

Tucker and Miss Carrie Flanders in charge, assisted by a score of charming girls. On Friday, Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton and the Misses Rhoda and Olive Palling will have charge and on Saturday the children will be entertained with a Christmas tree and Santa Claus. In charge of Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. John A. Shepard, Mrs. W. H. Skene and Mrs. J. Andrew Foulhoux. An Arctic booth will be presided over by Mrs. Walter Cook, Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman, Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. S. Lockwood, Mrs. W. E. Auerell, Mrs. Harry Northrup, Mrs. George Willard Brown and Miss Mabel Goss.

One of the most attractive features which the women will present will be the "Dollhouse Beautiful," in Fairyland. This dollhouse, presented by Mrs. Wilcox, is complete in every appointment, even to electric lighting and electric bells. The presiding genius of the fairy scene, which is being planned after a design by Mrs. C. B. Ladd, is a beautiful doll, dressed and donated by Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd. Dolls of every size will represent the fairy lore, dear to the heart of every child. Saturday night the doll and dollhouse will be auctioned off for the benefit of the fund. The patronesses for the "House Beautiful" entertainment are: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. J. G. Gaud, Mrs. William Mackenzie, Mrs. C. E. Ladd, Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mrs. A. H. Tanner, Mrs. A. E. Rokey, Mrs. Valentine Pritchard, Mrs. W. E. Ayer, Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mrs. John Gill, Mrs. I. N. Fierschner, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. R. Monday the Misses Fanning returned from Europe, where they spent the last Spring. For Miss Henrietta Fanning, the president of the Woman's Exchange, a reception will be given by the board of directors of that institution. Monday afternoon, at the Exchange, it will also serve as a housewarming for the new quarters. Receiving will be: Miss Fanning, Mrs. Aaron Meyer, Mrs. Philip C. Schuyler, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Charles Scadding, Mrs. Richard Koehler, and Mrs. J. E. Montgomery. At the tea tables will be: Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. S. Franks, Miss May Palling and Mrs. I. N. Fierschner, who will pour tea and coffee. Assisting in the different rooms will be: Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Evelyn Wilson, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Hae Koehler, Mrs. Lela Shelby, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Isabella Gaud, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Hunt Lewis, Miss Frank Branch Riley, Mrs. David Honeyman, Miss Flora Fieschner, Miss Florence Wolfe and Mrs. Guy Talbot.

Mrs. H. D. Green has returned from a visit in Great Falls, Mont., where she was the guest of Mrs. William Thornton and her mother, Mrs. Henshley, who spent some time in Portland a few years ago. A number of luncheons, dinners and bridge parties were given in Mrs. Green's honor.

Miss Bertie Baar will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham for the coming five weeks.

For Miss Evelyn Wilson and Miss Eva Jones, the fiancée of Clifford Nichols, a tea was given Thursday afternoon by Miss Hazel Williams, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williams. The pretty home on Hawthorne avenue was abloom with flowers, bride roses with white tulle predominating in compliment to Miss Jones, the bride-elect. Serving were Mrs. David C. Lewis and Mrs. G. O. Peigram, assisted by Miss Helen Ladd and the Misses Edwina and Clementine Williams. Miss Wilson wore a Parisian frock of old rose broadcloth, trimmed with plaid chiffon and lace. Miss Jones had a gown of yellow chiffon over satin; Mrs. G. O. Peigram, a pastel lavender marquisette worn with a pink camellia, and Miss Hazel Williams, a French embroidered frock of delicate blue and pink tulle. Among the guests were: Miss Mary Livingstone, Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Leslie Winkler, Miss Dorothy Holbrook, Miss Milla West, Miss Maida Hart, Miss Becky Bidle, Miss Ise Koehler, Miss Bertie Baar, Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Isabella Gaud, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Hannah Cummings, the Misses Katharine and Louise Emmons, the Misses Louise and Alice Carey, the Misses Elizabeth and Lucie Parker, the Misses Vida and Mildred

