Modrath, R. G. McPhetson, Walter J.

MoBrien, Robert Noble, Consul and Mrs.

Wash. Mas Hasel, Croker, Mas Olive

Rodwell, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey,

Thomas Buchester, Mr. and Mrs. Rusself

and Mrs. W. H. Skene, Mr. and Mrs.

M. Butth, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith, Le
Mr. and Mrs. Zera Row. Mr. and Mrs.

M. Butth, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith,

J. H. Strong, Flowden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Howden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Howden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Flowden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Howden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Flowden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Flowden Stott, Harold Saw,

R. H. Strong, Howden Stott, Harold Saw,

Mrs. Allow Mrs. Hall, Harold Saw,

Mrs. Carlow, Mrs. Major, And Mrs.

H. H. W. Corbest, Mrs. And Mrs.

R. W. H. Howden, Mrs. Good on West of the Mrs.

R. W. H. Howden, Mrs. Good on West of the Worker,

R. W. H. Howden, Mrs. Hall, Harold Saw,

Mrs. Allow, Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Wessinger,

Hamilton Brooke, Joan Howden, Howden,

Mrs. Gray, Landell Golph, Helen East
Bonn, Shore, Bartle Baar, Henrietta, Bliot,

R. H. W. Corbett Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Corbett Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Corbett Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Gorbert Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Gorbert Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Gorbert Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett,

R. H. W. Harris, R. Falling, Kalprin,

R. W. H. Harris, R. Falling, Kalprin,

R. W. H. Harris, R. Falling, and Mrs. James Woodward, of St. Paul, are at the Hotel Portland. Mr. Woodward is the general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Mrs. Woodward was Miss Nellie Burnside, a member of a pioneer family for whom Burnside street was named.

A wedding in which Portlanders were intersted was that of Miss Sidonia Eurth, of Seattle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Furth, and Captain Alexander Macomb Wetherill, U. S. A. The wedding took place a week ago yesterday, at 11 A.M., at Trinity Chürch, Miss Anna Furth Terry was the maid of honor, and Captain Wetherill was attended by Lleutenant Julian Dodge. Captain and Mrs. Wetherill left for California from which place they sailed yesterday for the Philippines. The tride is a charming and accomplished girl. She attended a finishing school in New York and has traveled extensively, spending several seasons in Vienna, Paris and London, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Frederick Carl by her sister, Mrs. Frederick Carl Struve, who has visited here with the Struve, who have Misses Flanders, Captain Wetherill is from Philadel-phia. He is a descendant of Hugh Wynn, famous in history as the founder of the Free Quakers of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Frank Branch I of the Free Quakers of Pennsylvania. Captain Wetherill distinguished himself in the Spanish-American War, where he received several medals from the Government in recognition of his services. He is the cousin of Mrs. Josiah Collins, of Seattle. The bride's gown departed from the usual white satin. She is a tall brunette type of beauty and was strikingly handsome in a gown of chiffon, shading from peach to apricot. Her hat was of the same coloring, with a curied oaprey plume, and she carried lilles of the valley and white orchids. Miss Terry were a gown of blue satin made with a Russian blouse overdress of gray chiffon trimmed with chinchilla fur and worn with a chinchilla muff. Mrs. Struve were black crepe de chine, with and worn with a chinchilla muff. Mrs. Struve wore black crepe de chine, with trimmings of steel and touches of emerald green. Furs of chinchilla and black picture hat completed the costume. Miss Dorothy Terry, sister of the bride, was admired in a red-embroidered crepe, ermine furs, and a velvet picture hat with one great white magnoila.

For some weeks a series of interest-For some weeks a series of interesting talks on Wagnerian operas has been given by Mrs. Curtis, each Monday morning at the residence of Miss Sally Lewis. The club consists of a number of congenial people, who are enthusiastic over Mrs. Curtis' ability. Mrs. Curtis is a scholarly woman who has seen much travel and gives a delightful interpretation, showing an excellent grasp of her subject.

Mrs. Chauncey Winslow (Miss Alice Siben) received word last week of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Howard Winslow, who is well known here Mr. Winslow has been a sufferer from rheumatism but his death was sudden and came as a great blow.

The French Ambassador, M. Jusse-and, and Madame Jusserand, who were he motif for a large reception given ast Summer by Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. bolph, are entertaining considerably this Winter in Washington, D. C. On Monday they were dinner hosts, having as guests, the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. MacVeagh, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson, Senator and of War and Mrs. Dickinson, Senator and Mrs. Robert McCormick. Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Oliver. General and Mrs. Clarence Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Glover, Lieutenant and Mrs. U. S. Grant, Jr. the military attache of the French Embassy and Countess de Chambrus. Brigadier-General Crozier and Captain Archibald Butt.

