Rummage Sale--A Great Annual Bargain Event--Every Department Is Contributing

Commencing Monday at 9:30 o'Clock

No sale is of such magnitude or better known to Portlanders than this great annual clean-up, in which every section of the store participates—all uniting in offering the greatest bargains of the year—valuing at its best—the disposing of all odds and ends, broken stocks, discontinued patterns, many sample pieces and other items that have accumulated in the past few months. It's a selling event that is eagerly awaited by many—who are quick to take advantage of its remarkable bargain offerings. So numerous are the items which the various departments have prepared that we've found it impossible to assemble them all on one floor as in former Rummage Sales. You'll find our arrangement this year to be more to your convenience and comfort—we've marked every article in such a way that there is no possibility of your overlooking them.

Store will not open until 9:30 A. M.
Positively no articles will be exchanged that are selected from the Rummage Sale stock.
Long-distance phone, telegraph and mail orders received in proper time will have the same attention as if you had made your selection in person.
Delivery at our earliest convenience.
The following represent only a few of the many Rummage bargains:
