A Most Extraordinary Offering
Finest Examples of Tailor's Art
Only 65 Suits on Sale

—To tell you that they are values up to $75.00 does not begin to give you the real news. The mere statement of value falls far short of telling you the facts. We cannot possibly hope to give you any perfect and fair impression of these suits. The fabrics, the workmanship, the coat, the skirt, the trimmings. All that we can give you are a few facts, thus—

—A DRESSMAKER WOULD CHARGE YOU FOR MAKING AND FINDINGS, FOR A GARMENT SUCH AS THESE ARE, FULLY AS MUCH AS THE PRICE WE ASK FOR THEM.
—YOU COULD NOT GET A TAILOR TO SHOW ANY BETTER WORKMANSHIP IF YOU PAID HIM $75.00 FOR MAKING THE SUIT.

—When you see the different fabrics and observe the quality you will then appreciate the value of these garments. Rough and plain chevots, imported worsteds, finest quality broadcloth and imported men's materials.

—The jackets are made in the most popular lengths and are all lined with the finest self-colored silks. The skirts are fashioned in the newest plaited and Moyen Age effects. The colors, black, navy, smoke, olive, taupe and brown.

—A display of these Suits will be made in our Third-street windows, also in our Suit Department.

Xmas Sale of Books in Sets

Here are book values you expect to get only at Lipman, Wolfe & Co.'s book store:

—These sets are Edition de Luxe sets, the same as those we placed on sale two weeks ago.
—They are the surplus stock of the best English book publishers, sold in this country at a TERRIFIC SACRIFICE.
—An instance occurred in our Book Department during the last sale that is worth repeating. A customer purchased one of these sets, took it home and showed it to her husband. He examined it carefully, then requested his wife to go back to Lipman, Wolfe & Co. and find out where and how the books were damaged or misprinted, as he believed it impossible for the books to be perfect at the price she paid. We easily satisfied him that the books were perfect. He then bought more. Wise man.