For Miss Anita Burns and Miss Evelyn Wilson, the recent debutants, Miss Dorothy Morrison asked to tea on Friday afternoon, Mrs. Marion Dolph, Mrs. George Barton French, Mrs. W. S. Biddle, Mrs. Elliott Corbett, Mrs. J. Andre Foullhoux, Miss Susan Clarke, Elis Lisa Wood, Mis Margaret Watter, Miss Borti Baar, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Olive Failing, Miss Cor-nel'a Coek, Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Carolize Burns, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Dorothy Josselyn,

Rev. J. Bloch and Mrs. Bloch left on Tuesday for Southern California for a stay of three months. Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, on the completion of her visit in New York, will join her parents in Los eldest has been named John, for Colonei
John McCraken, and the second, a girl, is called Margaret, for Mrs. McCraken's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biddle have returned from a visit in Philadelphia and New York and are now at their apartments at the Hotel Nortonia. Miss Becky Biddle, who has been visiting in the East, is now one of the guests at a house party at Fort Russell, Wyo., given

Leo W. White, of Portland, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis streets,

Lee W. White, of Portland, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Pitteenth and Davis Streets, by Rev. Father O'Hara.

Miss Shiner is a beautiful young woman whose home was formery in Chicago, where her parents now reside. Mr. White is a singer and has become a prime favorite in Portland.

The couple will be attended at the marriage service by Mrs. H. Hollinger, Jr., of Spokane, and L. M. Lasley, of Portland. They will reside in Portland until next August, when they expect to go East to remain.

ter. On last Tuesday the Bishopcroft was filled during the afternoon, owing to the fact that Bishop and Mrs. Scadding have as their guest Mrs. William Baker, of Detroit, Mich., who has visited here before. Mrs. Baker has traveled much abroad and plays a fine game of bridge. Among the callers were Mrs. Arthur Minott, Mrs. E. T. C. Stephens, Mrs. S. B. Linthicum, Mrs. Zera Snow, Miss Clementine Wilson, Mrs. George McBride, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mrs. Eliot Corbett, Mrs. C. B. S. Wood, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Cile Billa Hirsch, Miss Mary Failing, Miss Olive Failing, Miss Mary Failing, Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Miss Mary Failing, Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Mrs. J. B. Montgonery, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. W. S. Biddle, Mrs. Gordon Voorhiee, Mrs. Francis J. Heney, Mrs. Henry Cabell, Mrs. J. Andre Foulihoux, Mrs. James Woodworth, of St. Paul; Miss Jewell and Miss Quisg. The tea urn was presided over by Mrs. W. J. Burns and Miss Henrietta Failing.

T. W. B. London will leave today for New York, sailing thence for a five months' visit in England at his former home, which he has not visited for the past eight years.

The Visiting Nurse Association's annual birthday tea on February 14, in the drawing-rooms of the Hotel Portland, is aling-rooms of the Hotel Portland, is already attracting interest. The hours are from 3 to 5. During the first hour the following matrons will serve tea: Mrs. T. L. Ellot, Mrs. Philip Wasserman, Mrs. Raieigh Stott and Mrs. P. J. Mann; the second hour, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. W. S. Biddle and Miss Burke will preside: Mrs. George F. Russell and Mrs. Gustave Simon have charge of the arrangements of the tables and Miss Sally Lewis and Mrs. Julius L. Meiler will receive the birthday coin bags. Melbr will receive the birthday coin bags at the deer. The members of the Visit-

Mrs. Frank Branch Biley and her mother, Mrs. Brant, of San Jose, Cal., were recent visitors in Los Angeles during the aviation meet.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Knowlton, of Freeport, Ill., and Robert Strong, of Portland, was selemnized on Tuesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dexter A. Knowlton, in Freeport. The ceremony was performed at 4 P. M. by Rev. Howard B. French, of Chicago. Mrs. Strong is a sister of Mrs. Frederick Strong whom she wisted last Summer Strong is a sister of Mrs. Frederick Strong, whom she visited last Summer. She is a girl of decided charm of manner, a Smith College graduate, and musically inclined. She has studied with Codowsky, Regina Watson and Harrison Wild, following this by two years as assistant in the musical department of Rockford College. Mr. Strong is a member of one of the most prominent pioneer families and for the last three years has been manager of the Corbett estate. His father was the late Dr. Curtis C. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Strong will sail February Mr. and Mrs. Strong will sall February 5 from New York for Gibraltar. They will be gone three months and are planning later to join Mrs. Curtis Strong and Miss Alice Strong in Paris. Upon their visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kerry at their return, Mr. and Mrs. Strong will occupy Mrs. Curtis Strong's residence on Clay street, while the latter is continuing her European travels.

