

ton, United States Army. Upon her arrival at Jolo, where the regiment is stationed, the occasion will be marked by a military wedding.

Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren, of Astoria, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Logan are spending three weeks in Berkeley, Cal.

Lillie V. O'Ryan, the miniaturist, is in receipt of a letter from the California commission of the past few years, and the exhibition included the miniatures of prominent local society matrons and girls.

At the luncheon given yesterday at Vancouver Barracks, by Mrs. Marion P. Maus, for Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Taylor, of New York, the guests included Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Sr., Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Dalphin, of the post, Mrs. J. G. Gaud, Mrs. W. B. Burrell, Mrs. H. C. Cabell, wife of Major Cabell; Mrs. C. F. Beebe, and Mrs. Lyons, wife of Captain Lyons, U. S. A.

California prodigality has never been more artistically expressed than at the brilliant ball given November 11 at the San Mateo home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sabla, at which the daughter, Miss Vera, made her debut to society. Outside of New York it is doubtful if a more elaborate function has been given in years. The decorations alone cost $25,000 and 300 guests were later entertained by Mr. De Sabla, who had the Peninsula Hotel opened for the occasion to accommodate those who remained over.

At the ball at the Peninsula Hotel, among those who visited in Portland, among them Mrs. Eleanor Martin, her granddaughter, Mrs. Genevieve Harvey, Ned Greenway, ex-Mayor James D. Ebbelan, Ferdinand Thierot, who is a cousin of the De Sablas, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. de Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grant and Walter Martin, who, it will be remembered, acted in the capacity of judge at the 1908 Horse Show.

The De Sabla home, which is a stately edifice built on modified Spanish-Moorish style, is approached by a winding Boulevard leading through a park that is a garden spot of loveliness. Each of the extensive variety of flowering trees and shrubs were studded with colored electric bulbs. Near the Japanese garden, waterfalls and rainbow tints rippled musically, while chrysanthemums bloomed in quaint rocky nooks, besides miniature fountains arching over small streams. Nearing the residence beds of pines appeared, their edges fringed with tiny lights, and fountains sent up iridescent streams over floating pink and white water lilies. The ballroom was especially constructed for the event. It was a high-ceilinged structure, built of lattice. The interior was hung with canvas painted with scenes to blend with the electric lights. Like interior, which represented the Court of Versailles. The ceiling was hung with wonderful tapestries brought by the De Sablas recently from Europe, the sections of the drooping ceiling being held with gilded rods.

Florentine vases were filled with dozens of American beauties, and peering from flowered nooks were immense satyrs on pedestals. Fountains at each end of the ballroom threw sprays of illuminated water on basins filled with water lilies and lights of orange and green gleamed from among the vines of the trellised, flowered wall. The supper-room was oval in shape, the canopy being light green, and against this was built a rotunda of tropical loveliness, where countless varieties of orchids grew out of gilded tree trunks, exactly imitating the natural habitat of these weirdly dainty exotics. Hundreds of orchids alone were used, and the floor was carpeted with thick, velvety grass. Many of the guests remained over at San Mateo for the weekend. The debutante and her parents were assisted in receiving by her sister, the handsome Mrs. Clement Tobin.

The Portland Delta Upsilon Club, an organization of alumni of the Delta Upsilon college fraternity, held its second monthly meeting of the winter season yesterday at the Commercial Club, with Judge Morrow, of the Portland bar, as guest of honor. Plans are being laid by the club to arrange for a winter season of to be given by prominent Portland men at these monthly meetings during the year. It is probable that efforts will be made early in the year looking toward sending a large delegation of Portland Delta Upsilon alumni to the annual convention of the fraternity to be held next year in California, with the Stanford and University of California chapters of the fraternity as hosts.

Mrs. Clarence Nichols entertained 25 prominent members of the younger set on Friday at an informal dinner and card party last Wednesday afternoon at Christensen's Hall.

Mrs. H. A. Heppner, president of the club, was at the head of the receiving line, and with her were Mrs. Sarah Evans, president of the State Federation; Mrs. A. E. Sells, worthy grand matron; Mrs. S. Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, president of the Woman's Club, Mrs. A. L. Bailey, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. Robert Lutke, past-president of the Woman's Club.

To the efforts of Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. G. K. Clark and Mrs. G. D. Rushmore, assisted by an efficient corps of young ladies, is due the success of the entertainment.

FORMER PORTLAND GIRL WHO WILL RETURN FROM EUROPE

MISS LUCILLE JOHNSON.

Miss Lucille Johnson, a well known Portland girl, who has been studying vocal music with M. Noufflard, of the De Resake School of Singing in Paris, is planning to return home shortly to spend the holidays.

Erdmann, Miss Ruth Knowles and Miss Mary Grubb as assistants. Miss Lucille Daniels and Miss Leah Lester served punch, and the music was furnished by the First Artillery band. Mrs. McCredie wore an imported gown of spangled jet over blue satin. Mrs. Jasany yellow messaline comb-fur with forget-me-nots, and Mrs. Stapleton tan chiffon broadcloth elaborately braided.

Judging from the large advance sale for the charity ball to be given tomorrow at Christensen's Hall by the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the success of the affair is a foregone conclusion. The president, Mrs. C. J. Allen, an untiring worker herself, has been assisted by the following committees: Dancing committee—Mesdames George Parrish Melchior, Y. M. C. Silva, Schefflein, Allen; card committee—Mesdames Haynes, Irwin and Kiggins. The patronesses include: Mesdames A. A. Morrison, Benjamin Lewis, Mrs. George W. Simpson, Mrs. C. A. H. Tanner, Mrs. J. G. Many novel entertainments in connection therewith are being devised.

The following philanthropic women of the city have been enlisted actively in the promotion of the House Beautiful exhibition, which is to be given at the Armory the week commencing December 6, a large part of the proceeds toward extending the commendable charitable work of the People's Institute. Health and Beauty Hints BY MRS. MAE MARTYN. Mrs. E. R.: It is your own fault if people think you are older than your husband. You should not be so careless about your personal appearance. You can easily get rid of the shallow coarse appearance of your skin and make yourself appear several years younger using a lotion made from 4 ounces of spumax, 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine and a half pint of hot water. This lotion will give you oily, shiny skin, pink, youthful appearance. It does not show like face powder, but lasts longer and is splendid for cold sores, tan, pimples and freckles. You can buy spumax at any drug store and prepare this lotion yourself at a small cost. I am sure after you have once tried it you will like it very much and use it always in place of face powder. It is better and has proved to be a wonderful whitener and skin beautifier.

Health and Beauty Hints BY MRS. MAE MARTYN. Mrs. E. J.: I receive a great many letters just like yours from people who are troubled with dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. It is certainly not a pleasant thing to feel that you are losing your once beautiful tresses. I invariably recommend for use of a hair tonic made by dissolving an ounce of quinine in a half-pint of alcohol and then adding a half-pint of water. Try this tonic and it will stop all irritation and your hair from coming out, remove the dandruff and restore your scalp to a healthy condition. Mrs. C. V.: You can stop that terrible itching from your scalp by using a lotion made by mixing 4 ounces of tuxor, 4 tablespoonfuls of alcohol and a half pint of water. Apply this three or four times a day and allow to dry. Repeat until skin is returned to a healthy condition. This remedy is splendid for salt rheum, rash and other skin eruptions. I have seen this remedy tried numerous times with surprisingly satisfactory results.—Adv. water to make a full quart of tonic. Read Mrs. Martyn's book "Beauty," $5.00.
