MISHAP MARS TESTS

Success of Machine Pully Proved by Flights at Albany, Burkhart Will Make Longer Aerial Voyages Next Attempt.

ALBANY, Or., April 5 .- (Special.) - After

ALBANY, Or., April 5.—(Special.)—After suffering mishaps in recent trials which prevented him from getting a good start, John C. Burkhart, of Portland, get away for five successful flights with his biplane airship this afternoon.

On every test the machine rose perfectly and covered from 100 to 230 yards each trial until Burkhart brought It to earth, alighting easily without a jar. The fifth flight the machine covered exactly $12 feet, being in the air 15.25 seconds. Burkhart tried only short, straight flights today, but the machine worked so successfully that he will essay longer flights. essfully that he will cesay longer flights

Today was the first time in his experi-ment at Goltra Park that some minor nishap to the machinery has not pre-vented a thorough test of the airship, and this afternoon's work demonstrated the success of the machine.

STATE ENTERS PROTEST

Banker Took Money for Own

COLFAX, Wash., April 9 .- (Special.) -H. M. Boone, A. S. Parker and A. R. Patton today pleaded not guilty in the Superior Court and Attorneys Hanna and Ellings have been employed by the and Ellings have been employed by the state to assist Prosecuting Attorney Chamberlin. The state has experts at work on the bank books at Colfax. No great shortage was charged in the information today, the three being charged with fraudulently converting to their own use $535.90. Boone's largest alleged transgression is a note which the bank holds for $3000, a payment of $750 having been made. The information charges a total loss in notes and money of less than $5000. It is not known which note the state will use in its first case.

Attorneys Patterson, Pattison & Moore for the defense, asked to be allowed the bank books for inspection and to aid in arranging witnesses. The state objected and Judge Canfield will give a ruling and set the date of trial April 15.
