SALE ON 4TH FLOOR ANNEX-AN EVENT OF INTEREST TO BOOK LOVERS. EDITION DE LUXE BOOKS AT ABOUT ONE-FOURTH PUBLISHERS! PRICES-SALE ON 4TH FLOOR ANNEX

This is the culmination of well-known panic conditions in the Subscription Book Trade. Some big publishing failures are known to the public, but only bankers and others on the inside understand the extensive financial difficulties which have caused this enormous Forced Sale. At the inflated Subscription Prices $6,000,000 worth of Fine de Duxe Editions were recently thrown upon the market by leading Subscription Publishers, Printers and Binders, who were compelled to unload at any price to raise money. A Subscription Publishers' Clearing House was formed to distribute the enormous stocks among leading houses in large cities. We bought heavily, securing the entire allotment for this City, and therefore we offer these Superb Editions exclusively here.

The sale comprises de luxe publications of many subscription houses, including Bigelow, Smith & Co., The Davos Press, Gebbie & Co., The Nottingham Society and The Chesterfield Society. Under the two last mentioned imprints were re-issued from the same plates the fine de luxe sets of standard authors formerly published and extensively sold through agents by John D. Morris & Co., Philadelphia. All the best sets advertised widely in magazines and sold by agents at high prices you'll find right here at astonishing bargain prices. You can now get three or four magnificent sets for the subscription price of one. Select the favorite authors you want and enjoy the possession of a fine private library, a creditable ornament in your home and a good investment in every way.

At About 25c on the Dollar These are not ordinary trade sets sold everywhere, but genuine de luxe bargains offered exclusively by us in this city The Booklover's Opportunity

Oscar Wilde

Sub. Price, $72.00, SALE PRICE, $21.95

A great Poet, Playright, Novelist and Essaylst. Literaure presents few more remarkable careers than that of Oscar Wilde. While yet a student at Oxford his poems were compared with those of Tennyson. In 1882, when only twenty-six years old, his lecture tour of America netted him over $30,000. He was undoubtedly the greatest playwright of his time. This only complete authorized edition de luxe is now for the first time made accessible for American readers by special arrangement with Wilde's literary executor. Mr. Robert Ross, and with the London publishers, Methuen & Co. The plates of this edition, which were imported from England, are the same as those of the rare English edition issued by Methuen & Co. of which only a few sets found their way to America, to be quickly bought up by bibliophiles at $75 and upward per set.

Space here permits mention of only a few more important titles, such as The Duchess of Padus (first complete edition). Intentions and other Essays complete, Poems, Ravenna, The Sphinx, Ballad of Reading Gaol, the Harlots House, and all poems complete, including many never before published, Lady Windermere's Fan, A Woman of no importance, Florentia Tragedies, Vera, The Whillists, Salome, and all other plays complete: The Picture of Dorlan Grey, A House of Formegrantes, The Happy Prince, Lord Saville's Crime, and all other tales and novels complete.; Reviews and Miscellanies newly coleited and published for the first time. 10 volumes.

The type of these English plates is extra large and handsome, printed on superfine white wove paper with the Aldus de luxe watermark. The illustrations in photogravure and half tone are from original drawings. Cloth binding, veilum labels, gold tops, uncut edges.

Alexandre Dumas is declared by countless enthusiastic admirers to be the prince of romancers. He carries along the reader breathless with interest, through plots and counterplots, ingentous intrisues, humorous situations, and never-onding adventures, all told with inimitable wit and dialogue.

Booklovers should not confound this new edition de luxe with the numerous very incomplete sets of Dumas which omit many of his most brilliant novels. Probably the world will never see an absolutely complete set of Dumas, for it is alexandre Dumas. Impressible to discern positively all of Dumas own writings from those to which he allowed his name to be placed, although written by others in the "Dumas Syndicate of Authors."

The present new edition, however, contains all of the recognized masterpleces of Dumas, about 13,000 pages, and therefore may be called practically complete—the most translations. This Edition de luxe in the recognized masterpleces of Dumas about 13,000 pages, and therefore may be called practically complete—the most translations. Illustrated with numerous duotones in two colors, the type, paper and press work are excellent.

fully printed from new plates. The paper is a pure white wove of extra quality.

The illustrations include S3 beautiful full page reproductions in photogravure and duotone (two colors) from original paintings of distinguished modern artists.

The notes is addition to the author's own notes there are numerous notes by the well-known critic and author, Mr. Charles Welsh.

It should be stated here that there is no absolutely complete set of Longfellow. The most important poem omitted from the present edition, because of certain copyright restrictions is "The Hanging of the Crane," which, however, is sold is various cheap editions. On the other hand this new edition contains, besides the original editorial matter referred to, a great deal of Longfellow's prose and poet leal writings not obtainable in any other edition. For example, we have here for the first time in book form "The Bald Eagle" and "The indian Summer," two brilliant stories written in the author's best style. Therefore, it may be safely stated that this is by far the most satisfactory set of Longfellow ever published.
