A Column of Suggestions from the Furniture Displays

Of some of the pieces that one would be proud to give or receive, you make no mistake as to the quality of a gift when you choose such as these.

The useful and attractive little Sewing Tables with every convenience. In mahogany. At $20.00 and up.

The Tip-top Tables—with tops hinged in center—they're so convenient. Of mahogany.

Muffin Stands—of mahogany—at $10.

Serving Trays—mahogany frames with English Cretonne backs under glass. At $11.00.

Pedestals, Tabourettes and Stools—the better pieces in mahogany. A pretty little mahogany footstool with haircloth top—at $7.00. A mahogany Stool with rush top at $11.00.

The "Colonial" Bedroom Chairs and Rockers—in solid mahogany, some with upholstered and rush seats. A Colonial Bedroom Rocker of solid Mahogany, with rush seat—at $10.00.

Those large "Colonial" Desks that show the very finest crotch mahogany, matched to excellence.

And those richly-carved old oak English pieces—they're splendid gift pieces. Some are upholstered in old verdure tapestry. Some have cane backs. One chair with leather upholstered seat—at $24.00.

Consol Tables and Mirrors—fine Colonial hall pieces—in mahogany.

And the large Colonial Library Tables—in mahogany—single and double pedestal bases and those with the heavy scroll posts.

The Parlor and Curio Cabinets—a complete showing. Handsome Colonial designs with glass shelves and mirror backs. In the mahogany. One in the beautiful violet wood is a splendid Empire reproduction.

Hall Clocks—cases in mahogany—Colonial and Gothic types. With and without chiming. A Colonial Hall Clock in mahogany at $85.00.

Chests—Trousseau or fur chests in mahogany and golden oak—cedar lined.

Cheval Mirrors—for the dressing room—every woman appreciates their convenience. The large Colonial styles in the mahogany. The lighter pieces in the birds-eye maple and the golden oak.

The gentleman's Chiffonier—it's the right kind of a gift—has every convenience, from a tie holder to a disappearing mirror.

Toilet Tables—another suggestion for a Christmas remembrance for "her." The best styles are here to choose from—in golden oak, in mahogany, in birds-eye maple and in walnut. One in solid oak, golden finish at $13.50. In mahogany at $15.50.

Book Cases—a line of them extending for 300 feet—mahogany, golden oak and fumed oak. An open-front bookcase in the golden oak or mahogany finish, with rod for curtain at $11.50. A bookcase with two glass doors at $19.50; others at $23.50, $28.00, $33.00 and up to $143.00.

The Roman Chairs make ideal gift pieces. Some in plain designs and others in artistically carved backs and arms. As low as $12.00 in the golden oak.

MACEY SECTIONAL BOOKCASES

The decorative as well as the practical possibilities of the Macey Bookcase are almost endless. Their popularity makes them a gift well appreciated. The many styles and finishes in which they are made enables them to be brought into harmony with any particular scheme of decoration. We show them in the mahogany, golden oak, weathered oak and the "artercraft" styles in the fumed oak.

Good Christmas News from the Cloak Section

Tailored Suits at $15

For Women, Misses, Little Women, Girls and Juniors

It's an occasion extraordinary for every woman or miss who needs a smart, practical suit—a sale event in which we repeat the offerings of a week or two ago, when the inclement weather prevented many from taking advantage. And to make it just as interesting we have assembled such a complete variety that there is every opportunity for choosing with satisfaction. About 150 suits—tailored in the newest fashions and in pleasing assortment of the favored materials and colors of the season. Fancy mixtures in stripes and basket weaves and the solid colors in chevrons, serges and homespuns. Almost a certainty that one must find satisfactory fit from such a complete range of sizes.

The Women's sizes—34 to 46.
The Misses' sizes—14, 16, 18 and 20.
The Juniors' sizes—13, 15 and 17.
All sizes in the Little Women's styles.
