

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

CONTINUED FROM PAGE THREE.

Dolph, Miss Clementine Wilson, Mrs. S. M. Mearns, Mrs. Gordon Voces, Mrs. Mary Isen, Mrs. Blanche H. Hogue, Miss Nellie Williams, Mrs. Frederick H. Strong, Mrs. J. C. Answorth, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas and Mrs. Ben Selling.

The local order of Elks is preparing a special music for the annual memorial service, under the direction of John Claire Monteth. The quartet is composed of Mrs. May Dearborn, soprano; Mrs. Max Schlock, alto; W. H. Boyer, tenor, and John Claire Monteth, bass. The soloists will be Mrs. Schwegel, Mr. Monteth and Waldemar Lind, violinist, W. R. Boone will preside at the organ.

The Men's Choral Club of Eugene, now in its second year of activity, announces two concerts for the season of 1909-10. John Claire Monteth, who was the soloist at their first public appearance last year, has been engaged to sing at the second of the new series on May 25. The club is organized and governed upon similar lines to that of the Apollo Club of Portland.

The programme for the first Klingenberg-Bettman concert, Tuesday evening, November 30, will include "The Beethoven Trio, Op. 97, and the Sweliana Trio, Op. 15, besides a group of piano numbers by Mr. Klingenberg, as follows: Intermezzo (Brahms), "I Love Thee" (Grieg), "Puck" from Op. 71 (Grieg), "Sonetto del Petrarca" (Liszt), "En Form de Valse" (Saint-Saens).

Those who furnished the programme at Miss Jocelyn Foulkes' pupils' recital Saturday were Judith Lipitt, Carolyn Hanson, Arline Cameron, Camille McMillan, Helen Hosenman, Alisa MacMaster, Henrietta Tichener, Marjorie Cameron, Ruth Teal, Irene Reynolds, Helen Bratton, Miss Butler, Miss Beals and Miss Wentworth.

The Monday Musical Club will give its initial concert December 1st. Christensen's Hall, for the benefit of the auditorium fund, will have the affair in hand and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer will be the soloist.

Hereafter Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer's Tuesday afternoon club will meet at Elbert Hall at 4 P. M.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A unique entertainment was given the ladies of the Rose City Park Afternoon Club at the home of Mrs. O. W. Taylor on Wednesday. The ladies have been dividing social features with efforts to provide funds for furnishing the Union church building, now in course of erection at the Park, and have arranged to work certain afternoons, payment for which is to be used for that purpose.

They were entertained in a novel way by the guidance of Mrs. F. Patten by special features, burlesquing the work they were expected to do. The ladies entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion, greatly enjoying the seeming ridicule on their labor efforts and saved the miniature toilet used in the entertainment, as souvenirs. The house was artistically decorated with palms, carnations and asparagus ferns.

Chorus music was rendered by Miss Evelyn Hurley, soloist; Miss Cornelia Barker, violinist, and Miss Laura Fox, pianist. A specially prepared luncheon in harmony with the entertainment was served in the dining-room. The afternoon netted the ladies $25 for their good cause. Those present were: Mrs. W. S. Maddy, Mrs. U. S. Ackles, Mrs. W. R. Coffman, Mrs. L. Laidlaw, Mrs. F. R. E. Carter, Mrs. J. W. McMichael, Mrs. L. E. Carter, Mrs. W. Wilcox, Mrs. L. E. McMichael, Mrs. A. Laidlaw, Mrs. M. C. Clapham, Mrs. O. W. Taylor, Misses Wetzel and Dills, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Ferrie, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Burdick, Mrs. Figgins, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Stroud, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Zollinger, Mrs. Sundgren, Mrs. Beeson, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Bleasling, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Brook, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Christensen, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Chulberg and Mrs. F. W. Brooker.

The New York State Society of Oregon celebrated the 125th anniversary of the evacuation of New York by the British, last evening, at the rooms of the Commercial Club. One hundred and seventy-five members and guests were present, and the meeting was the most successful one thus far held. The president of the society, Miss Lida M. O'Brien, read greeting from the New York State Society of Washington. A very enjoyable programme was given, as follows: Piano solo, Miss Marie Wetzel; reading, Professor William R. Chapman; address, Dr. Benjamin Young, on "The Causes and Cures of the Revolution"; violin solo, Miss Maude Bell; vocal solo, Mrs. Pauline Miller-Chapman. The society is growing rapidly in membership. The meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Felling, 243 Eleventh street, on the evening of December 14.

