Oregon Team at Scattle Has Better Knowledge of Subject.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 26 .- (Spe cial.)—The University of Oregon Inter-collegiate debating team, upholding the negative side of the question: "Resolved. regative side of the question; "Resolved, That all corporations engaged in interstate commerce should be required to take out Federal charters," won a twoto-one decision over the Washington representatives in a debate in the State University, auditorium tonight.

Oregon won the debate on the blosing speech of L. Leon Ray, whose construc-tive argument and rebuttal easily sur-passed the efforts of the other five speakers Washington excelled in de-livery, but Oregon showed the better knowledge of the subject,

Glenn Hoover, the leader of the losing team, delivered an excellent rebuttal that was only excelled by the speech by

Ray. The Washington debaters were Fred Angevine Leo Balsden and Glenn Hoover. The victorious trio was composed of R Burns Powell, Howard Zimmerman and L. Leon Ray. The judges were Overton G. Ellis, of Tacoma; Judge W. H. White, of Redmond, and Judge W. O. Chapman, of Tacoma. The members of the two teams were guests of honor at a banquet given to-night by the members of the Badger and Stevens Debating Clubs of the State University. The president of the Associated Students of the university acted as chair

mon of the entertainment.

While in the city the members of the Oregon team inspected the plant of the University of Washington daily and spent the afternoon on Lake Union watching the Washington crews at work for the coming regulate. or the confing regattas.

Young Woman Takes Poison After

Her Arrest.

Humiliation caused by the detection of her association with a man not her husband prompted Mrs. May Hess, wife of a cook, to swallow the contents of a vial of carbolle acid in a room at the Victor Hotel, 1715 Front street, at 2:40 o'clock Friday afternoon. A moment after she had swallowed the deadly draught of poison she informed her busband of her act. Emetics were promptly adminis-tered, but to no avail. The woman was burried to St. Vincent's Hospital, where she died in the surgery at 4 o'clock. Cor-oner Norden was notified and ordered the body removed to the Morgue. No inquest will be held, as the facts in the case point to suicide.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Hess and Edward Gundlach, a young man employed as a shipping clerk in a wholesale liquor house, were arraigned in the municipal court on a statutory charge. The complaint against them was filed by J. A. Hess, the husband. When the case was called before Police Judge Bennett, Hess became repentant because of his part in his young wife's predicament and urged that the case be nolled. Through the in-tercession of his attorney Hess succeeded in persuading Deputy District Attorney Hennessy to consent to a dismissal of the charge against the pair. The woman affecting scene between Hess and his wife in an antercom adjoining the court chamber. Hess forgiving his wife.

Later in the day Mrs. Hess, who was but 20 years of uge, grew remorseful over the exposure of her infidelity. She left her room and went to a nearby drug-store, where she purchased a vial of carbolic acid. Her husband, noting her departure from her apartments, followed her. He arrived at the moment when the clerk handed her the vial of poison. Hess whisked the poison from his wife's hands and placed it in his pocket, while tions. night in the convention half of the Commercial Club gave an illustrated talk on the beautifying of cities. Mr. Bennett did not make any statements on the specific problems which Port-land will have to face in the work which he has been engaged to outline, but confined himself to showing what has been done and what it is proto do in other cities of the States and Europe. The talk was given under the auspices of the Portland Civic Improvement League. Dr. Wetherbee, president of the club, introduced "History proves that great catastrophos do not lend themselves to the carrying out of improvement projects, which is now proposed in San Francis-co. The primary thing to work on in the California metropolis, he said, was the encircling line of hills. The plan eventually will mean that these will eventually will mean that these will be converted into parks. Though little work along the right lines was done after the earthquake in San Francisco, Mr. Bennett cited the fact that the United States Government is doing considerable at the Presidio and along the water front. Mr. Bennett also the plans for a beautiful city must be drawn with an eye to the future growth. Every city must be studied closely to discover, if possible, in what general direction the future trend of expansion will be, conforming the plans to such growth. Mr. Bennett said that to such growth. At the he had intended showing some rough preliminary drawings of Portland and vicinity, explaining the general plan to be followed here, but was unable to

to be followed here, but was unable to have them prepared in time.

Dr. Wetherbee said that Mr. Bennett in the apurse of a few months would submit a general suggestion for the approval of the league, and if this were adopted would proceed with the drawing of more complete and detailed plans. Dr. Wetherbee said that it was no "Utopian scheme," but a plan for a sensible and therefore beautiful city.

Mr. Bennett will leave Portland this afternoon for Chicago, where he wi remain several months. He has don a large part of the planning for th uniform building of Greater Chicago, His final plan for the improvement of Portland probably will not be sub-mitted within 16 months.

Just what action the miners then will take is a question troubling the mining interests here.

A street conference was held here last night by the miners' joint scale commit-tee, but its result was not announced. It is known Western Pennsylvania and Indiana operators offered a 5-cent increase on nick work. It is reported that at to day's meeting of the miners' conven-tion the question will be whether to strike in Ohio alone or to refuse all offers and call a general strike.

The latter is thought improbable, as the miners believe if they can secure an increased wage scale in Western Pennsylvania and Indiana it will be adhered to throughout the country.

Another alternative that had considerable backing would be the dissolution of the miners convention, with instructions to the various districts to sign new agreements, or, failing in this, to begin
