MRS. JAMES'S COUSIN WHO HAS COME DOWN FROM HER WHITE SALMON BEACH FOR THE HOLIDAYS

A DAUGHTER OF THE LATE MRS. ROBERTA FIDELLER BURELL, THE BROTHER OF MRS. JAMES'S BURELL, MRS. W'S. BIDDLE AND MRS. GORDON WILSON

MRS. THOMAS SHARP OF PRINEVILLE, OR. (MRS. MARGARET MORRISON) WHO CHAPERONED A THEATER PARTY ON MONDAY GIVEN BY THOMAS SCOTT BROOKE

CHRISTMAS being the busy season of the year, few can take time immediately before its arrival for entertaining other than family parties. Children have been the lords of the household, and will continue to hold sway until after the New Year. Much credit is due the girls and matrons who devoted so much energy and time to the selling of Red-Cross stamps, and to the public at large who bought with such generosity. Enough purchases were made by various individuals to paper the entire house, while some unknown person with more enthusiasm than sense of propriety, entirely covered his handsome bulldog with the bright little stickers.

Mrs. Margaret Montgomery is spending Christmas in London, where she recently arrived, having sailed Tuesday, December 14, on the Princessin Crown Cecilia, in company with her cousin, Lady Alan Johnstone, Mrs. Drexel of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret Drexel. Miss Montgomery will later visit with Mrs. Drexel, who has a house in London. Lady Johnstone was formerly Miss Pinchot, a sister of Gifford Pinchot, of Washington, D. C. Early in February Lady Johnstone will leave for Copenhagen, to join her husband, who is the British Minister to Denmark, and Miss Montgomery will accompany her.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wakefield leave on a tour abroad. On January 4 Mrs. Wakefield will go to Oakland, where she will spend several days with her daughter, Mrs. George L. Walker, and there she will be joined by Mr. Wakefield. On January 17 they leave Oakland for New York, sailing on the Cedric, February 2. They will take the Mediterranean trip, visiting Palestine, Constantinople, and other points. In August they go to Oberammergau, for the "Passion Play," and later will spend some time in Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Sr., Miss Frances Warren and Miss Grace Warren will leave this coming week for Egypt on a tour of Europe. They will go at once to New York, and will sail on the Corona, taking the Mediterranean route. No definite time for returning has been announced, and they have no set itinerary.

Hamilton Corbett is home from Harvard for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Corbett is vice-president of his class, one of the three greatest half-backs in the country, and an officer of the student council. Coming home with him as his guest was Harry McCall, son of Congressman McCall, of Massachusetts.

Mr. Ferdinand Thieriot, of San Francisco, the fiance of Miss Hazel Dolph, arrived on Wednesday to spend the holidays here, and is a guest at the Portland Hotel. During his visit a number of affairs are being planned, as Miss Dolph is one of the most charming and popular girls in Portland.

On Friday of this week Miss Claire Houghton will be a dinner hostess at the Hotel Portland grill, entertaining for Miss Dolph and Mr. Thieriot. Her guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dolph, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Ise Koehler, Miss Nan Robertson, Hawley Hoffman, Antoine Labbe, Gerald Beebe, George Warren and Raymond Wilcox.

To meet Ferdinand Thieriot, a dancing party is to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mr. Leland Smith Thursday evening at their residence, 441 Twenty-first street.

Miss Katherine MacMaster, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, who has been abroad for some months, will spend the holidays in Paris with her chaperone, Miss Courtney Lewis.

Miss Marie MacMaster, who has been attending school near Baltimore, is spending Christmas in New York, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Prissell (Miss Antoinette Montgomery).

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin have returned from a visit in New York, where they have been since early in November.

Dr. and Mrs. E. De Witt Connell, little Jane Connell and nurse will sail in a few days on the Royal Mail steamer Astoria for Buenos Ayres, South America, touching at Lisbon, Madeira Islands, Canary Islands, St. Vincent, Rio Janeiro. In Buenos Ayres they will be the guests for a week of A. Savandro, who is said to have the finest estates in the Argentine. He is the grandson of the late President. Upon their return to Paris they will leave at once for Vienna, where Dr. Connell will specialize in the hospital.

Soon after January 1 Miss Vida Reed will leave for New York, where she will attend the Frohman Dramatic School. While in the East she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Van Buren, of Jamaica, L. I. Mrs. Van Buren, it will be recalled, is a recent bride who was dainty De Bernard, a member of the Baker Stock Company, and the only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Bernard.

Harold Reed, who recently had his leg broken in a game of football at Stanford University, has entirely recovered from the accident and is spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Rose Courson Reed.

For Miss Evelyn Wilson, the recent debutante, Thomas Scott Brooke entertained Monday evening with a theater party at the Bungalow to see George M. Cohan in "The Yankee Prince," followed by a supper at the Portland Grill. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp, of Prineville, were the chaperones, and besides the honor guest were Miss Leslie Weldler, Miss Ise Koehler, Richard Jones and Gerald Beebe.