On Sunday, November 21, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Berg, of 225 Sixteenth street, the leader of the Norwegian Singing Society, were surprised by the members of that club, the occasion being Mr. Berg's 51st birthday. Miss Rose Robinson, Mrs. Hanson, Miss Libeck and Mr. E. Erickson entertained the guests by singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. John Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Tochie, Mr. and Mrs. Libeck, Mr. and Mrs. Haldors, Mr. and Mrs. Bjorkland, Mr. and Mrs. Evensen, Mr. and Mrs. Berg, Jr., Mrs. William Christensen, Mrs. G. Anderson, Mrs. Brasen, Miss Mathisen, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Gerde, Miss Robinson, Miss Iversen, Miss Anderson, Miss Libeck, Miss Anna Sanstad, Miss Barbara Sanstad, Miss Broden, Mrs. M. Gerde, O. Mathisen, E. Erickson, Paul Lauritz, Mr. Clifton, Mr. Quisile, Mr. Hanson, Master Arne Evensen, Mr. Evensen, Mr. A. Johnson. All enjoyed themselves, and luncheon was served to all.

On Friday evening the members of the young men's Bible class of Trinity Episcopal Church were the guests of the rector and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison, at the new rectory. The evening's programme was made up in good part of addresses by representatives from the various parish organizations, closing with a delightful talk by the rector. At the close of the formal programme, refreshments were served, and an hour was given to social converse. The young men's Bible class of Trinity Church began its existence something over three years ago with two members. It entered upon the work this year, on the second Sunday in September, with an enrollment of 21. The present enrollment is 36. The teacher of the class is I. H. Ames, who is assisted from time to time by Judge T. J. Geisler.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was a party given by Mrs. H. M. Hasset at her Market street residence last Friday. Mrs. Elinor assisted Mrs. Hasset in entertaining. Five hundred was played. Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien winning first and second prizes. Miss Ruth Buckley and Miss Hazel Ralston assisted punch. Mrs. Hasset's guests were Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Mrs. J. F. Graham, Mrs. F. S. Stanley, Mrs. R. C. Warner, Mrs. J. M. Berry, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. W. T. Wade, Mrs. Mary Forrest, Mrs. H. W. Goddard, Mrs. May C. Elinor, Miss Mary Buckley.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the residence of Mrs. L. M. Davis, 88 Commercial street. The study of Tennyson's poems was continued. Mrs. E. J. Haight gave a splendid synopsis of "Maud" and called attention to the beauties of the poem. "Knock Arden" was entertainingly read by Miss Blanche Robeson. Mrs. A.

PIONEER COUPLE OF BENTON COUNTY CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A. J. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams, a pioneer couple of Benton County, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding at their home in Philomath, Saturday, November 6. Mr. Williams is president of the First State Bank of Philomath. He was born in Pennsylvania in 1835, and came to Oregon in 1859. Mrs. Williams (nee Wyatt) crossed the plains with her parents in 1847 and settled on a donation land claim north of Philomath. Three children, three grandchildren and many guests were present on the occasion.

J. Stiles read several well selected lyrical poems, and Mrs. E. E. Miller, accompanied by Miss Claire Oakes, sang "The Brook." Quotations for the day were from "Maud," Mrs. G. M. Glines, 92 East Everett street, will entertain the club November 20.

Mrs. F. D. Arrington, of the Helms Apartments, gave a very enjoyable five hundred party Tuesday evening to 12 ladies in honor of her guest, Miss Sallie Knight, of Seattle, Wash. Three prizes were given. The guests were: Miss Sallie Knight, Mrs. Fred Bloch, Mrs. H. Tait, Mrs. M. Hasset, Miss Mary Buckley, Miss Ruth Buckley, Mrs. Clinton Monroe, Miss Marlene Drueger, Mrs. J. Gruesz, Miss Hattie Gruesz, Mrs. George Reed, Miss Cohen.

The home of Mrs. S. C. Eastman, 614 East Seventh street, was the scene of a very pretty luncheon shower Wednesday evening, when her daughter, Miss Naomi Nichols, entertained in honor of Miss Irene Scott, who is to be married December 1. The parlors and dining-room were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and Oregon grape. Five hundred served to pass away the evening.

Mrs. A. Bills, of 101 Sixteenth street North, gave a dinner on Thanksgiving day. The guests included Mrs. C. J. Japerson, Mrs. E. Morris, the Misses Allen and Edna Armstrong, Miss Cornwall and G. J. Bills.

Yesterday afternoon, at Christensen's Hall, was given the regular Winter reception and children's ball by the pupils of Mr. Christensen. The affair was most successful.

WEDDINGS.

Allen-Webb.

Thanksgiving eve, Miss Mary Elizabeth Webb was married to Mr. Lawrence Russell Allen at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. T. Webb, 601 East Morrison street, the ceremony being performed by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

DOMESTIC FARCE SCORES IN VAUDEVILLE.

