Pauper Oath Refused to Land Conspirator. M'DONALD BACK IN JAIL. Hearing Before Commissioner Cannon Shows That Prisoner Mortgaged Cattle He Now Asserts Are Property of Wife.

At the close of a hearing, United States Commissioner Cannon yesterday refused to administer the pauper oath to George H. McDonald and remanded the prisoner to the Multnomah County Jail. McDonald will be required to dispose of all of his property in excess of $20 and pay the proceeds into court in partial discharge of his fine of $2500, or remain in jail two years.

Pine Unexpectedly Large. McDonald then stated to the District Attorney that he had not expected that his fine would reach so large a figure, and received permission to return to Pendleton to raise the money.

Mortgage Tells Story. The fact also developed that he is the owner of eight horses. McDonald asserted that the stock belonged to his wife and children, but did not explain the action in mortgaging a part of the animals.
