STUDENTS GIVEN ENTERTADMENT.—A large number of parents and friends were present Friday afternoon at the musical and literary entertainment given by students of the different classes of the Christian Brothers College, Grand avenue. The occasion was the monthly distribution of testimonials of merit and awarding of premiums to students who stood highest in their quarterly examinations. Quite a number of students have excelled in application to study, attendance and deportment during the last quarter and were highly complimented by the president, Brother Andrew, for their work. There is a large gymnasium class connected with the college, which will give an exhibition on the evening of June 3. The programme was rendered by students of the preparatory, second intermediate, first intermediate, second grammar, first grammar, commercial and business classes. The college double quartet rendered selections, to the delight of the audience. ouble quartet rendered selections, to the delight of the audience.

Pupils Make Exhibit of Work.—At the meeting of the South Mount Tabor Parents' and Teachers' Association Friday afternoon Mrs. Caldwell spoke on the objects and alms of the Consumers' League, explaining them in detail. The address was full of information. In connection with the meeting the teachers of the South Mount Tabor School, with the assistance of the pupils, had prepared a fine exhibit of the work done in the school. The articles were taken from the manual training department and classes of the different grades and placed in the classerent grades and placed in the classrerent grades and placed in the class-rooms. Through the rooms the parents and their friends were conducted and showed the articles prepared by the pupils. The exhibition gave the par-ents opportunity to see just what is be-ling done in the public schools. The classrooms had been attractively dec-orated for the occasion.

EFFORTS TO BEFRIEND COSTLY.—Because G. Schmidt, a grocer at East Fif-eenth and East Ankeny streets, tried teenth and East Ankeny streets, tried to help out a farmer on Grand avenus Friday he lost a suit of clothes, including hat and necktie, and was painted brown by the explosion of a can of paint. A farmer had jumped into his wagon and started to drive off before he had untied his horses, with the result that one animal was thrown to the pavement. Mr. Schmidt jumped to the assistance of the animal. There happened to be several cans of paint on the curb and one gallon can was caught under the horse and burst just as Schmidt stooped down. His suit was entirely rulned and acid in the paint entirely ruined and acid in the paint burned his skin. The farmer laughed at Schmidt and drove off without hanking him.

City Auditor Opens War on Delinquents Who Have Failed to See Official as Required.

Four hundred automobile owners in this city will be arrested and com-pelled to furnish ball to keep out of iall unless they "get busy" and reg-later with City Auditor Barbur at the later with City Auditor Barbur at the City Hall at once. Mr. Barbur so declared yesterday. A very large number of these persons ignore the regulations as to registering machines or are unaware of them and there has been so much trouble over it that arrests are to be ordered soon for those who do not comply with the provisions.

"There are fully 400 owners of automobiles in this city who have not regmobiles in this city who have not reg-istered their machines at our office, said Mr. Barbur. "We are notifying all whom we can reach, but we have about reached the limit, and I intend to turn over the balance to Chief Cox for arrests soon. We must have a correct list of the owners of automobiles and have them correspond with the num-