Edwina Barry, together with a splendid supporting company, will be an early attraction at the Orpheum. "The Home Breaker," written by Jimmie Barry, is the title of the domestic farce being presented, and gives an excellent opportunity for some mighty good comedy work for which she is so justly famous. Miss Barry appears as Dotty Plumduffy, a domestic whose one ambition is to kiss men and then gather their photographs. She likewise divulges several things that she should have kept secret, thereby nearly causing the separation of a man and wife. The complications are cleared up, however, by the discharge of Dotty, and a happy reconciliation between her employer and his wife concludes the act. William Richards, Robert Wigton, Belle Gaffney and Lillian Dilworth are members of the company supporting Miss Barry.

land. After spending a few days with relatives in the Willamette Valley, Mr. Hansell, with his wife, will return to Eastern Oregon, where he has large farming interests.

Brian-Spalding.

The wedding of Miss Eloise Spalding and Melvin Brian took place November 15 at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. John Henderson, 461 Tillamook street.

The marriage ceremony was read by the Rev. Mr. Dawson. The house was prettily decorated in white and green. The bride wore a gown of white tulle, over a slip of hand French embroidery, and carried a bouquet of white bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dale Waper, was groomed in pale green silk and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. James Ward, of Minneapolis.

A reception followed the service when an informal supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Brian left for their new home in Milwaukee.

Sandercock-Kosper.

Mr. T. L. Sandercock and Miss Theresa K. Kosper were united in marriage at 9 o'clock last Wednesday morning at the Sacred Heart Church, Milwaukee and Caywood streets. Father Gregory officiating. There were solos by Miss Elizabeth Hoben and Miss Marie Sandercock. The wedding dinner was held at high noon and a reception was given in the evening at the home of the bride, 630 East Thirtieth street. Both the church and the home of the bride were decorated elaborately. Mr. and Mrs. Sandercock will be at home to their friends December 15 at 533 East Nineteenth street. The couple were remembered with many beautiful presents.

Roberts-Mathews.

J. V. Roberts and Miss Lou Mathews were united in marriage Wednesday evening, November 17, at the First Congregational Church, Dr. Dyott officiating. The bridesmaid was Miss Julia Mathews, sister of the bride; the groom was attended by Fred Walters.

Mr. Roberts has been associated with the Washington and Oregon Sewer Pipe Company for the past two years. Miss Mathews is a graduate nurse of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are at home to their friends at 6105 East Alder street.

Howard-Thomas.

On Sunday afternoon, November 21, at the bride's home at St. Johns Heights, Leon E. Howard and Esther E. Thomas were married in the presence of a number of their nearest friends. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of the Highland Congregational Church, performed the ceremony. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The groom is an employee of the North Pacific Express Company. Mr. and Mrs. Howard will make their home in this city.

Fourmontin-Gardner.

Charles Fourmontin, of Benton County, Oregon, and Miss Josie Gardner, of Portland, were married at First United Brethren Manse, East Fifteenth and Morrison streets, by the pastor, Russell S. Shovers. The bride's sisters and brother, Mrs. May Colley, Mrs. Robert E. Nelson and Howard Gardner, were present.

Klump-Bestow.

The wedding of Miss Matilda Pauline Klump and George Herbert Bestow took place Wednesday evening, November 24, at the Fourth Presbyterian Church. Rev. John Rayer officiating. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, among relatives and a few intimate friends.

Staley-McDonald.

Mack C. Staley and Susie McDonald were married November 24, at the home of Park McDonald, 14 Killingsworth avenue, by Rev. J. Bowersox.

The occasion was attended by a good number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Staley will be at home at Fulton.

Potter-Egert.

L. G. Potter and Miss Katherine Egert were quietly married by Rev. Father Black on Wednesday at noon and left for an extended trip to Puget Sound and British Columbia. After their honeymoon they will return to Portland, where they will make their future home.

Delap-Niles.

The marriage of William W. Delap and Mary Niles was celebrated at 1140 Gay street on November 25, Rev. J. Bowersox officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Delap are at home at the Brooklyn Hotel, this city, of which Mr. Delap is proprietor.

COMING EVENTS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Froebel Association will be held in the Kindergarten at St. Helen's Hall, Thursday, December 2, at 7 o'clock.

Those interested in child culture are invited. Miss Leonide Henry is chairman, and Miss Jessie Millard, librarian of the children's department, will speak on "Suitable Christmas Books and Pictures for Children."

