

GILTY

BY NANCY LEE

MISS BETTY BAER. WHO WILL SOON LEAVE FOR EUROPE, SAILING WITH MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MAC MASTER.

As we are entering upon holy week, another seven days of quietude will ensue, the reactionary period beginning a week hence. Nothing large as yet has been definitely featured, with the exception of several weddings and the last of the subscription dances, which, on April 1, will be given at Murlark Hall. The engagement rumored last week was that of Mrs. Hamilton Brooks, who is now in Europe, to C. E. von Gilman, of Switzerland, who has lived in Portland for two years or more. Mrs. Brooks is at present in Italy, where the wedding was to have taken place, but owing to the fact that Mr. von Gilman will soon be associated with a Portland corporation the trip has been deferred, and the wedding will take place here. Mrs. Brooks has some in extensively for philanthropic work, and was the popular president of the Fruit and Flower Mission.

Miss Martha Hoyt is at present in Rome. With her are Mrs. Philip Johnson, of Richmond, Virginia, her daughter, Miss Scarborough, and Miss Jamie Sullivan. The latter, it will be recalled, lived in Portland many years ago and attended St. Helen's Hall at the same time as Mrs. E. J. Reed, then Miss Green, and the Misses Henrietta and Miss Mary Felling. Miss Sullivan's father, General Sullivan, was at one time in command at Vancouver Barracks. From home the party will go to Florence, where they will remain for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Easterbrook Jones, of Newton, Mass., with their son, Durham Jones, have been touring Europe for some months and are now in Egypt. They will return to America the latter part of April and in May will come to Portland to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Durham at their attractive Riverside residence. Mrs. Jones was Miss Lillian Durham.

Mrs. Marion P. Maus, wife of General Maus, of Vancouver, B. C., who was recently called East by the illness of her father, Admiral Poor, unfortunately arrived too late to reach her father's bedside before his death. Mrs. Maus has the sympathy of her many friends on the occasion of her bereavement. She will remain in the East for several weeks and is expected to return some time in May.

Mrs. Philipp Wasserman and Miss Gotta Wasserman will leave in a few weeks for New York and will then sail for Europe. They will spend some time in Germany and will visit other points of interest made familiar by previous trips abroad.

Miss Helen Eastham, who recently returned from some months in California, is planning to go to Europe this summer. She will go direct to London, where she will visit Mrs. John White, who was Miss Harriet Stevens, of Portland, some ten years ago. Mr. and Mrs. White have traveled a great deal through Europe, but spend a part of the year in London, where they have a handsome home. From England, Miss Eastham will go to France, where she will join Mrs. Curtis Strong and Miss Alice Strong. Miss Eastham's mother, Mrs. P. F. Morey, with Miss Shirely Eastham, are also taking a part of going abroad, leaving September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mac Master will close their artistic home near the golf links, the latter part of May, as they are contemplating a European trip which will terminate next October. June 1 they will sail from New York, with Miss Alissa Mac Master and Miss Mazie Mac Master, who is now attending a finishing school near Baltimore. They will also chaperone Miss Betty

MISS SHIRELY EASTHAM, WHO HAS RETURNED FROM CALIFORNIA AND IS LATER GOING ABROAD.

Baer, who is returning to her home in Vienna. They will go direct to Charbourg, and from there to join Miss Katherine Mac Master in Paris, where she has spent the winter. The Mac Masters will tour France and then visit in England and Scotland before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord returned last Sunday from a brief trip to New York, Boston, Minneapolis and Washington, D. C. In Boston they spent two days with Miss Sally Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hart, who is attending Miss Chamberlain's finishing school.

Major and Mrs. J. J. Morrow, of Washington, D. C., will arrive soon in Portland, where Major Morrow will have charge of Government work. The Morrrows have a charming home in the capital where they have resided for the past seven years, the longest period of home life in Mrs. Morrow's army experience as a daughter of an officer and wife of another.

Easter week, Mrs. Walter V. Smith will be a luncheon hostess complimentary to Miss Mary Montgomery, whose wedding occurs April 7.

The Spring days have created a desire for golf playing, and the Waverly links had many devotees. A number of new recruits, under the guidance of a coach, have also devoted much time and patience to the invigorating sport. Women players are as yet in the minority, while a few of the best players have been enjoying golf at Del Monte. Among some of the maids and matrons seen playing recently are Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs.

Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Margaret Walter, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Marjorie Barrows, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. John C. Alsworth, Miss Carrie Flanders and Miss Evelyn Wilson.

Mrs. Graham Glass left on Monday for New York to be with Miss Ethelwynne and Graham Glass during the Easter holidays. Miss Ethelwynne is attending a finishing school at Millbrook, N. Y., and Graham Glass is at Harvard. Miss Glass is one of the best equestriennes at her school and presents a smart appearance in her riding habit. Mrs. Glass with her son and daughter will spend some days in New York, also in Boston and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis left on Sunday morning for New York on a pleasure and business trip combined. Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Miss Sally Lewis also went East, the early part of the week. Mrs. C. H. Lewis and her daughter had planned to leave for New York some weeks ago, but the landlides and congested railroad conditions deterred them. While in New York they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairbanks. (Miss Frances Lewis).

Mr. and Mrs. E. De Witt Connell are again in Vienna after their interesting trip to South America. They have recently made a tour of the university towns in Germany and will visit Paris once more before returning to Portland about June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr have returned from some weeks in California. They visited in San Francisco and Burlingame but spent the major part of their time at Santa Barbara and Del Monte, playing golf.

Shortly after Easter, Miss Susan Clarke will go to Tacoma for a few days' visit with her sister, and from there to the Bremerton Navy-yard, where she will visit Lieutenant and Mrs. Griswold. Miss Dorothy Morrison, who is also at the Navy-yard, will accompany Miss Clarke home.

Cards are out for a semi-formal at home, which will be given by Mrs. Frank Kerr, at her Irvington home, Saturday, March 26.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton are now building a home near Gresham to which they will move June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ames have rented the Cotton home at Twentieth and Lovejoy streets.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Myers, of Seattle, who have spent a fortnight at the Hotel Portland, have returned home. April 1 they will sail for Europe to be gone some months. Mr. Myers was formerly from Portland.

The Percy Blythe residence on Kings Heights has recently been sold to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacRae. Mr. and Mrs. Blythe and their two children have been in London now for over a year, and so have about decided to reside there permanently. During their various trips their home has at different times been occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. Grelle of Orange, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Donaghy S. Josselyn, and General and Mrs. Thomas Anderson.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Nancy Honeyman, and Miss Marjorie Barrows of St. Paul are spending the week end at Mr. and Mrs. James Honeyman's beach residence at Gearhart Park.

Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer is enthusiastic over her very interesting visit in New York, where she attended 20 grand operas, in addition to orchestral concerts and musicals at Carnegie Hall. Mrs. Bauer had several luncheons and teas given in her honor while in Gotham, at which also met grand opera luminaries and distinguished men and women in the literary and artistic set. Mrs. Bauer coached while in New York with the famous Ludovico Luckstone, with whom Schubert, Schuman-Heink and Nordica have studied. Dr. George Atsille, of Portland, is also coming with Luckstone at present, as is Charlotte Macdonald, who is a great favorite here. Mrs. Bauer sang for Alfred Herz, the Wagnerian director, also for Walter Damrosch and Alfred Mildenberg, the composer and pianist, all of whom had flattering things to say of her voice and suggested her appearing in grand opera. Mrs. Bauer declares that New York is at present a splendid education musically, as the rival impresarios spare no expense in presenting the greatest of choruses and operas obtainable, enhanced with wonderful scenic accessories.

Horse lovers are being attracted by the Vancouver Horse Show, which is scheduled for April 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23. Miss Eleanor Laidlaw, who exhibited a string of splendid horses at the Portland show, will contribute, as will Miss Bernice Baker of Tacoma, Miss Farrell of Seattle, and Miss Lillian O'Brien, the latter taking over Finabright, Salem's first horse show is scheduled for April 8 and 9, and the majority of thoroughbreds in Portland will be entered. Particularly fortunate have the Salem promoters been in securing T. S. McGrath as judge of the show. Many who have not taken the ride to Salem on the new electric railroad have decided to combine the pleasure of attending the horse show with a first ride on the interurban.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaud are building a new residence at the head of Kings Court, near the homes of General and Mrs. C. F. Beebe and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Maxwell.

The French Ambassador and Madame Jusserand, who were entertained here last Summer by Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, are sailing soon for France. They expect to be in Paris during Theodore Roosevelt's visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baldwin have leased a country place at Pine Orchards, Conn., 15 miles east of New Haven. They will spend their Summers at the ranch, which is two miles north of Ella, where Ella Wheeler Wilcox has a Summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock will be supper hosts following the subscription dance, April 1.

