METHODISTS ARE IN LEAD 650 Laymen's Movement Banquet Tickets Sold, 1000 Expected.

With the last mail late yesterday afternoon, it was announced by the local committee in charge of the coming Lay-men's Missionary Movement, that the Methodists, with 205, now lead the list of Portland religious denominations for tickets to the banquet which will open the convention Tuesday evening at the Meier & Frank Company's store.

The Baptists are running second with a total of 161, and the others in the following order: Congregationalists, 126; Episcopalians, 84; Presbyterians, 55; United Presbyterians, 23; Evan-In all, 650 tickets have been disposed of and paid for and a hundred or more reservations have been made, but it is not the wish of the committee in charge of the banquet to hold these reservations long. One thousand persons only will be accommodated at the

Quinn came upon the negroes while they were loitering in front of a store. Without a word the blacks at-tacked him, one of them cutting him with a razor, while the other pressed a revolver to his right breast and fired. The negroes then fied. Quinn fired three shots at them without effect.

CLUB'S LIFE IS CUT SHORT Creditors Demand Pay for Liquors Furnished Milwaukie Resort.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 26.— (Special.)—The career of J. A. Zim-mermann as a saloonkeeper will evidently be short. Less than two weeks ago the old Milwaukie Club, owned by Isaac Gratton, was opened under Zimmermann's direction, after having been closed about three years.

This afternoon Attorney Meindl, of Portland, brought suit against Zimmermann, representing the claims of Blumauer & Hock, who sold Zimmermann liquors to the value of $202.70, of which only $8.50 has been paid; and the Mount Hood Brewing Company, who advanced Zimmermann $53,35 in money and sold him merchandise valued at $13,50.
