

GREAT PIANISTE COMING

New York Reviewer Praises Carreno's Fine Technique and Power—Will Play Here at Bungalow.

MME. CARRENO.

Carreno, who plays here next Wednesday evening at the Bungalow, has just played in New York, and Emille Frances Bauer, the critic, wrote in the New York Evening Mail of her tremendous success, as follows: "Mme. Carreno played the Grieg piano concerto yesterday afternoon with the New York Symphony Orchestra, under Walter Damrosch, before an exceedingly large audience in the New Theater. That Mme. Carreno played with a dazzling brilliancy and dash need not be recorded, for she has always done this. "Of her fluency, of the remarkable details of her technique, it may be added that there is no pianist before the public today more admirably equipped in this manner, but there is a lovely singing tone, a marvelous legato at the command of this great artist that should have been a lesson as well as an inspiration to the innumerable students of the piano, who never seem to realize that it is possible to make the piano sing instead of merely playing the instrument. To this, even more than to the splendid intelligence and the powerful personality which carries far over the footlights, does she owe the absolutely unique position which she holds in the world of pianists. She answered some five or six recalls. This splendid artist will present a magnificent programme at the Bungalow next Wednesday evening. The recital is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman.

WEDDINGS.

Taylor-Nicholas.

One of the pretty weddings of the week was that of Miss Lida Nicholas and Dolph Taylor, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Nicholas, 549 East Ankeny street, Dr. T. L. Elliot officiating. The bride was given in Oriental crepe over mouseline, and carried a shower of bride roses. She was attended by her cousins, the Misses Pearl Baker and Mona Fargher, gowned alike in pink, carrying pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brothers, Harry and Frank Taylor.

The simple service was read under a bower of palms, ferns and white carnations, fastened by streamers of white tulle ribbon, supporting doves. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink chrysanthemums, holly, Oregon grape, ferns and palms. A reception followed the ceremony. Miss Frances Arnold served punch, and the Misses Louise and Vieve Cecil poured tea and coffee. Serving in the dining-room were the Misses Alice Arnold, Edith Shannon, Bertha and Ella Koonitz. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will spend their honeymoon in California.

Aronson-Silverfield.

The wedding of Miss Ruby Silverfield to Myron H. Aronson, of Seattle, was quietly celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Silverfield, 889 Flanders street, on Wednesday evening, Dr. Jonah B. Wise officiating. Owing to the illness of the groom's sister the wedding included only the members of both families. The Silverfield residence was elaborately decorated with palms, Easter lilies and chrysanthemums. Miss Alice Aronson, of Seattle, was the matron of honor, and Sam Friedman, the best man. The bride, who is a striking brunette, was most attractively gowned in shimmering white satin, adorned with pearls and point lace. Her tulle veil was held by orange blossoms, and she wore a diamond and pearl pendant, the gift of the groom. Miss Aronson appeared in a heavily embroidered lingerie frock, over pink and carried a basket of pink rose buds. Mr. and Mrs. Aronson left for a trip to California, and upon their return will be at home in Seattle at the Butler Annex.

YOU NEED NOT BE BALD

How to Stop Dandruff and Give New Life to Your Hair.

Of all nourishing tonics that give life and vitality to the follicles and roots of the hair none is more widely used, says Mrs. Marie in "Modiste," than the Beta Quinol tonic—perhaps because it can be made at home at small cost.

There is no excuse for dandruff—no excuse for dull colored and dry hair—no excuse for falling hair—no excuse for at least half the bald heads you see. A good hair tonic used once or twice a week will prevent dandruff, invigorate the hair follicles and keep the hair beautiful, abundant and glossy.

Just get from your druggist one ounce of beta quinol and one-half pint of alcohol; mix with one-half pint of warm water. Or put the ounce of beta quinol in a pint of bay rum. Either method of mixing will please you, for it is the Beta Quinol that keeps the scalp healthy and puts new life into the hair.