After two years' residence in Portland, Robert Noble has returned to reside at his former home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foster Owen of Irvington are receiving congratulations from their friends on the birth of a son on March 17. Mrs. Owen was formerly Miss Clara Lewys of Seattle.

The presence in town during the week of Homer Davenport, the distinguished Oregon artist who occasionally returns to his home land, has been the occasion for some informal entertaining in his honor. Mr. Davenport will remain in the state for some weeks, dividing his time between Portland and his father's home at Silverton. His lectures this week at the White Temple will attract a large following.

Miss Marguerite Boschko, a Portland Academy girl, who recently returned from California, gave a St. Patrick's Day party on Thursday afternoon. With the exception of baskets of fruit blossoms, a

H B Litt
Established 1879

Several hundred garments of the better makes carried by others will arrive this week for women, small women and misses.

Several distinctive novelties will arrive every few days.

H. B. LITT

An Unusual Display
IN OUR DIAMOND WINDOW
During the entire week, commencing tomorrow.

Patek Philippe Watches
Known the world over for their superior time-keeping qualities. Sole agents for Oregon.

PORTLAND'S LARGEST and BEST JEWELRY STORE

Extends the season's greetings and announces the arrival of great multitudes of absolutely

NEW AND UNIQUE DIAMOND and GOLD JEWELRY

For its Spring and Easter offerings. Great care and attention have been given, in detail, to provide the styles that best conform to the edicts of the latest fashions. Your personal inspection is respectfully solicited to see the many, many new and unique novelties that prevail. Prices are attractive and as interesting as the goods themselves.

SOLID SILVER WEDDING GIFTS
Our Department of Silver possesses unusual variety to simplify the choice of wedding gifts. The splendid showing of the plain patterns in hollow and flatware have much unusualness and must be seen to be appreciated.

SILVER DEPOSIT WARE
A host of new oddities.
THOSE HANDSOME SHEFFIELD TRAYS
In all the desired shapes and sizes.
A splendid variety of patterns.

A. & C. Feldenheimer

283-85 Washington St.—Rothchild Bldg.—Established 1868

DIAMOND IMPORTERS
OPTICIANS
MANUFACTURING JEWELERS

green color scheme was carried out with shamrocks, bows of green tulle and emerald colored candelabra shades. Bridge was played at five tables. Prizes were silver picture frames and colonial mirrors. Present were Miss Margaret Boot, Miss Lillian Guehner, Miss Greta Butterfield, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss Freda Baruh, Miss Kate Brazel, Miss Ger-aldine Courson, Miss Florence Clark, Miss Eleanor Cannon, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Maurine Campbell, Miss Helen Dobie, Miss Mildred Fuller, Miss Wilma Fisk, Miss Irene Flynn, Miss Mayme Helen Flynn, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Leon-ide Fleury, Miss Clara Fleishman, Miss Margery Forbis, Miss Louise Gies-son, Miss Elaine Gill, Miss Gladys How-ard, Miss Bess Hammond, Miss Florence Hollister, Miss Marjorie Hausenat, Miss Della Hahn, Miss Laura Koroll, Miss Mabel Koroll, Miss Gretchen Kles-terman, Miss Edith Levy, Miss Grace Lottman, Miss Dorothy Moulton, Miss

IF SEEKING THE NEWEST YOU'LL FIND IT AT THE STYLE STORE

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' TAILORED SUITS

This ready-to-put-on section has a mission to perform—to be ever on the alert that we may secure merchandise most in demand, at prices within reach of the popular purse; to be able to furnish merchandise that is a credit to the house and yet so reasonably priced that it will be disposed of in vast quantities. This serves a double purpose, a big outlet, a great purchasing power, which results in lowest prices.

SEE OUR $25 SUITS

We show an immense assortment of Man-Tailored Suits in women's and misses' sizes in all the new materials, consisting of serges, worsteds, homespuns and mannish suitings. Jackets are satin or peau de cygne lined; skirts in the new plaited effects.

An Elegant $25.00 Suit at . . . $25.00

Our garments are fitted by experts. And all necessary alteration free of charge. Garments purchased early in the week will be finished in time for Easter Sunday.

Charge Accounts Solicited
Our peerless charge system enables you to buy your entire Spring outfit and pay for same in weekly or monthly payments.

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.

Washington at Tenth St. The Place Where Your Credit Is Good