The bazaar, which was held at the Piedmont Church on Friday evening was a great success. A crowded attendance and satisfactory financial results compensated the women of that neighborhood for their laudable effort.

WEDDINGS.

Tinker-Scott.

In the presence of a number of relatives and friends, a pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, December 1, at the residence of Mrs. Charles Stewart Scott, 54 East Ninth street, when her daughter, Irene Mae, was married to Harry Harrison Tinker, of Long Beach, Wash., the Rev. Harry Leeds officiating. The bride party entered to the Lohengrin. The bride, who was given away by her father, made a very charming figure in a rich cream messaline silk, princess, and completely enveloped in a filmy bridal veil. She carried bride roses, and was attended by Miss E. Kraus as maid of honor, and the Misses Ethel Gibson and Louise Christian as bridesmaids. The bride was groomed in white chiffon silk and carried a large bouquet of white daisies and narcissus. A profusion of flowers, palms and foliage filled the rooms. In the parlors the flowers were white and yellow chrysanthemums, and in the dining-room pink carnations and roses, with tiny incense-cups peeping out from the ceiling decoration of groves and white. Mrs. R. R. McNerthey assisted Mrs. Scott in receiving. Mrs. A. A. Hoover and Mrs. C. E. Mathot had charge of the dining-room, and Mrs. George Dewey and Miss Imogene Rafferty served punch. Several telegrams of congratulation came from absent friends.

The out-of-town guests were: H. H. Tinker, father of the groom, and his daughters, Miss Tinker and Miss Myrtle Tinker, of Long Beach, Wash.; Mrs. R. B. Morley, Butte, Mont.; E. E. Groat, Grangeville, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Groat, Sherwood, Ore.; Mrs. E. C. Bulman, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. J. R. McNerthey, Tacoma, Wash.; Miss Vivian McKinney, Seaview, Wash., and E. E. Little, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinker will spend a few days in Portland, then will go to Long Beach to live.

Alfredson-Martin.

On Wednesday evening, November 24, at 9 P. M., Sarah Rachel Martin and Edward George Alfredson were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. Hiram Foulkes.

Miss Martin is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Hannah Martin. The bride was given away by her brother, Richard Martin, and was attended by Miss Sarah Rogers as maid of honor and Miss Helen Francis and Miss Bessie Francis as bridesmaids.

The groom was attended by Joseph Hodson, and Messrs. Urbane and Thomas M. Rogers, Jr., officiated as ushers. The bride was attired in white, messaline in train and wore orange blossoms. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, 425 West Park street, to relatives and immediate friends. After a trip to the sound cities Mr. and Mrs. Alfredson will be at home at 425 West Park street.

Staley-McDonald.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McDonald, of East Killingsworth avenue, their daughter, Susanna Christina, was married Thanksgiving day to MacConnell L. Staley, by Rev. J. Bowersox, of the United Brethren church. The best man was Joe Boyle, and the maid-of-honor Miss Grace Huber, both of Portland. The bride wore a white and pink silk gown, a beaver hat and carried bride roses. The house was decorated with Oregon grape and potted plants. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, cousins of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Staley left for a trip to Puget Sound and will be at home in Fullerton after December 1. Those present were Mrs. C. Sellinder, C. C. Shafer, G. E. Woodard, M. A. Salenger, A. P. Webb, J. Staley, M. Ray Sellinder, Ernest Sellinder, A. Erickson, Joe Biel, James W. Connolly and Master Walter Freeman.

Christian-Ganty.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred at the Trinity Lutheran Church, corner Williams and Graham avenues, on Tuesday evening, November 23, at 8 P. M., the contracting parties being Richard Christian and Louise Ganty. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms, lilies and chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by the bride's uncle, A. G. Kraus, and was groomed in white tulle and green foliage. The bride was groomed in white chiffon silk and carried a large bouquet of white daisies and narcissus. A profusion of flowers, palms and foliage filled the rooms. In the parlors the flowers were white and yellow chrysanthemums, and in the dining-room pink carnations and roses, with tiny incense-cups peeping out from the ceiling decoration of groves and white. Mrs. R. R. McNerthey assisted Mrs. Scott in receiving. Mrs. A. A. Hoover and Mrs. C. E. Mathot had charge of the dining-room, and Mrs. George Dewey and Miss Imogene Rafferty served punch. Several telegrams of congratulation came from absent friends.

Worthington-Warren.

Saturday evening, November 27, at 8:30 o'clock, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at Green's Hall, Oak Grove station, on the Oregon City electric line, when Miss Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Warren, became the bride of Charles A. Worthington. The hall was decorated for the occasion. An informal supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Christian will be at home to their friends after December 15, at 590 Going street.

Shavey-Gilbreth.

Fred W. Shavey and Miss Anna Gilbreth were married on December 1, at 228 Salmon street, the home of the groom's mother. A number of their intimate relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. Bowersox.

Allen-Finnigan.

At the home of S. M. Sleener, 25 East Twelfth street, George W. Allen and Miss Catherine Finnigan, were united in marriage, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. S. Black officiated.

Crittenden-Pomfrey.

John A. Crittenden and Mrs. Elvira J. Pomfrey, both of Portland, were married in the reception-room of the White Temple, Wednesday evening, December 1, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Amme-Hatfield.

Edwin G. Amme and Miss Eva A. Hatfield, both of Portland, were married at the White Temple, Monday, November 22, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Williams-Carroll.

