These Tailored Suits at $24.75

Should Meet 125 Women's Needs—Worth $50, $47.50, $42.50, $40, $35

From the cloak and suit section comes this third week announcement of a saving event in which just 125 women can participate—an opportunity for those who seek a good-looking, admirably-tailored suit for general all-Summer or Fall wear. Included are suits of light mixtures, navy blue serges, black serges, mannish mixtures, stripe serges and white serges with black pin stripes. Every garment this season's very latest style. Coats from 28 inches to 34 inches long.

Most of them are plain tailored styles—a few are braid trimmed. Those in the black and white checks are trimmed with black braid; in the navy blue serge, edged with black braid.

Women's and misses' and a few juniors' sizes.

About Last Week's Window Decorating Contest

With the close of last week ended one of the most interesting events of Portland's fourth and most memorable Annual Rose Festival—the Show Window Decorating Contest, which was open to all women's organizations.

First Prize, $100—Flower Mission Day Nursery. Second Prize, $75—Florence Meade Mission Circle of the Universalist Church. Third Prize, $50—Putton Home for the Aged. Fourth Prize, $25—Women's Christian Temperance Union.

A special mention was made by the judges of the display of the People's Institute, and a special award of $25 was appropriated for same.

The following organizations received honorable mention and were awarded prizes of $10 each:

Scout Young Auxiliary of the U. S. W. V. Oregon State Congress of Mothers. Junior Auxiliary of the Visiting Nurses' Association. Mothers' and Teachers' Circle of the Holman School. Woodlawn Methodist Church. Portland Women's Union.

JUDGES: MR. H. C. BOWERS, Manager of Hotel Portland. MR. W. J. HOFFMAN, Advertising Manager of The Oregonian. MR. A. L. FISH, Assistant Manager of the Journal.
