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 20.—The splendid kicking of Captain Edward H. Coy brought the Eastern intercollegiate football championship back to Yale today in an old-fashioned football game in which Harvard went down to defeat by a score of 8 to 0.

Driving the Crimson team steadily back by his long punts, Captain Coy dropped two goals from the field and the aggressive forwards of the Yale team contributed more points by stopping a Harvard punt, which resulted in a safety for the Crimson. While Yale seemed to win easily, the game was a distinct disappointment from a Harvard standpoint.

Coy Main Reliance. It seemed Yale's policy to rely on Captain Coy, kicking steadily and to intercept the punts of the Harvard team. Only twice in the contest did Yale seriously threaten the Crimson goal line by straight rushing.

Coy Kicks Again. In the second half Harvard was driven back until the ball was on the Harvard 25-yard line. Here Captain Coy repeated his feat and more points were added to Yale's score.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Wisconsin and Chicago, battled to a sensational 6-to-6 tie on Marshall Field today, and when the final whistle blew there was no advantage. Low and Sullivan were knocked out in the Oregon game and probably will not be back for the Pacific game, but Sweetland hopes to have some of the new men in fighting trim by next Thursday to take their places.

Marsters and Gibson, on whom much reliance has been placed, are also laid up and may not be able to play.

Michigan won the game when the Wolverines clearly outplayed the Gophers at every stage of the game, turning what had hitherto been a tie into a victory.

In the first half, Michigan winning the toss, the play was about even from the nine-yard line. Michigan started a straight march for the Minnesota goal and scored a touchdown.

The second half there was a lively exchange of punts, Alendyev falling in an attempt to place kick from Minnesota's 35-yard line. The game ended with the ball in Michigan's possession on her own 50-yard line.

"BEST TEAM WON," THEY SAY

Corvallis Players Believe, However, That Weight Tipped Balance.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Washington University eleven is stronger than the Oregon team is the unanimous opinion of the O. A. C. players.

They feel that the better team won in the game played at Eugene yesterday. They say, however, that the greater weight of the University men tipped the balance.

In support of this view they point to the first half of the game, in which, if there was any advantage, it was in their favor.

They have nothing but praise for their old rivals and for Coach Forbes. All commented upon the wonderful interference which Forbes had worked out and drilled into his men for protection of the runner in running back punts.

Academy Football Squad Seeks Eastern Oregon Laurels.

The Hill Military Academy football team will go to Baker City next Tuesday to play the heavy Baker City High School team for the championship of Eastern Oregon.

The Baker City team averages 165 pounds and will outweigh the Academy team about seven pounds to the man. The Baker City team at present holds the undisputed championship of Eastern Oregon having won from Pendleton High by 30 to 9, while the La Grande High School team was played a scoreless game. Pendleton defeated La Grande, 11 to 5.

The victory of Washington High School over Columbia University last Friday closed the best season in interscholastic football ever played in this city.

Every game was closely contested, no score running over 9, and due to the fact that the championship game was the last played, the interest was at its height.

Although the score was only 6 to 0, Washington High's victory over Columbia was decisive. The teamwork of the team was up to college football standard and it is doubtful if any college player could outshine Cornell in the quarterback position as he played in Friday's game and during the whole season.

Team Like Machine. Early in the season the teamwork of the East Siders was rather ragged and the scoring was accomplished mostly through individual grandstand performances of the leader brothers, Cornell and Munley.

Today's game was a team effort, the team worked with almost machine-like precision, and by combining a consistent use of straight football with a number of well-executed plays it accomplished the results desired. Jones was worked more than anyone else in the game and his performances were the features.

The Portland Academy team played a defensive game during the whole season. The academics seldom made yardage, but they did not attempt it, depending on Cobb's punting to keep them out of dangerous territory.

Upon their excellent tacklers to keep their opponents from scoring. They played a down-to-date style of football almost entirely at one end of the great strongholds was in intercepting the forward passes of the opposing team.

Run Aroused Rooters. The most sensational feats of the season in the interscholastic games were the consecutive touchdowns scored by the Washington University eleven upon their opponents from scoring. They played a down-to-date style of football almost entirely at one end of the great strongholds was in intercepting the forward passes of the opposing team.

The game scheduled for Seattle will determine the championship of the Northwest, and there is not a man on the Oregon team who is not fully confident that the winners will be wearers of the letter "O."

Coach Forbes was doubly jubilant yesterday, for in addition to his under-studies scoring a victory Friday, his alma mater, Yale, defeated Harvard yesterday. Forbes is confident that the University of Oregon team is due to take the laurels away from Washington in the deciding battle of the season.

and choice for the center position. His work at times has been equal to that of Curry.

Columbia has the best pair of guards that ever played with a Portland prep school and Scott of P. A. right end, right guard, and Starfield at left. Condon of Portland Academy and O'Neil of Lincoln High are next in line for the guard positions on the all-star team.

Fred Gersbach of Lincoln High, and Elmore Leader of Washington High, have demonstrated that they are the best tacklers in the league. Frasier of Portland Academy and Toomey of Columbia have shown up remarkably well at right tackle. Tegart, the sturdy P. A. lad, and McNamara of Columbia have played consistently at left tackle.

Edwards, the P. A. right end, is the best tackler in the league and a steady player at all times. Flanagan has the right-end position circled, and has shown great ability in running down punts. Toomey, the Lincoln High left end, is probably the most consistent man for his position in the league, and perhaps should be placed in the first list. Staley of P. A. and Anusson of Washington are among the best end men.

Jones, Best at Right. For right half, Jones is, without a shadow of doubt, the best player of the season, although he played in but two games. For second choice, Jack Day, of Lincoln High, is the man. Besides playing his position consistently, Day is a first-class punter.

Cookingham of Portland Academy, has played a steady game all season. Next to Cornell, Cobb, of Portland Academy, is the star of the league, and although he played quarter back most of the season, he is placed at left half on account of his all-around ability as a backfield player, and especially as a punter. He is the strongest and most consistent punter developed in the interscholastic league of the year. Last year he played right end.

Edwin Leader, of Washington High, and Aya, of Columbia, are good material for the all-star team, but in all-around playing, Leader shows the greatest ability. Aya punts well, and is exceptionally fast. Leader is ten pounds heavier.

Cornell, the 125-pound East Sider, is the class quarterback of the league, having led the position last year. He is exceptionally fast, uses excellent judgment in selecting plays, and in returning punts has shown great class.

SCHOOL TEAMS FINISH FAST for Game Tomorrow.

The grammar school football season is having a whirlwind finish, despite the difficulty that was experienced by Robert Croft, of Professor A. R. Draper in getting the league games underway. Elliot won the title to the championship cup of the middle weight division by defeating Ricketts in a hotly contested game, resulting in a 10 to 0. The championships of the light and heavy weight divisions will be decided in games to be played this week and next.

Two teams in the heavy weight division, Montavilla and Highland, have arranged definitely to play and will have their first game tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock. Montavilla and Highland will play for two wins out of three and will have the deciding contest some time next week.

The game tomorrow promises to be lively. Both teams have fast and heavy players, who have been training faithfully. The two teams played a practice game last Thursday and neither was able to score.

Holladay and Elliot will play the second contest for the championship of the light weights next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, on Multnomah Field. The teams are evenly matched. This game will result in a score of 3 to 0 for Holladay, was the "classiest" exhibition given by any of the grammar school teams this season.

The game will be played at 3 o'clock on Multnomah Field. If Holladay loses the game Tuesday a third game will have to be played next week to decide the championship.
