

PROMINENT M' MINNVILLE COUPLE MARRIED.

MINNVILLE, Or., Dec. 17.—(Special).—The marriage of Miss LaVerne Roma Fenton and Jack B. Spence, both of this city, occurred at 8:30 last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Fenton.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. M. Williams, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who used the Presbyterian ring service. Miss Mariel Grison was bridesmaid, and Harry O. Wilkin, groomsmen. Nearly 100 guests witnessed the ceremony. The bride was richly gowned in white messaline, made an train, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Grison, the bridesmaid, was dressed in blue messaline and carried pink carnations.

The Fenton home was decorated in holly, Oregon grape, chrysanthemums and carnations, the bridal couple standing beneath a bell of incandescent lights hanging in the living-room.

Before the ceremony Mrs. M. D. Warren sang "I For You and You For Me," written to Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." Miss Osa Estes played Wagner's wedding march from "Lohengrin." Mrs. P. A. Dinschneider's violin solo during the ceremony was "Simple Confession," by Thome.

Mr. and Mrs. Spence will be at home to their friends within a few days at their home at Second and F streets.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Mr. Elmore has been a lover of horses for years, but has finally succumbed to the motor car.

Miss Cornelia Pinkham, of Spokane, who is attending the college at Eugene, arrived yesterday for a two weeks' visit at the home of her friend, Miss Alice E. Cornwall, at Piedmont.

MUSICAL AND SOCIETY.

The first regular meeting of the newly organized Portland chapter of the Euterpean Society of America will take place on Tuesday evening next, December 21, at 8:15 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, on Sixth and Taylor, under the presidency of Dr. Luther Doyt. The subject for study will be the "Rustic," as typified by the works of Burns, Millot and Greig, and the programme will be in the hands of Mrs. George Webster, Dr. Whitcomb Brounger and W. R. Boone. Members are hereby notified of the place of meeting. Admission to the meeting will be given on presentation of membership certificate, and cards of admission for the whole series of meetings will be issued on Tuesday evening to all those qualified to receive them. Non-members will be admitted to the auditorium on payment of 50 cents.

lunch was served by Misses Nina Joy, Ada Williams, Ruth Beach and Mildred Shaw.

Mrs. W. C. Dey entertained at five hundred Wednesday afternoon at her new residence on Willamette Heights in honor of her sister, Mrs. P. B. Vantress, who is visiting here from California. The prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Kerrman and Mrs. W. H. Rice.

Nathan Harris gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frost, of Seattle. Besides the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. George C. Plander, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, lately of The Dalles, and Mr. Lord, of Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Mitchell entertained the Extra Notes Five Hundred Club Monday evening. The prize winners were Mrs. Mitchell and Bert M. Denison. The club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Lee on December 27.

Mrs. B. F. Weaver entertained the Monday Bridge Club at a well appointed luncheon. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white. Mrs. E. P. Graham won the prize at bridge. The club will meet with Mrs. William Gadsby December 25.

A large and appreciative audience filled the Sixth-street Synagogue last Sunday evening to witness the Hanukkah exercises given by the Sabbath school classes, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Congregation Novah-Zedek Talmud Torah. It was the annual celebration of the historical victory of Jehoshaphat, the Maccabean, over his five brothers, the Hashmonaim, in the great struggle for home and country. The chief ceremony consisted of the lighting of the eight Hanukkah candles, in commemoration of the miracle connected with the victory, that although only one single vessel of oil was found in the temple, yet by a miracle it sufficed for eight nights while Israel's hosts were celebrating their great victory in purifying the Temple of Jehovah of idolatry.

The children did exceedingly well, under the instructions of their young teachers, who volunteered their services. Some of the teachers themselves are recent graduates from the Portland schools.

Short addresses were given by M. M. Ostrow, superintendent of the school; M. Gale, president of the congregation; and I. Bronberg. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. George M. Rubenstein.

The ceremonies were concluded by the singing of "America," in which the audience participated, after which books and candles were distributed to the pupils as prizes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richmond, on East Thirty-third street, was the scene of a pleasant social event last Saturday evening, the occasion being a surprise party to Mrs. Richmond incident to her departure on the 16th club was entertained with a piano selection by Miss Margaret Smith, who as an encore sang "Rosalee," and two interesting readings by Miss Signe Laek, while Mrs. J. S. Hamilton sang two old favorites. Those present were Mesdames Alex Muir, H. McCormick, F. R. Chown, W. O. Munnell, E. Nelson Allen, W. L. Borthwick, M. Cahill, Mrs. Owen Scott, A. M. Jeffress, J. M. A. Lave, A. W. Moore, H. Morgan, C. W. Pallat, J. O. Riggs, I. Staples, C. G. Tipton, D. T. Van Tine, J. S. Hamilton, James Moore, W. L. Sansome and J. McCormick.