T. W. B. London will leave today for New York, sailing thence for a five months' visit in England at his former home, which he has not visited for the past eight years.

The Irvington Club will give a Valentine dancing party on Friday, February 11, at the clubhouse.

C. E. S. Wood is now in New York on a business trip. Mrs. Frank Nau gave a small bridge party yesterday, and she will again en-tertain this coming Saturday with a bridge tea.

included Miss Caroline the Orpheum, Burns, Miss Ilse Koehler, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Frances Wilson, A. King, Antonine Labbe, Kurt Koehler and Haw-ley Hoffman. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neustadter and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Herrman have left San Francisco for Los Angeles and will visit all the points of interest in California before returning home.

Mrs. C. E. Curry left on Friday even-ing for several weeks in California.

Mrs. Parish L. Willis is at present visiting in Seattle with her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. George Nottage.

5. Benson and Miss Caroline Bensen returned last week from a four months' pleasure trip through Southern California and Honolulu.

Mrs. Lloyd J. Wentworth gave a small tea on Wednesday at her home in Irv-ington, at which time she asked her guests to meet Mrs. E. H. Pond and Miss

PHILOMATH COUNCILMAN WEDS CLERGYMAN'S DAUGHTER.

PHILOMATH, Or., Feb. 5.—(Special.) — A very pretty wedding was solumized in this city Wednesday, January 26, at 10 A. M., when Rev. and Mes. C. C. Bell gave away their only daughter, Myrtle M. to J. S. Webster. The father of the bride officiated. Both bride and groom are well known here, being members of the Alumni Association of Philomath College of the classes of '05 and '06 respectively. Mr. Webster is a member of the City Council. The bride is a favorite in social circles. Mr. and Mrs. Webster are spending their honeymoon in Portland. They will reside in Philomath.

GREAT INVENTORY SALE

This Week Will Be a Notable One for Extraordinary Bargains

Street Dresses $22.85

Keenly reduced prices have fastened themselves to many of the most wanted styles of Ladies' Costumes and Tailored Garments. Profits and in many instances cost prices have been forgotten in order to make this Suit and Cloak Section ready for the next busy season. Therefore, we have reduced these garments to $22.85 on account of stock-taking considerations. Regular = values to $65.00.....

variety of tone.

Preceding the Assembly ball, Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Corbett (Miss Alta Smith) entertained at dinner at the residence of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett. The din-of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett. The dinner was in compliment to Miss Caroline Burns and Mr. Hawley Hoffman, and the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Lesly Smith, Miss Lisa Wood, Mr. Raymond Wilcox, Mr. Loring, of Boston, Mr. Kurt Koehler, Mr. Minor Roberts, of Seattle, and Mr. C. C. Davis, Jr.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. G. Orlo Jefferson, who sailed from New York January 5, will be interested in their itinerary, which is extensive. After visiting Madeira, Gibraiter, Genoa and Naples, they arrived at Alexandria January 23, and left two days later for a 20-day trip (583 miles) up the Nile, planning to arrive back at Cairo February 21. Eight days will be spent in Lower Palestine, and they will leave for Alexandria March 1. From here they sail for Constantinople, touching at Smyrma and spending some days at Athens. They will leave March 16 for Corinth. A call is to be made at Corfu, and then, going by rail across Greece and Italy, Brindisi, Toggia and Naples will be visited. At this latter point, Dr. Jefferson has ordered his car to meet him and he expects to motor through Europe from here.

motor through Europe from here.

MUSIC AND SOCIETY.

Mrs. Sanderson Reed, soprano; Mrs.

Virginia Hutchinson-Wire, contraito, and Raymond Graham, baritone, will be pre-

Fancy Net Waists at

Every lady who attends this sale will have an opportunity to purchase bargains never heard of. These beautiful Waists are the latest styles and every garment is dependable.

Vals. to $12.50; while they last at, each ...

$15.00 and $25.00 FUR $4.98 HATS and TURBANS

In this department we have odds and ends in our stock of the regular Silverfield dependable quality to offer at inventory prices. Reg. values to 35c. . . 19c

85c HOSIERY 19c

Now Is the Time to Buy Furs

At a great saving. Come and convince yourself of the radical reductions we are offering in this department.

RAW FURS WANTED

Bring them in to us, and you will know who to sell your pelts to, as we pay the highest prices at all times.

parties in her honor.

the most prominent girls in Salt Lake society, and has spent several seasons in Europe. Mr. Whiteley is the presi-dent of the Salt Lake Golf Club. After Keiser's Neckwear. Centemeri & Co., Kid Gloves. Auto Vells.