Nichols, Miss Ada Burke, Miss Gladys Ross, Miss Ruth Honeyman, Miss Maud Jones, Miss Lucile Smith, Miss Helen Harmon, Miss Margaret Boot, Miss Alice Howe, Miss Alice Forbes, Miss Marguerite Hume, Miss Olive Fanning, Miss Hannah Connell, Miss Elizabeth Sears, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Frances Wilson, Mrs. Bruce Honeyman, Miss Meta Buehner, Miss Margaret Buehner. Mrs. Zera Snow was a luncheon hostess at the Hotel Portland Wednesday, asking Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Marion F. Maus, of Vancouver Barracks, Mrs. E. S. Wood, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. Samuel Mears, Mrs. George Goode, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. Charles Scadding, and Mrs. H. C. Cabell, of Vancouver Barracks. The entire table was strewn with violets, a violet luncheon service was used, and favors were corsage bouquets of the same flower. On Monday evening, December 13, from 8 till 11, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison will give a reception at the new rectory to the parishioners of Trinity Church and their friends. The reception will commemorate the tenth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Morrison's arrival in Portland, and it will also serve as a housewarming for the new rectory. Mrs. E. A. Baldwin will leave shortly for an extended visit in the East. In honor of Miss Isabella Gaud, the recent debutante, a bridge luncheon followed by a small reception was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Samuel Kerr. The continental luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, though the cards read for 30 minutes earlier, thus enabling the guests to visit with Miss Gaud. As a means of promoting informality, the luncheon was a la buffet, the girls serving themselves. Accepting Mrs. Kerr's hospitality were: Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Mary Livingstone, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Frances Warren, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Barbara Crocker, Miss Hazel Crocker, Miss Maida Hart, Miss Ise Koehler, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Katharine Carey, Miss Olive Fanning, Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Jr., Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Jr., Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mrs. S. G. Reed, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mrs. George Cottner, Mrs. Mrs. J. Earnest Ladd and Mrs. Lloyd J. Wentworth. Lovely flowers of many varieties were everywhere in evidence. In the center of the table was a basket filled with French favors. Japanese calendars were place cards, the backs arranged for bridge scores. After progressive bridge an informal reception followed to which were asked Mrs. J. G. Gaud, Mrs. Robert Liv-

Ehrman leave for the East shortly, to be gone a couple of months. They will visit their old home in Baltimore for some time, and will spend a week with their son, Mason, who is a student at Yale.

A farewell reception and dance was given Friday evening at Vancouver Barracks to the officers of the Fourth Field Artillery, and their wives, on the eve of the departure of the artillery for Fort Russell, Wyo.

In another portion of The Oregonian today appears a resume and full list of those participating in the French Fete, in which society was interested and which needed a substantial sum for that worthy local charity, the Fruit and Flower Mission. In addition to the hearty cooperation of those participating, great credit is due the executive committee, which consists of Miss Alice Sanbury, Mrs. W. B. Fehchheimer and Miss Augusta Marshall. Much sympathy and regret has been expressed upon the serious illness of Miss Alice Sanbury, who was unable to appear at the fete.

In the sale of Red Cross stamps at Olds, Wortman & King's this month, Mrs. James McI. Wood will be assisted by Mrs. Howard Corbett, Mrs. Alvin Boody, Mrs. James A. Dougherty, Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mrs. Warren E.

Thomas, Mrs. Tannhauser, Mrs. R. B. Lamson, Mrs. J. S. O'Gorman, Miss Josephine Ellicott, Miss Margaret Webber, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Elizabeth Sawyers, Miss Geata Ivorda Wold, Miss Grace Downie and Miss Scoggins.

Members of the French peasant dance in the recent French fete were hosts last evening at a dinner given at Hotel Portland. The 24 members appeared in costume and the fete colors, red and white, predominated. Mrs. W. B. Fehchheimer acted as chaperon.

Portland Tuesday with a luncheon for Miss Flora Fieschner, bride-elect. The other guests were Mrs. Ambrose B. Scott, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Judith Scott and Miss Hannah Connell. The party