An important meeting of the Men's Club of the Universalist Church was held Wednesday evening around a table laden with good things prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary. After the feast Abner Jones gave a surprise by calling upon Harry Gardner to play the violin. Then Pratt's Orchestra played mandolin selections. The quartet consisted of Lawrence Pratt, Lloyd Tompkins, Rex Pratt and Charles Brewster.

A brief speech was made by the president, stating his ambition for the club to become a means of bringing the liberal church into more helpful relations to the organized forces of the social world for the betterment of society. W. W. Hills prophesied for the club great increase in numbers and usefulness. Bartlett Cole, James Hills, Harvey Neal, A. Scott and E. B. Gear pledged hearty co-operation with Rev. James D. Corby's plans for an every-day church with educational and practical features. At subsequent meetings it is planned to secure the presence of experts in the different municipal and reform problems.

The Jolly Club met at the home of Mrs. F. H. Wagner, in Irvington, Wednesday afternoon. After a pleasant afternoon of games and music, lunch was served. Mrs. A. Nolan and Mrs. W. W.

Shinn won the prizes in the guessing games. Those present were: Mrs. George Spencer, Mrs. A. Nolan, Mrs. M. Harold, Mrs. C. James, Mrs. W. C. Wheeler, Mrs. C. Loucks, Mrs. C. Olson, Mrs. K. Erdner, Mrs. M. Douglas, Mrs. E. Keyser, Mrs. H. Morse, Mrs. M. Murphy, Mrs. W. W. Shinn, Mrs. A. Baker and Mrs. F. Wagner. The next party will be at the home of Mrs. K. Erdner, on December 29.

The Hawthorne Literary Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. M. O. Forrest, 23 East Thirty-fourth street, Wednesday afternoon. Musical numbers were given by Miss Anna Pennick and Mrs. W. H. Voss, and a paper on the life of Nathaniel Hawthorne was read by Mrs. R. E. Bondurant. The members present were Mrs. L. H. Adams, Mrs. Peter Borgan, Mrs. M. O. Forrest, Mrs. J. E. Nelson, Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, Mrs. J. E. Graham, Mrs. C. A. Pascoe, Mrs. W. W. Terry, Mrs. W. T. Joplin, Mrs. J. A. C. Brant, and Mrs. W. H. Voss. The guests were Mrs. Arthur Nicholson, Miss Bonnie Forrest, Miss Alice Peesble and Miss Anna Pennick. The officers of this club are: President, Mrs. R. E. Bondurant; vice-president, Mrs. L. Adams; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Voss. The club will meet December 23 with Mrs. W. W. Terry, at 607 Mulberry street.

The Wednesday Evening 500 Club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Douly, December 15. After cards the guests were invited to the dining-room, presumably for lunch, but were surprised to find a Christmas tree laden with gifts for the members and visitors. After dainty refreshments had been served, prizes were awarded to Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith. The club had for visitors Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Montgomery and Mrs. Bronson. The next meeting of the club will be with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare, 234 Caruthers street, January 5, 1910.

The regular meeting of the Monday Musical Club will be held at Ellers hall, Monday, December 20, at 8:20 o'clock. The afternoon will be devoted to "Amer-

Special music has been prepared for the Christmas service at St. David's Church by Miss Sana M. Jones, choir director, assisted by Madam d'Auria, soprano, formerly of New York and a member of Damrosch's Oratorio Society for many years.

Miss Florence Day has been appointed organist of St. Stephen's Episcopal Pro-Cathedral, Miss Day is an accomplished organist, and recently gave an organ recital with much success.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A notable company of young people gathered in the parlors of the First Congregational Church on Wednesday evening, the occasion being a reception given by the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Church to the associations of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. of the city. An attractive programme had been prepared. The "Hurlanphone," furnished by the Tu Kalon Society of the Y. W. C. A., and exploited by "Bertha Jones" (Miss Florence Wood), provoked much laughter. A cornet solo was given by Mr. Wetmore, of the Y. M. C. A., and followed by piano solo by Miss Martha Durkoop, and a comedy, "His Lordship the Burglar," by members of the society. In the sketch Mr. English gave an impersonation of an Englishman, while F. W. Nelson portrayed a burglar. The part of Miss Haber-sham was taken by Miss Mark LaBarre, who did some clever acting in the burglary scene. After the programme
