Portiand's Fourth Annual Rose Festival assumed definite form yesterday after noon when the management adopted th programme of formal events that has been in preparation for the past three or four months. The whole six days of the second week of June is to be filled with attractions of the finest character Portland has never seen anything like it, and the Festival officials declare that the celebration will be the most wonderful week of amusement and pleasure ever arranged west of the Rocky Moun-

The programme for Monday, the official opening day, includes a welcome to all who have ever lived in Portland. The Festival management will undertake to invite all former Oregonians to come here for the week. The railronds have announced extremely low rounding rates good not only in Oregon, but also throughout the Northwest and from all points in the East and Middle West. In other words the Rose Festival wins the same rates that any World's Fair in this country has ever secured.

The shower of roses by the Peninsula Rose Association is to be a striking and pictureque event. The main streets of Portland will be strewn with rose blooms thrown away by groups of young women from the northeastern section of the city.

Nearly four acres of rose exhibits will be shown during the annual exposition of the Portland Rose Society which will have the big place on the programme on Tuesday and Wednesday. The horse and vehicle parade is in the hands of the Portland Hunt Club and those who saw what was done last year may readily realize its possibilities. President Ambrose a. Cronin of the riunt Club, who will be the director-in-chief, says that the parade this coming June will be vastly superior to the one of a year ago. The novelty features of this cavalcade, Mr. Cronin will not specify, but he says sufficient new stuff has been worked out to make it the greatest mounted and vehicular procession that ever wended the streets procession that ever wended the streets of Portland.

The East Side Business Men's Club is working out a theme of its own. The merchants and shopmen, the Jobbers and Industrial interests on the other and industrial interests on the other side of the river have taken keen interest in the celebration. Their programme has not been worked out in detail, but it will be a splendid one, according to the reports the committee has made to the festival management. The Peninsula Rose Festival Association will have charge of the scattering of roses in the streets, of the information bureau at the Union Depot and of giving away roses to all incoming visitors.

NEW ASSOCIATION GROWS

Development Organization of Southwestern Washington Will Meet May 27 and 28 to Formulate Plans - Not Political.

J. E. Barnes, first secretary for the newly organized Southwestern Washington Development Association, was in the city yesterday in the interest of the next meeting of the association to be held at Raymond, Wash., May 27 and 28. Mr. Barnes arranged for special trains over the Spokane, Portland & Scattle Railroad and the Northern Pacific Railroad for the purpose of carrying the delegates to and from the convention with the least and from the convention with the least possible loss of time.

The special will leave Hoquiam on the morning of May 27 at 7:29 and pick up members of the association at Aberdeen. Montesano, Elma, Oakville, Centralia and Chehalis. At Chehalis the train will be joined by the business men of White Salmon, Troutdale, Stevenson, Vancouver. Woodland, Kalama, Cathlamet, Chinook. Kelso, Castle Rock and Winlock, and will drop down to Baymond in a body.

"For many years Southwestern Washington has struggled for a proportionate share of the internal improvements for which our property has been assessed and upon which the taxation has been cheerfully paid," said Mr. Barnes, yesterday.

"Just now the association is meeting with a wonderful growth, and nothing can be imagined which will prevent our attaining the ends which we are alming to accountlish.

No Polities in Association.

"We are accused of having formed a political organization, but the character of the membership, representing the most prominent business men of the Southwest and who are members of all the political parties, precludes the possibility of our association becoming at attachment to the kite of any party or any man. The association will be political only in the fact that at Raymond we are going to make a platform declaring for a square deal from whoever is in power for the development of Grays Harbor, Willapa Harbor, the Columbia River and good roads for our district to reach each and every one of the waterways.

"I can best make it clear by saying that out of the $7,000,000 to $10,000,000 appropriated by the last Washington Legislature, Chehalis and Centralia and our immense district secured $15,000 for a county fair. We pay $2,000,000 of that $10,000,000 appropriated. Southwestern Washington is not going to stand for that sort of thing any more. and who are members of all the political

"The first day of the Raymond session will be devoted to a completion of our organization, reports of the temporary committees appointed at Centralia and such incidental work as we may find at hand. The second day, we will take up the good roads movement so far as we are interested in it and will arrange to secure a fair division of the money now in the hands of the State Treasurer for those purposes.