THE QUALITY SHOP

New Tailored Waists

$3.00 to $6.50, perfect fitting. pure linen, best in the market.

New Embroideries

Fine baby sets, convent em-broideries in match sets, cambric and nainsook sets. All prices.

New Neckwear Linen stocks, stiff embroidered collars, new tabs. All prices.

New Hosiery

Silk, liste or cotton, 25c, 35c

GREAT SAVING ON FLANNELETTE Our odds and ends of Gowns and Skirts are of the ele-

Our Millinery Dept. offers to the public extraordinary bargains in gant $1.50 and $1.75 values, all included in 98C this inventory sale. Sale price

LEADING LADIES' OUTFITTERS

SILVERFIE

FOURTH AND MORRISON STS.

handsome home on Highland Drive. On Monday Mrs. Walter B. Mattleton gave a bridge party for Miss Sawyers; Mrs. J. W. Clise was a luncheon hostess on Thursday at her apartments, Mrs. Robert P. Oldham entertained on Saturday and in addition there were several theater parties in her honor. berg, Mrs. J. Polivka, Mrs. E. O. Mattern and Mrs. W. H. Powell. Mrs. J. J. Panton entertained a week ago Friday with the first of a series of large of the control of the contr

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge have recently come here from California and are occupying the C. T. Whitney residence on Marshall street, while the Whitneys are touring California.

Dr. George Ainsile left Portland last Wednesday for several months' special work in New York.

Miss Lillian Beile Cuddey entertained a number of young people last night for Miss Ruth Hancock, of Seattle, who is making a brief visit in Portland.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Kinney, of Salt Lake, and Mr. C. W. Whiteley, of the same place, was a pretty but simple ceremony on Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. James Dougherty, on King street. The large drawing-rooms were arranged with ferns, Easter lilles and orchids, and the dining-room in bridesmaid roses and illies of the valley. Archbishop Alexander Christie performed the ceremony, and Mr. D. C. Jecklin, of Salt Lake, attended Mr. Whiteley, Mrs. Dougherty in a Paris gown of white panne velvet and Venetian point, acted as matron of honor, Miss Angela Kinney, the bridesmaid, appeared in a girlish frock of white point d'esprit, trimmed with bands of Cecil Brunner rosebuds. The bride's gown was of foreign make, an ivory satin, with opalescent beading and rose point. The bride is one of the most prominent girls in Salt Lake society, and has spent several seasons dent of the Salt Lake Golf Club. After a three months' trip to Japan, Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley will live in Salt Lake.

The fourth of the Scottish Rite at homes was given Friday night at the cathedral, and there was a large and brilliant assemblage. This is the last of the entertainments till after Lent. The patronesses were: Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mrs. A. H. McGowan, Mrs. H. S. Rowe, Mrs. J. J. Read, Mrs. Clyde Evans, Mrs. J. P. Menefee, Mrs. Philip Neu, Mrs. W. Frei-

Superior Gas Attachments Bridge-Beach Superior Range

This attachment is equipped with one giant and two regular size burners, a splendid baking oven 12x18 inches, a broiler and toaster oven, making it possible to bake and broil at the same time. The attachment is made of polished steel, with removable linings; has adjustable gas mixers and needle valves, and removable star drilled burners that can be easily cleaned. The attachment requires but little space and makes an ideal combination stove where the kitchen is small.

AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS

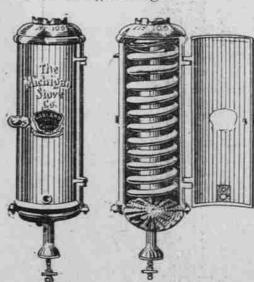

287 Morrison St.

GarlandGasRanges

Are made in many styles and sizes and are considered today by those competent to judge as the world's best Gas Range. The Range of today is constructed so that there is no stooping, no back breaking in its operation, which will appeal to all users of a gas range.

GARLAND Copper Coil WATER HEATERS

Our 10 G Heater will heat enough water for a bath in ten minutes. It will also heat a 30-gallon tank to 115 degrees in one hour's time at a cost of five and one-half cents. All danger in lighting is eliminated by simply opening the door, making it as safe to light as an ordinary gas jet. The entire jacket of heater is aluminum and absolutely will not rust. The most reliable, economical and satisfactory heater on the market. We demonstrate them in the basement.

HONEYMAN HARDWARE COMPANY

FOURTH AND ALDER STREETS, PORTLAND, OREGON