Wednesday night at the parsonage of Rev. Mr. Cudlipp, pastor of Grace Methodist church, Miss Helen Carroll and S. Murray Williams were united in marriage. Mrs. Williams has been for the past 10 years connected with the Women and Woodcraft of Denver, Colo., and this city. Mr. Williams is the superintendent of the Orpheum Theater. Their romance began two years ago, when Mr. Williams was here on the U. S. S. Charleston. They will reside at Tenth and Morrison streets.

Janisch-Doran.

Aloysius Janisch and Miss Juliette Jane Doran were united in marriage Wednesday morning, December 1, by Rev. A. S. Lawler, at the Holy Rosary church. William Doran, brother of the bride, was best man and Miss Agnes Mitchell bridesmaid. Both are well known on the East Side.

Hickey-Catching.

W. M. Hickey and Miss Edna Catching, both of Portland, were married in the reception-room of the White Temple, Saturday evening, November 27, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wendler announce the engagement of their daughter, Mattie Caroline, to Alexander W. Rickett. The wedding will take place December 28.

COMING EVENTS.

Lloyd Dietrich, J. Albrecht and Herman Schultz were ushers. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. A. Rimbach, a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, 249 Tillamook street, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. An informal supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Christian will be at home to their friends after December 15, at 590 Going street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Watts, 110 Gibbs street, a number of people attended a whist party and dinner in honor of Mr. Watts' birthday. The prize-winners were Miss Eva Goldblatt and Mr. L. Brown. The evening was pleasantly enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Wesson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Forken, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. M. Romani, Mrs. Chamberlain, Miss Lund, Miss L. Schoen, Miss M. Wilson, Miss Eva Goldblatt, Mr. H. Watts, Mr. Playbuch, Mr. C. Anderson, H. Anderson, W. Robertson, N. Sary, J. B. Moos, J. Campbell, C. Schuyler and F. Leslie.

At the Y. W. C. A., Wednesday night, December 8, an unique club entertainment will be given. All Association members are invited to be present. The following programme will be rendered: "The Alphabet Punch," Holmes and Behnke-Walker, Bible Clubs; "An Off-Day at School," Tuesday Evening Bible Club; Songs, Alturi Octet; "The Modern and Medieval Ballad of Mary Jane," Eta Delta Club; Rump in the Gym, W. B. B.; "Three Deep," Alpha Delta Club; Refreshments a la carte style, Hee Hee Kalanganie; Humanophone, Tukanon Club; Awarding of prizes for club yeils.

An exhibition of the Oregon Ceramic Club will be given on December 5 and 10 at the Seward Hotel, Tenth and Alder streets, from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. The club has been doing original work for several years, and admirers of pretty hand-painted china may expect a treat. The original designs for this, the sixth annual exhibition, are to be executed on pitchers, and will, no doubt, be very attractive.

The Women's Guild of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, Irvington, will hold a bazaar in the parish house, East Seventeenth and Wadler streets, Wednesday afternoon and evening, December 8.

Wednesday afternoon the members of the Jolly Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Kinsey in Richmond.

Games, guessing contests and a dainty lunch filled a very pleasant afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. C. James, Mrs. A. Douglass, Mrs. C. Loucks, Mrs. E. H. Morse, Mrs. F. H. Wagner, Mrs. W. C. Wheeler, Mrs. C. Von Glan, Mrs. M. Harold, Mrs. H. Alkin and Mrs. C. Kinsey.

The U. D. C. will be entertained next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. H. Duff, 155 North Twenty-second street. All Southerners are cordially invited. Any Southern women in the city are invited to communicate with the president of the U. D. C., Mrs. C. J. Allen, 335 Halsey street, or phone East 2122, so they may be known and called upon.

An interesting programme will be given this afternoon at the Y. W. C. A., as follows: Reading from "Les Miserables," Mrs. Martha Lulu Drury; Scott; talk, "I Had a Friend," Miss Mary B. Day; music (piano) Miss Abby Whiteside, (vocal) Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Johnson. The Sunday afternoon programmes of the Y. W. C. A. are planned especially for girls.

The Portnouth Club will hold its first meeting of the month, Wednesday, December 8, in the committee-room, City Hall, promptly at 2:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

A letter written from Rome, received by relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Durkheimer, told of an interesting month spent in Italy, and of their departure from Naples for the United States November 26. Mr. and Mrs.

Durkheimer and son will remain a few days in New York, and will reach Portland for the holidays, after almost a year of continuous travel abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fernau will leave Monday, December 6, for an extended trip through California, for the benefit of Mr. Fernau's health. They expect to be gone until April. Mr. and Mrs. Fernau are the parents of Mrs. J. H. Penney, of Portland, George Fernau and the late Mrs. Eva Braden, of Seattle.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Frederic C. Torrey, of Vickery, Atkins & Torrey, San Francisco, announces his annual exhibition of paintings and fine prints for the coming week, ending December 11, at Suite 36, Portland Hotel. Not open evenings except Saturdays.

Leg Broken by Runaway.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Dec. 4.—The biggest strike in Kootenay for years has been made at the United mine in Ana-

(Special).—R. Field, of White Salmon, a pioneer of this valley, sustained a broken leg in a runaway accident yesterday. He was driving with D. Hunsaker, of this place, when the team became frightened and started to run. Mr. Field jumped out, and the broken leg resulted. Mr. Hunsaker remained in the wagon and escaped uninjured.