During the Yuletide season children have been proud hosts at parties of various descriptions. Henry Ladd on Christmas eve entertained with a supper party, followed by a Christmas tree. On Tuesday evening Crosby Shevlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, will be the host at a dancing party which is attracting much pleasurable anticipation among the very young set, and on Friday Ailsa MacMaster, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, will give a luncheon at the country residence of the MacMasters near the golf links.

The fourth of the Fortnightly dances was held at Murlark Hall on Monday evening. Following the dance Mr. and Mrs. Patterson Ellinger, asked the following guests to supper at the Hotel grill: Mr. and Mrs. Morton Inley, Major and Mrs. James Conby, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mears, and Dr. and Mrs. Otis Wight.

Mrs. William D. Skinner will leave shortly after the holidays to join her husband in Seattle, where the Skinners will make their home for some time. Mr. Skinner has been recently transferred to Seattle as general freight and passenger agent of the Oregon and Washington, the Puget Sound extension of the Harriman lines, and left for that city last Sunday.

Some exceptionally handsome gowns and jewels were worn at the reception yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6, which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, in honor of Miss Flora Fleischner and her fiance, Mr. Henry Metzger. The Meier residence, on Clay street, was beautifully decorated, English holly and Christmas greens predominating. Seating at the attractively arranged table were: Mrs. L. N. Fleischner, Mrs. Aaron J. Meier, Mrs. Frederick Soller and Mrs. Adolphe Wolfe. Punch was served in one of the drawing-rooms by Mrs. I. Lang. Assisting in receiving were: Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Abe Meier, Mrs. Marcus A. Fleischner, Miss Mae Hirsch, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Miriam Jacobs, Miss Frances Jacobs and Miss Marie Louise Feldenheimer. Mrs. Julius Meier appeared in a French gown of a delicate grayish satin, trimmed with handsome lace and worn with orchids. Miss Flora Fleischner, in a foreign gown of pearl sequins, over rose pink satin; Mrs. L. N. Fleischner, in a lovely gown of apricot chiffon, worn with a string of pearls; Mrs. Aaron Meier, in a black real lace gown over chiffon, with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Frederick Soller in an Irish lace gown, worn with a pearl and diamond collar; Mrs. Adolphe Wolfe, in a robe of Irish lace; Mrs. Marcus A. Fleischner, in a Paris robe of black embroidered Dresden chiffon; Mrs. Sigmund Frank, in an Irish crocheted gown, worn with diamonds and sapphires; Mrs. Abe Meier, in a black panne velvet with a rope of pearls; Miss Mae Hirsch, in a white embroidered crepe, with a corsage bouquet of orchids; Miss Florence Wolfe, in light blue chiffon, with violets; Miss Frances Jacobs, in an American Beauty shade of chiffon; Miss Miriam Jacobs, in delicate blue satin; Miss Florence Kohn, in embroidered crepe, with which she carried American Beauty roses; Miss Feldenheimer, in a girlish lingerie frock, and Mrs. I. Lang, in a striking gold sequin gown over a cloth of gold foundation, and worn with a diamond collar.

On Monday evening, Miss Ella Hirsch entertained the members of the Monday Bridge Club and their husbands. Favors were attractive objects d'art, while small Christmas trees with appropriate favors were introduced. Playing in lieu of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd were Mrs. Arthur Minott and Mr. Harry Montgomery.

Mrs. Oscar Overbeck and Miss Katherine Overbeck have returned from several weeks' visit in Michigan, Kansas City and Spokane.

A large reception will be given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. H. Northrup, Mrs. H. E. Northrup, Mrs. W. L. Northrup and Miss Northrup, at which time they will be at home at 599 Elizabeth street, Portland Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Powers left yesterday for a trip East. They will visit Grand Rapids, New York and New Orleans, being in the latter city during the Mardi Gras.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spencer, whose Swiss chalet, at Ewahee, is a picturesque spot of the Riverdale colony, will leave early this coming month for New York and Florida. They will be gone two months and after visiting Palm Beach, they will return home, coming via Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Palmer are members of a house party during the holidays in New York. Mrs. Palmer was formerly Miss Lillian Campbell, and is taking up their residence in the East. Mr. Palmer has attracted attention by his clever cartoons and his contributions to the funny supplements.

Miss Mary Livingstone, who returned last Summer from a finishing school in Boston, is to be the hostess at a dancing party on Monday evening at their residence on Kings Court.

Mrs. O. P. Wolcott with her little daughter, Owens, leave tonight for a trip to San Francisco.

Miss Courson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Courson, returned Monday from a four months' visit in Minneapolis, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Draper Dayton. Miss Courson spent five weeks in the early Summer sight-seeing in Yellowstone Park and while stopping at the Canyon had the thrilling experience of guiding two separate parties of tourists to the bottom of the canyon and out again without a single mishap.

The second of the series of subscription dances took place on Wednesday evening at Murlark Hall, and proved even more successful than its predecessor. For these dances the girls and matrons appear in semi-decollete frocks, for the most part, the majority of men wear dinner jackets and a pleasing informality is the keynote. The club list includes Mr. and Mrs. A. Boody, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. J.
