DELIBIOUS WOMAN ACCUSES HUSBAND

Only One of Three Women Who Survives Fiendish Attack Gives Police Clew.

HUNT FOR NEGRO STILL ON

Savannah Mob, Roused by Brutality of Outrages and Murders, Tramps Countryside-Negroes Answering Description Put in Jail.

SAVANNAH. Ga., Dec. 11 .--- Mrs. Maggle Hunter, only survivor of the three women who were murderously attacked their home here yesterday, made statements in her delirium today that caused the re-arrest of her husband, J. C. Hunter

Physicians and nurses who have hoped to catch a word leading to a clew to the person who murdered Mrs. Eliza Gribble and her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Chandler, heard Mrs. Hunter say her husband had struck her. The po-lice was immediately notified and Hunter was taken in charge. Despite the injured woman's delirious talk, few believe anyone is guilty of the raik, isw believe anyone is guilty of the crime except the negro man, now miss-ing, who was seen to enter the house about the time of the murders with an axe in his hand. Rewards of $1300 have been offered for the negro's capture.

Throughout the man hunt, which lasted all night, intense excitement prevailed. So frenzied did the searchers become after learning that Mrs. Ohlander had been dered, that a white man who, by acci-dered, that a white man who, by acci-dent, had scratched his face, came near baing torn to pieces when the crowd saw nces were torn down and doors broken in. Every obstruction in the path of the crowd that would have afforded a probable hiding place for the fugitive was leveled.

The negro wanted is said to be 25 years of age and slender of build. Practically every negro who answers this description has been sent to jail during the night

Several persons have said they saw such a negro entering and afterward leaving the Gribble home about the time the murders are supposed to have been committed.

All of the victims had been cut or stabbed with a knife and then their heads cruched, presumably with an ax. Mrs. Hunter, despite her frightful inju-ries is thought to have a chance for recovery Mrs. Gribble was 72 years of age and Mrs. Ohlander 45. Mrs. Hunter is 35 years

"Why should the county be compelled to pay the expense incurred by a tramp when injured by the rallroad company, although at the time he was a trespasser?" asks County Attorney Stapleton. "If the train crews were diligent in their duty they would see to it that no tramps were allowed to remain on the train, so there would be no accident from this source

THIEF HAS CONSCIENCE

RETURNS STOLEN WATCH TO PO-LICE HEADQUARTERS.

Mysterious Package Brought to Station Contains Note That Starts Officers on Search.

Supposedly a Christmas token to one of the attaches of police headquarters, delivered early last evening by a street gamin, proved to be stolen property which a conscience-stricken thief was endeavoring to restore to the owner. "Here's a package, Mr. Policeman," said the urchin as he tiptoed with apprehension toward Captain Bailey wrapped in a newspaper. "Who is it for?" inquired the Captain. "Dunno-an of woman wid white hair guy it t' me t' take here," responded the child as he scurried from the place. After a moment of close observation Captain Bailey summoned an officer and handed him the package. "Take this to the matron-some figs or some-thing for a prisoner in the women's ward." of the attaches of pollce headquarters.

A few moments elapsed. The officer returned, package in hand, and said: "Mrs. Simmons doesn't like the looks of this-she thinks it's an infernal machine or polsoned tea and won't open it." "I'll open it." said "Andy" Sorenson, "Till open it," said "Andy" Sorenson, the telephone operator. He did. A gold watch, No. 13 size, was laid on the deak with the following note scrawled in pen and ink on a money order application: "Was in 'Port' from Southern Ore. on a few days' visit. It was a drunken idea I had to steal this watch and give it back to you when you were sober. I was never guilty of theft and do not want to be ever. Sorry to hear you were arrested. Wishing you good luck, E. H. C."

The police are endeavoring to ascer-tain the identity of the owner of the watch, as well as that of the con-science-stricken thief.

LEGE, Corvallis, Or., Dec. II.-(Spe-clal.)-Owing to a misunderstanding with the physical director, E. D. An-geil, the military ball, the foremost social event of the year, which is in progress tonight, came nearly having to be postponed. As in former years, the students expected to be allowed the use of the Armory Friday after-noon for a practice dance and to get the floor in condition. Just before as-sembly drill yesterday morning the physical director informed the com-mittee the Armory would be weeded of the Curtis Lumber Company near Mill City, Otis Jessup, 21 years old, sus-tained injuries from which he died a few hours afterward. He was single. The next day A. M. McClare, aged 29, married, was crushed between a post and saw in the sawmill of the same com-pany at Mill City, 18 miles east of Stay-ton, and terribly hurt, one leg being re-duced to a pulp. He soon expired. The latter has a mother in Portland, and the body has been shipped there for burial. the physical director informed the com-mittee the Armory would be needed for basketball and for physical cul-ture classes and would not be available for the dance until Saturday afternoon. On the strength of this announcement the dance had been postponed, when the City Council and the Coffee Club came to the rescue of the cadets and offered the fine floor of the City Hall for the affair.
