

East Side Rents Make Low Prices

No Wonder Gevurtz Bros. Can Sell Cheaper Than All Others

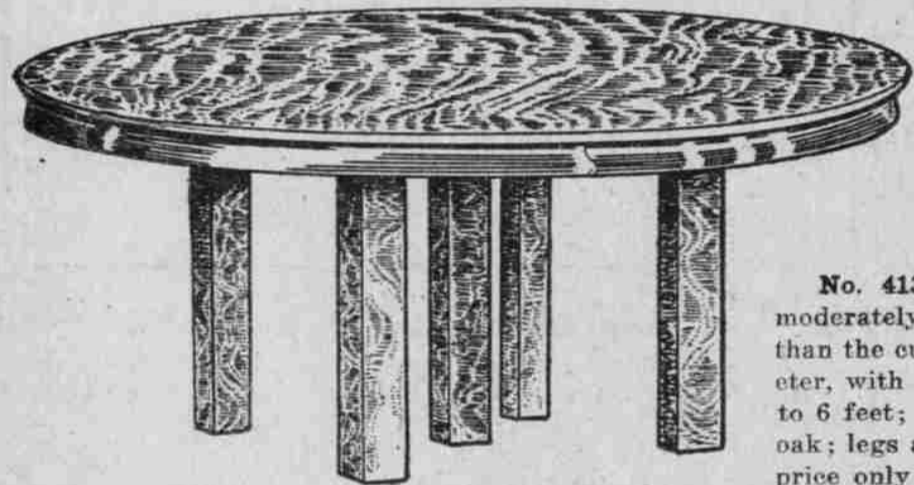

Owing to a fortunate lease, made three years ago, before the advance in realty values, Gevurtz Bros. pay but $375 monthly rental for their mammoth store, 100x100 feet, with four floors. No like institution in the city—East or West Side—pays such a small rental tax.

Of Course We Can Sell the Cheapest—That Accounts for Great Growth

When you consider taxes, insurance, interest on money invested, our rental tolls are less than if we owned the building outright. Other East Side dealers are at an expense of rentals of $700 to $800, and West Side dealers from $1500 to $3000 monthly.