Girls who wish to spend a pleasant hour on Sunday afternoon will find a cordial welcome at the Y. W. C. A. Strangers

If Seeking the Newest You'll Find It at the "Style Store"

Attractive Offerings for Holiday Shopping

Last holiday season our store was too crowded to give our customers proper attention. To avoid a repetition of this, we invite you to make your purchases early. Our stock is now complete and our salespeople willing to aid you in making selections. You will find here many unique and interesting novelties not found elsewhere in Portland. Come in tomorrow, make your selections and take advantage of our liberal Credit System.

Novelty Tailored Coats

No matter how exacting your taste, you are sure to find here a style to suit your fancy. The variety includes strictly tailored coats—classical tailored coats, with long roll lapels and three fancy buttons—coat dresses with Dagobert skirts, buttoned down the entire length. They are made of covert, English diagonals, kersey and broadcloth in all the latest Winter colors. No coat want need go unfilled when you can get "Style Store" quality at this remarkably low price.

Vals. to $30, Special $18.50

Fur Sets Unequalled Values

Furs promise to be universally popular this season—and nothing is more desirable than a gift of this kind. You will enjoy making your selections from our immense assortment of Furs—Russian pony, Alaskan, far Eastern and natural mink, martin, fox, marmot, squirrel, etc., all remarkably rich in appearance and prices undoubtedly the lowest ever seen upon Furs of similar value. We look for you in tomorrow. Fur scarfs and muffs, per piece,

From $10 to $125

Charge Accounts Solicited

If you prefer you can arrange to have your purchases charged, remitting to us in weekly or monthly payments.

EASTERN OUTFITTING COMPANY

Washington Street at Tenth The Store Where Your Credit Is Good

are especially welcome. A short programme is given at 4 o'clock, after which tea is served. On rainy afternoons the hour is spent around the cheerful fireplace, with music, stories and short addresses. The attendance this Fall has been very good. This afternoon's programme will be as follows: Music, Miss Helen Hardie; vocal solo, Miss Vivian Marshall; address, "Be Ye Reconciled to God," Rev. W. F. Reagon.

The ladies of Queen Elizabeth Hive, L. O. T. M., will hold their bazaar in the I. O. O. F. Temple, corner East Sixth and Alder, Tuesday, November 20, and will serve warm lunch from 11 to 1:30 P. M. and a New England dinner from 5 to 8:30 P. M. The proceeds go for charity. The following ladies have charge of the different booths: Mrs. Louise McFadden, Mrs. Sarah B. Guerin, Mrs. Bertha Perkins, Mrs. Alice Combs, Mrs. Minnie Moore, Mrs. Eva Meyers, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde. The Guards will have charge of the luncheon and dinner.

Thursday evening, December 9, at Ringler's Hall, corner East Morrison street and Grand avenue, the three Royal Arcanum councils of Portland will give a reception for the benefit of themselves and their friends. Each member has the privilege of inviting one gentleman and a lady. The councils propose to give a series of parties

DO YOU DESIRE TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONAL APPEARANCE?

Everyone knows that a fine growth of luxuriant, youthful looking hair is a great element of beauty. If you will faithfully cultivate your hair with it will assume a healthy lustre and maintain its youthful beauty even to old age.

"A BLESSING ON YOUR HEAD."

ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC

(EAU DE QUININE)

This great French preparation is used by cultured men and women the world over.

It is a necessity to the refined toilet and is one of the few hair preparations that really cleans the scalp and makes the hair fluffy and easy to arrange. Beware of the usual sticky hair dressings that clog the pores, cover the scalp with gummy residue, and make the hair too oily instead of clean and glossy.

ED. PINAUD'S is a perfect hair dressing and scalp tonic—prove it yourself.

Buy a 50c. bottle from your dealer, use it twice a week and watch your hair improve. If you want to test it before buying, send us 4c. for a 10c. trial bottle. Write to-day to our American Offices,

PARFUMERIE ED. PINAUD, Dept. 26

ED. PINAUD BLDG., NEW YORK

Let Us Assist You

In Planning a Delightful

Christmas

Do not spend your money for something cheap and trashy, or worry about the payment of something good, but a trifle higher than you care to pay for at present. Call and see our stock of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Novelties, Cut Glass, Umbrellas; select what you may; pay us a small amount now, the balance you can pay us after the holidays.

MARR & BLOCH
LARGEST DIAMOND DEALERS IN OREGON | MASTER CRAFTSMEN IN PRECIOUS METALS
283 MORRISON ST.

The Meier & Frank Store

Free Cooking Classes

Taught on the Fifth Floor

Ladies who are interested in varying their daily menu can learn the newest and most attractive methods of cookery by attending our Free demonstration of

Fleischmann's

Celebrated Yeast

Daily at 2:30 on the Fifth Floor

Miss Mary Moore Jones will be pleased to meet the ladies of Portland and present to them many delicious dishes scientifically and easily prepared—All invited

Souvenirs—No Charge—Recipes