The Last Week of January Clearance Sale

-We have planned this sale according to the Lipman, Wolfe & Company's idea of store keeping and that puts prices down to where merchandise advertised in this sale will sell on sight, down to where you will be compelled by the sheer force of the values to pronounce this, our pre-inventory sale, the greatest gathering of bargains ever presented to a shopping public.

-If we could gauge our selling capacity accurately, there would be no need of these sacrifices. But a store of our size is compelled to keep a full stock right up to January sale time. We always over-buy rather than under-buy. With four months of constant wear ahead of you, our entire stock of outer garments is offered at LESS THAN HALF PRICE—phenomenal prices. We take as much pleasure in selling these coats, suits and capes at half price as at regular prices. He's a sorry merchant who regrets the giving of a bargain. You have never seen the equal of this sale at any time, in any city.
